Art Needlework

$3.50 Hand Embroidered

Waists,

Special $1.75

—These Waists are made up of very sheer flaxon, and are completely finished even to buttons and buttonholes and a draw string at the waist line. They are in the kimono style, daintily cross-stitched by hand, in a trailing rose design across the front and around the sleeves. The Dutch neck and short sleeves are finished with buttonholed scallops, done by hand. A lovelier present for a young girl cannot be imagined.

FINISHED ART NEEDLEWORK NOVELTIES,
Regular $1.25 and $1.50,

Special 75c Each

TIE RACKS

—Crescent-shaped back, covered with art linen, artistically embroidered with field daisies on a party green ground. This is further ornamented with satin ribbon bows and hangs up by a ribbon of the same. It is a very useful article to have near the dresser, as upon the pegs may be hung numerous little accessories, besides ties.

—Bags for Collars, Cuffs or Handkerchiefs, and Shirt-Waist Cases for Travelers are also in this lot. They are made of art linen and embroidered to match the tie rack, described above. Any two of them given together would make a very handsome set. Their price in this sale is just 75 cents apiece.

White Embroidered Hand Bags,

Special 75c

—These are made of ribbed wash materials and are embroidered in white mercerized cotton. They are in the popular envelope style, buttoned with a large embroidered button and are carried by means of a long knotted and twisted white cord. This is a very pretty adjunct for the lingerie toilette.

Stamped Art Pieces for Needle-Work.

Formerly sold at $1 and $1.25.

Special 48c

—Centerpieces, Table Runners and Pillow Tops, stamped on tan, green and brown linen, or rose, green and champagne silk Bengaline; conventional designs; also the favorite rambler rose.

Chafing Dishes

—What gathering of gay young misses is complete without a chafing dish? The joy and delight derived from one of these handy articles is unequalled by any of a girl's possessions.

—The chafing dish parties take the place of the bridge parties of her grown-up sister, and over the steaming, savory mixtures many long Winter hours are whiled away and all the latest school happenings are discussed.

—Nothing could make a more cherished gift for the school maid than one of our attractive chafing dishes. You will find them in a great variety of metals and designs, from the modest little copper ones to the elegant silver ones, each and every one having a fascination hard to resist.

—For those fortunate ones who already possess a chafing dish are the dearest little accessories, such as wooden forks and spoons trimmed with metal, trays of various sizes, cunning little three-bottle castors, graceful flagons with which to fill the lamp, all in metals to match the chafing dishes.

—Copper and nickel chafing dishes. Prices from $5 to $12.50.
—Fork and Spoon, each $1.50
—Trays in copper and nickel, priced from $3.75 to $8.75.
—Castors for salt and peppers at $2.00 each. 6th Floor.

$1.95 Each

Hats That Sold Regularly at $7.00

This is a splendid showing of this season's millinery—not a lot of odds and ends, as some would be led to suppose from the price and their experience elsewhere but smartly trimmed hats, strictly up to date.

—Many having been trimmed within the last few weeks for the regular trade.

—Our customers will be amazed, and justly so, to see this remarkable reduction of millinery that is in every way up to our usual standard of merchandise.

—To give here in a few words an adequate description of these hats is impossible. They are extremely stylish and are in an endless variety of shapes. There are soft velvet hats and blocked velvet hats, hats of an excellent quality of velour and hats of plain felts.

—Trimmings of velvet ribbon, twists and facings, satin and taffeta ribbon puffs, silk and velvet roses, gold and silver lace, willow plumes, ostrich fancies and French wings.

—Trimmed very simply, but in a way that expresses individuality.
