Others have insertions of genuine lace. The sticks of these fans are made of real pearl, pure white or rose-colored, or are of carved bone, delicately traced with tiny gold and flowers and vines.

In the Art Store Bronzes

—The artistic genius of the worker in metals knows no bounds.

—Thus it is that the very beautiful bronze statuary lamps and other pieces which are being displayed from day to day must be seen to be duly appreciated.

—Especially exquisite are three electric lighted pieces, which would be such a wonderful asset to the half darkened hall or den.

—One of these is the figure of Napoleon after the battle of Waterloo, seated before the glowing fireplace, the utmost expression of broken hopes. The piece is of French bronze and is fitted with small electric globes. Price $55.00.

—Another is of Royal Vienna bronze and is especially commendable for the coloring and the reproduction in metal of the different fabrics. It represents the Traveling Arab, leading a camel, on the back of which is a gorgeous howdah, the carriage of his lady. One invariably feels of the silk trappings and is surprised to find them cold and hard to the touch. A light concealed in the draperies is just sufficient to be attractive in the corner of a Moorish den. Price $135.00.

—A third illuminated piece represents "Elk Seeking Water." Under a spreading oak of Berlin bronze (Pompeian finish) they have found a clear pool in which appears to be reflected the green light that shines through the leaves of the tree and glistens on the crystal acorn cups. Price $35.00.

—Large leather portfolio, handsomely mounted with the figure of a bull moose in Vienna bronze, lined with moire silk and fitted with pockets for stationery and blotter pads. Price $20.00.
