JOYFUL MUSIC WILL PROCLAIM CHRISTMAS IN LOCAL CHURCHES

Many Special Programs Have Been Arranged for Services Tomorrow.

The churches of Portland are to play no small part in the Christmas celebration of 1912, for already elaborate plans for entertainments, special musical evening and prayer service have been arranged for Christmas week. In a great number of churches, especially those of the leading denominations, sacred Christmas music is to be a feature at both the morning and evening services tomorrow, with night during the week devoted exclusively to musical entertainments. Those who have charge of these programs have been working for some time, securing the best talent in the city to make their service unusually attractive.

First Methodist Episcopal Church.

For more than three weeks Miss Lenora Fisher, organist and director of the choir of the First Methodist Episcopal church, Third and Taylor streets has been working diligently to prepare one of the best Christmas musical programs to be given in any of the churches. Special music will be the big feature at both the morning and evening services at the church tomorrow. The morning program follows:

Prelude, "Romance" (Marcehnre).
Anthem, "He Shall Be Great" (Lansine).
Offertory, cello solo, "Reverie" (Bottonelli), by Mr. Raff.
Duet, "Songs of Praise the Angels Sing," Hosmer, by Mr. Mulder and Mr.
Montgomery.
Anthem, "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear" (Booth).
Organ postlude, "Exaltation" (Foe-rster).

The feature of the evening special service will be a cantata, "The Star of Bethlehem," and the program is arranged as follows:

Prelude, "Serenade" (Widor), violin, cello and organ.
Offertory, cello solo, "Andante Religioso" (Thome).
Cantata, "The Star of Bethlehem" (Harker).

The regular quartet, consisting of Mary Parkin Deen, soprano; Elizabeth Stowers, contralto; Joseph P. Mulder, tenor, and W. A. Montgomery, baritone, will be assisted by Zeta Hollister Politz, contralto; Grace Josephine Brown, contralto; Dr. R. M. Emerson, tenor, Harrington G. Whipp, baritone, Harold Bayley, violinist, and Charles Raff, cellist, and Miss Lenora Fisher, organist and director.

First Baptist Church.

Under the direction of J. William Belcher, a splendid special Christmas musical program has been prepared for both the services of tomorrow at the First Baptist church, Twelfth and Taylor streets.

The musical numbers for the morning service are "Calm on the Listening Ear of Night" (Marston), "Choir Angels" (Hansson), "O, Holy Night" (Adam),
"The Birthday of a King" (Neldinger).
In the evening a cantata, "Son of the Highest" (Berge), will be sung by 20 solo voices. Solos will be sung by Miss Grace Dawson, Mrs. Virginia Hutchinson, Stuart MacGuire, Odrad Gurin and Clifford Woodland, with Miss A.
Broughton at the organ.

Besides the musical services tomorrow a Christmas cantata under the direction of S. J. Fasching, will be given in the church Wednesday evening. A duet for soprano and contralto will be sung by Miss Maude Belcher, who will take the part of Frost Queen, and Miss Henrietta Holm, who will take the part of Snowflake.

First Christian Church.

Special Christmas music will be heard in the First Christian church, Park and Columbia streets, only at the evening services. The singing feature is quite elaborate, and has been arranged by Miss Lina Linehan, soprano and director of the choir.

The choir will render the new sacred Christmas cantata, "The Prince of Peace," by John Spencer Camp, with organ and orchestra accompaniment. Mrs.
Cornelia Barker-Carey will play the first violin; Miss Olive Muckley, second violin, and Mr. Oliver the cello, with Miss Gladys Morgan at the organ. The chiasm quartet will sing "Angels of Light," by Havens, and "Where is He That is Born King of the Jews," by Coombs. Miss Linehan will sing, "The Birthday of a King," by Neldinger.

Michael, Tenor solo, "Oh, Judea," by Dr. J. W. McMichael, with violin obligato by Mrs. Woodie. Sermon, by the pastor, W. O. Shank. Evening—Organ prelude, Soprano baritone, duet, "O Holy Night," Adam, by Miss Harris and Aubrey K. Bishop. Soprano solo, "Christmas," Shelley, by Mrs. J. W. McMichael.
Offertory, "Hosany," Nevin, cornet solo with orchestra accompaniment. Sermon by the pastor.

Rodney Avenue Christian.

A special program of musical numbers is to be the main feature of the morning and evening services at the Rodney Avenue Christian church tomorrow. Those who have a part in the song service have been rehearsing for some time.

The program for the morning service follows: Opening song, "Joy to the World," Invocation by the pastor, Rev.
Bernard W. Bass. Chorus, "Crown Him King of Kings." Prayer. Solo, "Angels From the Realms of Glory," M. Withers. Scripture. Communion
hymn. Anthem, "Hark! What Means Those Holy Voices?" Benediction.

In the evening the two special numbers by the choir will be repeated. A duet will also be rendered by Miss Mabel Hedberg.

Besides the Christmas music services the members of the Bible school of the church are planning on a regular Christmas entertainment to be given in the church Wednesday night. A Christmas tree will be a feature and those who attend are expected to bring gifts which are to be distributed among the poor of the city.

Universalist Church.

An elaborate program consisting of a number of musical selections, both instrumental and vocal, featuring the King's department of the Sunday school of the Universalist church, Broadway and East Twenty-fourth street, will be given at noon tomorrow in the church. The members of the Sunday school have the affair in charge.
The school orchestra, with Miss Ida Trotter at the piano, Miss Marjorie Trotter, first violin, and A. M. Hatton, double bass, will lead the singing of the Christmas songs and special carols.
The members of the kindergarten, under the direction of Miss Katherine McVey, will be heard in a beautiful Christmas song, and will partake in the special exercises following.

Recitations will be given by the primary pupils of Miss Beach and Miss Sylvia Phillips and vocal numbers are to be rendered by the girls' classes taught by Miss M. Trotter and Mrs.
J. D. Corby. The class of young men taught by C. Porter have charge of the arrangement and a number of the members are to act as ushers.

The program follows: Baritone solo,
"The Birthday of the King," Anthem,
"Sweet Spirit, Hear My Prayer," Violin solo, "The Dawn of Hope," Anthem, "There Are Shepherds," Quartet,
"Arise, Shine."

Frances Warden, a five-year-old girl, will sing a solo, "Just a Little Baby," and Miss Dorothy Gunder and Miss Alma Warren will sing a duet, "A Christmas."
