

IRRIGATION PLANS TO BE DISCUSSED BY LEADING MEN

Full Program Announced for Second Oregon Irrigation Congress to Be Held in Portland Jan. 9, 10 and 11.

Irrigation as it applies to the development of the state of Oregon will be discussed thoroughly at the Second Oregon Irrigation Congress to be held in this city January 9, 10 and 11. The program has just been announced and it contains the names of a number of high officials, authorities and experts on irrigation and kindred subjects. In addition to this subjects pertaining to the settlement of lands, prominent among which will be immigration, will form topics for papers and discussion. Representatives from all parts of the state will attend and arrangements have been made for headquarters at the Imperial Hotel. Notices of the meeting have been sent out from the offices of the Promotion Department of the Portland Commercial club so that the delegates will have a general idea of the importance of the meeting. The congress held here last year, attracted an attendance of several hundred, each interested in his particular district, and the sessions proved of remarkable practical value.

Following will be the program: Thursday, January 9. 10 a. m. Registration of delegates. 11 a. m. Meeting of Executive, Legislative and Program committees. 2 p. m. Address of Welcome, E. B.

EXPLORER KILLS SELF HE DIDN'T REACH POLE

Christiana, Norway, Jan. 6.—Dependent because he was left at the base of supplies while Captain Roald Amundsen made his successful dash to the South pole, Captain Hjalmar Johansen, the noted Arctic explorer, has committed suicide. Friends say he had brooded over the fact that he was not with Amundsen when he achieved his goal ever since his return from the Antarctic. Captain Johansen was Nansen's sole companion during his notable 14 months' journey over the ice of the Greenland coast in 1895 and was a member of several arctic expeditions, including those headed by William S. Bruce and the Prince of Monaco. He achieved valuable results in polar research work and was known as an author.

I. E. Young Goes to Pendleton. (Special to The Journal.) Milton, Or., Jan. 6.—Principal I. E. Young left this week for Pendleton, Or., where he began his duties as superintendent of schools for Umatilla. His successor as city superintendent is Professor Pat of Enterprise, who commenced his duties this week in the Milton schools. Before the departure of Mr. Young a reception and farewell was tendered him and his wife by S. A. Miller, clerk of the school district, at which all the faculty of both the high and public schools were present.

Word has been received here of the burial at Little Rock, Ark., of Mrs. Jonnie Allen George, writer, newspaper woman, educator and prominent club member, who died in Seattle Christmas eve, after a long illness. Mrs. George was very well known in Portland, where she lived for three years prior to removing to Seattle in 1903. Mrs. George was a writer of much talent. She was at her best, probably, in her stories for children, and her tales in negro dialect. She was a southern woman, having been born in Alabama 45 years ago, and she lived in the north for most of her life. Her aged father, the Rev. M. E. Butt, is still living in Alabama. In 1883 Mrs. George was married to Dr. Albert Phillip George. Six years later he died at Conway, Ark., and Mrs. George then devoted herself to writing. As a newspaper woman she had much experience on St. Louis and Little Rock papers. Mrs. George taught in the public schools during the three years she lived in Portland. She was very active in club affairs here. In 1907 she was president of the Oregon chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy. In Seattle Mrs. George was in business until poor health compelled her retirement several months ago. She leaves two daughters, both well known here, Mrs. William J. Milliken of Memphis, Tenn., formerly Miss Mian-selle George, and Miss Kathleen George of Seattle. Both were prominent at the University of Washington. At the Chicago exposition, Mrs. George attended the Congress of Women as the representative of Southern women. So able was she as a speaker that she was put on the same program with Miss Helen Gould, Mrs. Potter Palmer and a Russian princess. Club Pays $300 for Sculp. McMinville, Or., Jan. 6.—The Yamhill County Wolf club, the purpose of which is the elimination of predatory animals, especially wolves and coyotes, recently held a meeting at Sheridan. During the past year $200 was paid out on sculps of animals from the treasury of the organization. The officers of the club are: President, E. M. Churchman; J. E. Cronin, vice president; W. H. Dinsmore, secretary and treasurer. The directors are: Dan Kirby, J. N. Yocum, James Savage, N. H. Perkins, William Williams, John Butler. The bounty paid the members of the club is $25 on each sculp of a full grown wolf or coyote, and $10 on each whelp killed before September 1 of each year. An adjustable flag holder that may be fastened to any sized car to display a number of flags has been patented by a Montana man for motorists.
