

BEN HENDERSON WILL BE GIVEN ANOTHER CHANCE

GREAT HURLER WILL BE REINSTATED AND McCREDIE HAS HOPES

Price Asked for Big Fellow Seems Too Much for Clubs in Other Leagues.

Big Ben Henderson will be reinstated immediately and will—

Be sold or traded to some other club. The tenderer is a contract and orders to report at the Beavers' 1914 training camp.

You've got your choice of two gusses and one is as good as the other.

The way manager McCredie talked this morning it was next to impossible to dispose of Ben for the price he is worth and he seemed inclined to let bygones be bygones and give the erstwhile great beaver another chance to brace up and do something.

Still a Wonderful Hurler.
"I'll have to restate that Ben in order to peddle him," said Mac, "but nobody wants to take a chance on his irregular habits at the price I want. He is still a wonderful pitcher and I am not going to let him go for nothing. New Orleans and Mobile want Ben, but they can hardly see the price."

"If Ben would see the disciples of a certain professional gentleman by the name of Keeley, I think there would be a transformation in his attitude toward baseball. It is too bad that such a brilliant pitcher will not take care of himself. If he had done this five years ago he would now be as great a baseball star as Joe Wood and Mathewson and Ed Walsh.

"I don't think that he has ever had a right hander out this way who was as good as Henderson. He has speed, curves and he knows how to pitch. If I had had him last year we would have been farther up the ladder. I was just as sorry as Henderson that he lost his first five games, but they were all 'hard luck' games and there was no necessity for him to fly to pieces.

Will Be His Third Chance.

"If Henderson shows up at the training camp and gets off to a good start, I am predicting that he will be one of the most valuable men in the league. This will have been the third chance for Ben and I hope that it is the charm, provided, of course, that we do not dispose of him."

From manager McCredie's line of talk, one is led to believe that he fully intends to use Henderson as a regular next year. Despite Ben's lapses from training rules, he is still popular among the fans. He is his own worst enemy. There are few more congenial fellows on the ball field than Henderson. He is a work and one of the rare pitchers who comes back harder than ever when he happens to be met with a volley of hits. The news that McCredie intends to give Ben another chance will be pleasing news to his many friends, who are putting in a prayer for his redemption.

McCredie stated that it was not his purpose to keep Ben from earning a good living in his profession, and he held no hard feelings against Henderson.

Brown Signs Rossbach.

Owner Bob Brown of the Vancouver Beavers yesterday announced that he had signed Pitcher Rossbach, who was tried out by the Vernon team during the 1913 season. Rossbach is playing at present in the California Winter league and was recommended to Brown by his former manager, Kitty Brashear.

Cohn Gets Bush Pitcher.

Owner Joe Cohn of the Spokane team announced that he had signed Pitcher Finley of the Snohomish, Wash., team.

Killing May Go to Giants.

Pitcher Ben Harris of the Denver club of the Western league is of the opinion that Johnny Killing, the former Chicago catcher and Boston pitcher, will play with McCredie's Giants next season.

Lebam Beats Chehalis.

Chehalis, Wash., Jan. 7.—Lebam's high school basketball team came over here and took the local players from the high school into camp by a score of 24 to 22. The game was a lively one from start to finish.

CHANCE AND FARRELL MEETING IN CHICAGO

Chicago, Jan. 7.—Arriving here simultaneously today, Frank Chance, former manager of the Chicago Cubs, and Frank Farrell, owner of the New York Highlanders, who is after Chance to steer the Highlanders through the 1913 season, met and held a conference.

When Chance's arrival was learned the Cubs fans turned out and gave him a big welcome.

Before leaving California to confer with Farrell, Chance declared he would hold out for a salary of $18,000 a year and 5 per cent of the club's profits.

MULTNOMAH SELECTS TWO MEN TO GO SOUTH

Tad Derbyshire, the crack 155 pound boxer of the Multnomah club, and Walter Knowlton, the lightweight champion of the Pacific Northwest association, will represent the winged "M" club in the boxing tourney of the Olympic club of San Francisco, which will be held January 28. Knowlton is not sure, however, that he will be able to get away from his work at that time.

Melburg, the club middleweight champion, is unable to make the trip, but will

Portland Girl to Enter Vandeville

Vivian Marshall.

For the first time in the aquatic history of Portland, one of its fairest daughters will begin a stage career as a mermaid in a 16-foot glass tank. She is Miss Vivian Marshall, the petite daughter of R. A. Marshall, a well known cement contractor, and she sacrifices a musical career to follow the splash of Annette Kellerman. Her mother will travel with her during her engagement on the Pantages circuit, which will carry her over the Pacific coast for a period of nine weeks, which may lengthen into an eastern trip of 16 weeks.

Miss Marshall, who is a pupil of Arthur Cavill, will open soon in Spokane and it is possible that she may double up with Miss Nellie Schmidt of San Francisco, known as the greatest rough water swimmer in the world and the first woman to swim from the ferry to Oakland Mole in San Francisco bay. Miss Marshall's specialty will be diving. Her tank will be 16 feet long, five feet wide and five feet deep, and it will take much rehearsal on her part, she thinks, to confine herself to that small space, after doing all of her work in the big Multnomah club tank and the natatorium at Gearhart, where she was an instructor last year.

The "fire dive" of Miss Marshall is regarded as one of the most spectacular aquatic events yet devised and ought to make a great hit on the vaudeville stage. Manager Johnson of the Portland house of Pantages saw this act recently at the Multnomah club, and immediately advised Mr. Pantages to tender Miss Marshall a contract.

Professor Cavill regards Miss Marshall as the best woman diver that he has ever seen and predicts a successful career for her. Inasmuch as Cavill has been all over the world, his opinion is worth something.

Miss Marshall has been swimming since she was 7 years old. Possessed of a splendid voice, she studied two years abroad preparing for a singing career. She studied voice for a year under Arthur Phillips in Paris and studied dramatic art under Jacques Lamarson in the Paris Conservatoire. When she returned to America she was offered several positions in comic opera, but declined them on account of parental objection.

Miss Marshall will be in Portland during February, and her friends plan to give her a reception.

NEW SHOOTERS SHOW UP WELL IN MATCHES

Portland Rolls Up Fair Scores Against Spokane and Providence Teams.

The Portland Revolver club made the scores of 1092 and 1100 in the thirteenth and fourteenth matches of the United States Indoor Revolver league against the Spokane and Providence teams, respectively, last night.

The feature of last night's shooting was the form displayed by Evans and Newell, the new members of the club. In the match against the inland Empire club Evans made the score of 217. Against Providence, Newell made a 218 score. W. Hubbard was in his usual good form and made the scores of 236 and 228.

In match 12 against the Manhattan club of New York City, the local club made the score of 1049, which is its lowest score in three years. All shooters were off color that night.

ALL LOS ANGELES IS ANXIOUS TO MANAGE BEHEMOTH WILLARD

Tom Jones and Ad Wolgast Are Candidates for Soft Money Job.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Los Angeles, Jan. 7.—Nearly everyone connected with the pugilistic game in Los Angeles wants to manage big Jess Willard, the Behemoth who is demanding a match with Luther McCarty and who probably will be one of the new champion's next opponents.

Tom Jones and Ad Wolgast are candidates for the managerial job and it is understood that Jones has wired Willard an offer. Wolgast believes he is qualified to make the best manager in the game, and is confident that he would be able to take care of the big fighter who is almost twice his weight.

Willard probably will be matched here with Paizer or "Gunboat" Smith, the winner to get McCarty.

Wolgast on Way to Oregon.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Los Angeles, Jan. 7.—Former Lightweight Champion Ad Wolgast is en route today for Oregon to examine some Coos county property in which he is interested. After a week in Oregon he will go to his home near Cadillac, Mich., unless he returns to San Francisco to meet Harlem Tommy Murphy before Promoter Coffroth's club, February 22. It is expected that Wolgast will talk with Coffroth in San Francisco tomorrow regarding the match.

Powell to Meet Watson.

San Francisco, Jan. 7.—In the initial four round boxing show of this year, Lew Powell, one time king of the four round lightweights, is matched to meet "Red" Watson of Los Angeles in the main event next Friday night. The fans here today are asking themselves, "Can Powell come back?"

Watson is known as a tearing-in type of fighter and possesses a wallop in either hand. Powell, during his four round days, was a maverick for speed. He aspired for highest things, but went to defeat at the hands of former Lightweight Champion Ad Wolgast.

For the balance of the card Promoter Hayes announces: Lee Johnson vs. Lemmy Kegg; Frankie Edwards and Willie Robinson; Willie Meehan vs. Young Joe Wolcott; a negro; Ed Kennedy vs. Jack Vuocinich; Freddie Couture vs. Young Abe Attell, and several other bouts.

YACHTING EDITOR TO SAIL LIPTON'S BOAT

(United Press Leased Wire.)
San Francisco, Jan. 7.—Thomas L. Miller, head of the local syndicate that is building the California yacht to race Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock in 1915, is in receipt today of a letter from Captain Thomas F. Day of New York that he has promised Sir Thomas to sail the Shamrock to participate in the great international regatta.

Day is editor of the yachting magazine, Rudder, and has distinguished himself as a brave sailor. Last year he drove the 35 foot motorboat Detroit across the Atlantic. In 1911 he sailed the 25 foot yawl Seabird from New York to England.

THREE CRACK SWIMMERS WILL RACE IN CLUB TANK

The 100 yard race between Johnny McMurray, indoor champion swimmer of the Pacific Northwest association; Frank Grock and Norman Ross will be the feature of the monthly social swim

SET FORTH IDEAS IN GAME LAW QUESTION

Will Make Recommendations to Legislature on Lowland Fowl, Upland Birds and Deer

(Special to The Journal.)

Albany, Or., Jan. 7.—The Albany Gun club members have some very pronounced ideas of how the game of this state should be preserved. At a meeting the other day of the members, several resolutions were passed.

Among the resolutions there was a noticeable tendency toward making the game laws of the state such that the labors of the game warden would be made lighter and the enforcement of the laws easier by making them consistent and removing temptation from the hunter.

The club went on record as being in favor of making the China pheasant limit five birds, but not recognizing sex and changing the open season so that it will open October 1 and close November 1, instead of 15 days later as at present, and opposing any legislation to prohibit the use of dogs in hunting game birds. The reason for opposing the prohibition of dogs was the argument that without the use of dogs, many wounded birds are lost, although they are crippled sufficiently to die later and do no one any good, while by using dogs practically none are lost.

Would Limit Duck Bag.
In regard to ducks, the club expressed a desire to have the open season extend from October 1 to March 1, making the limit for seven consecutive days 25 birds instead of 25, as at present, and prohibiting their sale in the market at any time of the year.

Three deer, regardless of sex, excepting only spotted fawns, was set as the ideal limit, the members giving their reason by saying that when a deer is so far away that the spots can not be seen, it is too far away for the average hunter to hit, and that the size and color is not a sufficient guide to go by at the distance a deer is generally seen. It was agreed that the tags that are required for attachment to deer meat and hides for shipment should be issued with the hunting license.

Heavy increases in the bounty for cougar, gray and timber wolves will be recommended by the representatives from Linn county, according to the resolutions adopted along that line. A reward of $50 each was named as suitable for cougar and wolves, while for lynx, or as they are commonly called, "bob cats," a reward of $10 was recommended. The present bounty for cougar is $10 and for cats $2. It is claimed that cougars, wolves and lynx destroy more deer than all the hunters combined and that if the bounty is made high enough the mountaineers will maintain trained hounds and soon exterminate the "varmints."

The club passed a resolution favoring legislation that will make the owner of dogs that chase deer responsible, prohibiting the shooting of firearms from any county road and prohibiting the throwing or depositing of brush, slashings or other timber waste in any stream used by trout or at any place where freshets will carry it into such streams.

The program will start about 8 o'clock, and it is expected that the largest crowd of the season will be present. There will be the usual exhibition dives and other aquatic stunts, including an exhibition by Miss Vivian Marshall, who is going into vaudeville.

BUZUKOS PROMISES A HARD CONTEST WITH WELTER E. O'CONNELL

There Will Be No Repetition of Berg-Beall Affair; Reed Bets $150 on Self.

(Special to The Journal.)

There will be no interference of any kind in the O'Connell-Buzukos wrestling match, which will be held as advertised in the Oregon hall, next Thursday night. In view of the fact that wrestling has been "in bad" since John Berg quit cold to Fred Beall last spring, there was some talk that the match would not be permitted. However, the authorities were assured that there would be no repetition of that affair, and that both wrestlers were out to do their best.

The O'Connell-Buzukos match will be the forerunner of several interesting matches during the month. O'Connell has signed up for a handicap match with Henry Webber, the light heavy-weight, which may be either public or private, but as yet Webber has not come through with his forfeit to bind the match, which calls for a $50 side bet in the articles.

O'Connell is ready to cover Webber's money whenever it is placed.

O'Connell signed up last night for a private match with Frank Reed, a one armed grappler, which calls for a $150 side bet and as much more as Reed cares to raise. Forfeits were posted to bind the articles and all the money will be up by January 15, when the referee will be selected. The match will be held at 8 o'clock in the afternoon of January 23, in a hall to be selected by the wrestlers, and in the presence of a few invited guests. O'Connell desired to make a ringside weight of 145 pounds, but after much argument finally agreed to let Reed weigh 154 pounds ringside, in view of his one hand handicap.

Reed is said to be a wonderfully clever wrestler and must have full confidence in himself in view of the fact that he and his manager, Eddie Connors, are willing to wager cold cash with no thought of game receipts.

Manager Frank Herman telegraphed yesterday that Zbyzsko, the giant Pole, who is after Frank Gotch's title, would be in Portland on his western tour Saturday, January 25, and that his Portland opponent would be Ben Jackson. Zbyzsko and Herman are now in Indianapolis.
