

BOAT EVENTS TO BE HELD SUNDAY IF STREAM IS CLEAR

Oregon Wolf, Vamoose and Swastika Tuned Up for Postponed Race.

Sunday's Motor Boat Regatta. Events for all championship Pacific coast and 20 foot championship of Oregon.

The greatest motor boat race ever held in Portland is what the officials of the Portland Motor Boat club are saying about the race for all races between the Pacific coast champion, Oregon Wolf, Vamoose and Swastika, which will be run Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Milton Smith, owner of the Vamoose, is very much pleased with his boat and is confident that it will win the race.

It is likely that only three boats will start in the 20 foot class race. The Me Troon, one of the entrants, has been taken to pieces by its owners.

Champion Tuned Up. The Oregon Wolf has been tuned up to perfection and with its new planes Johnny Wolf is confident that it will make better time than ever before.

It is likely that only three boats will start in the 20 foot class race. The Me Troon, one of the entrants, has been taken to pieces by its owners.

Chassis Has Been Improved. Vogler's Boy and Chabalis II are the other boats entered in the race and this event should be a close one.

The officials of the race, as selected by Commodore Boost, are: Judges, Mayor A. C. Ruslight, George L. Baker, H. N. Scott, J. H. Stevenson and H. E. Eubank Jr.; Dr. F. Dammach, starter; J. C. Beck, J. F. Jaeger, P. W. Lee, George Kinnear, A. Molin and Dr. C. E. Brown, timers, and J. L. Scarth, clerk of the course.

BASKET BALL NOTES

In the opening contest of the Independent Basketball league, the All Star quintet defeated the McLoughlin club team in a close game by the score of 14 to 12.

The All Stars were leading, 10 to 8, at the close of the first half of the game. In the second half, the brilliant playing of Ray Toomey gave the Stars a score, McLoughlin scored 5 points and the Stars 14 points, making the final score 14 to 12.

The referees called a large number of fouls for rough playing and holding. Over 30 people attended the game. The lineup: McLoughlin... Forward... All Stars... Forward... Farrigan... Center... Avery... Guard... Murphy... Toomey...

The Lents-Weona game was postponed by the managers of the two teams. This game had been played at a later date, which will not conflict with the scheduled games of the league.

The next games will be played Friday night, the Lents team playing the All Stars on the Lents field and the McLoughlin team playing the C. B. E. C. team on the Christian Brothers' floor.

It is necessary that the managers of the Independent league teams file the names of their players with the secretary of the league at once.

The Springwater team will play the Colton team at Dodge, Or., Saturday night. Springwater defeated the Weona team that Saturday night by the score of 25 to 5.

The Lincoln High school quintet will play the Y. M. C. A. Brownies tonight on the Y. M. C. A. floor.

Drain High School Quintette Gets Good Start

Drain, Or., Jan. 2.—The high school basketball team of this place has made a good showing so far this season. All three games played have been won by the local team. They won twice from the Oakland high school by scores of 19-10 and 40-14, and the Central Point team, which recently toured the valley, was defeated, 48-12.

Pirates Best Team for Twelve Years

The Pittsburg baseball club has made a better record during the past dozen years than has any other National league club. Awarded one point for first place, two for second place, etc., the team finishing eighth to be charged with eight points. According to the dope, the Pirates have scored only 23 points during 12 years, while Boston, generally the tallender, has piled up 81 points. The figures follow:

Table with columns for Club, 1901, 1902, 1903, 1904, 1905, 1906, 1907, 1908, 1909, 1910, 1911, 1912, and Standing. Rows include Pittsburgh, Chicago, New York, Philadelphia, Cincinnati, Brooklyn, and Boston.

Highest possible percentage, 85; lowest possible percentage, 35. From 1901 to 1912, the Pirates have won 12 National league championships—New York, 1905; Chicago, 1907, 1908; Pittsburg, 1909.

WALLA WALLA RAISES $4000 FOR BASEBALL

(Special to The Journal.) Walla Walla, Jan. 2.—With $4000 raised and another thousand in easy reach, prospects for the national game in Walla Walla are bright. The weekly luncheon of the Commercial club was turned over to the fans, and the committee that have been securing the financial assistance, made reports showing that four fifths of the needed amount is in hand.

Last year the team lost money and has some debts still unpaid. It is planned this year to pay those debts, repair the park and improve the grounds, and have enough in the treasury to keep the club on easy street all season. Next year, it is believed the club will break even.

Prospects are that the Western Tri-State league will be composed of Walla Walla, Pendleton, La Grande and Boise, as it was last year. North Yakima and Baker may enter, but there is nothing at all definite about this.

Prospects for a pennant winning team are good here, and Kolla Brown, playing manager of last season, will again pilot the Bears.

ELLSWORTH TO RETIRE FROM CLUB PRESIDENCY

Names of Nominating Committee Are Given Out by Board of Trustees.

The board of directors of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club last night announced the names of the members of the nominating committee, which was appointed last week. Richard C. Hart is chairman of the committee. The other members are Walter A. Holt, James F. Ewing, H. H. Raach and C. A. Campbell.

The committee will nominate ten club members, five to be elected to serve two years on the board of trustees with the following hold overs: Colin V. Dymont, T. Morris Dunne, Ralph W. Wilbur, George W. Simons, Charles S. Barton and Fred D. Neffe.

The trustees whose terms terminate February 13, are President A. M. Ellisworth; vice-president, Alma D. Katz; treasurer, Bert Allen; Frank H. Ransom and Edgar E. Frank.

Under the new by-laws of the club, the names of the ten confederating nominees must be posted 15 days before the election.

President Ellisworth, on account of the pressure of business, will not be a candidate for reelection to the board of trustees.

AL PALZER PLANNING AN EUROPEAN JAUNT

Iowan Says McCarty Didn't Have Punch Enough to Knock Him Out.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Chicago, Jan. 2.—Undaunted by his defeat at the hands of Luther McCarty in Los Angeles New Year's afternoon, Al Palzer, who is on his way to New York, told friends before leaving here that he planned to invade Europe soon. His first match, according to present plans, will be with Bombardier Wells in Paris. No date has been set for the bout. Palzer also may take on a match or two in New York before sailing, if suitable terms are offered.

Luther McCarty has no punch and he could not knock me out," said Palzer. "I know I was dazed, my eye bugged up and my hip out when Referee Rytton stopped the fight, but I would have recovered in a few seconds." Palzer arrived here from the coast on the same train with Frank Chance.

TOLEDO MAY USE BIG BEY HENDERSON NEXT YEAR TO BOLSTER UP

McCredie Owes Much to the American Association Club for Players for 1913 Team.

With the information yesterday that Bey Henderson would be reinstated comes the rumor today that the big heavier would probably sport a Toledo uniform next year. Manager McCredie stated this morning that Henderson would probably be with the Mudhens next year if Toledo wanted him. It seems that Toledo is more in need of pitchers than New Orleans, where McCredie originally tried to place him.

When the 1912 season passed into history there also passed out of the American association three of the four pitchers that comprised the best twirling staff in the big minor league. They were Cy Falkenberg and Bill and Lefty James. The only one to remain on Toledo's roster was Harry Krauss, the California boy who was with Connie Mack's Athletics before going to Toledo, where he finished on top of all the pitchers.

Bill James is coming to Portland next year, and Falkenberg and Lefty James will be given a trial with Cleveland.

Inasmuch as he has made inroads on Toledo's team, McCredie naturally figured that Henderson something was in return. One of the men quite likely will be Henderson. By getting Henderson away from the Pacific coast, where he has browsed so long, McCredie figures he would be able to do himself some good in baseball.

Toledo is not adverse to taking Henderson. In fact, the Mudhens will take anybody Mack recommends and he is very likely to recommend Bey.

Charley Chech Is Signed.

Charles Chech is the first Los Angeles player to sign a 1913 contract. Chech played for Dillon's tribe last season, winning 11 straight games.

Cy Neighbors Likes Contract.

Cy Neighbors has signed his 1913 contract with the Tacoma Tigers. He, who caught for Tacoma in 1911, may come back next season, which was suggested by Schroeder, because he refused to sign for 1912.

Angels Get Rubie Ellis.

Los Angeles, Jan. 2.—Rubie Ellis, former Angel outfielder, and for three years a member of the St. Louis Cardinals, will rejoin the Los Angeles club when the 1913 season's bell rings. Berry has purchased the outfielder from the Cardinals, the price said to be one of the largest ever paid for a player on the Pacific coast. Ellis' home is at Downey, near Los Angeles.

Roger Full-Fledged Cub.

St. Louis, Jan. 2.—With a signed contract to play with the Chicago Cubs in his pocket, Roger Bresnahan forms to New York Giant catcher and last year's manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, is on his way today to his home in Toledo. Naturally, he picks Chicago to win the National league pennant this year.

NEW SUITS DESIGNED TO AID OREGON QUINT

Boylan and Brooks, Midgets, Cut Down Size of Varsity Basketball Five.

University of Oregon, Eugene, Jan. 2.—The University of Oregon basketball team will appear this year in different uniforms from those worn for the past several years. The new ones have instead of a diagonal stripe a wide white band above the waist. The top of the jersey is a very dark olive green. The pants are white with narrow green stripes.

The advantage of the new suits is that they are very striking, and are readily recognized by the men during a game.

Six men have been furnished with the opposite extreme, color or two inches in weight, but little over 120 and Boylen close to 130. Both are slender and remarkably agile.

Brooks is a little wonder at basket throwing, twisting them into the net from almost any angle, and handles the ball quickly. On the other hand, Boylen, though small, plays a clever guard. He is not on his feet, passes accurately and covers the floor well. If Boylen makes the team Simms will play forward in Jamison's vacant place. Simms, however, has always played guard, like the place, and plays a better game here in spite of the fact that his basket work is accurate.

There will be a pretty and keen race between these two midgets, though it is quite possible that both will be used during the season. Brooks is from Portland and Boylen from Pendleton.

AUSTRALIAN PLAYER IS STANFORD STUDENT

(United Press Leased Wire.) Stanford University, Cal., Jan. 2.—D. P. Carroll of Sydney, who came to the United States with the Waratah Australian Rugby fifteen last fall, registered today as a student of Stanford. Trasker, another Australian Rugby player, who is expected to enter Stanford, finally decided to return to his own country. Carroll will play on Stanford's fifteen this fall, taking the place in the backfield vacated by Bert Relling, one of last year's stars, who has graduated from the university.

Races at Juarez Postponed.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Juarez, Mex., Jan. 2.—Racing will not be resumed here until tomorrow when the card arranged for today probably will be run off. This action was taken by the Jockey club on account of the extremely cold weather and because the course is still covered with deep snow. Yesterday's program was cancelled.

Colorado May Legalize Boxing.

Denver, Colo., Jan. 2.—Duplicate of the Denver boxing law, now in effect in New York, is soon to be introduced in the Colorado legislature. It is expected the bill will be passed. The measure provides for 10 round, no-decision bouts before legalized clubs.

SOUTHERN OREGON SAYS AFTER A REVISION OF STATE'S GAME LAWS

Josephine County Sportsmen Favor $25 Cougar Bounty Taken From License Fund.

(Special to The Journal.) Grants Pass, Or., Jan. 2.—The sportsmen of Grants Pass met in the Commercial clubrooms last night and formed the Josephine County Game and Fish Protective association, and adopted a number of resolutions embodying certain changes which it is desired to make in the game and fish laws of the state of Oregon.

A bounty of at least $25 on cougars and $5 on wildcats was advocated, as these predatory animals are responsible for the killing of a great many deer every season in this county. It was also recommended that the bounty be paid from the license fund, and not from the general fund, thus removing the great objection on the part of the public to the increased bounty.

The proposal to make uniform open seasons throughout the state was opposed as conditions of climate, etc., make different open seasons necessary. Uniform laws for the counties of Douglas, Curry, Cook, Jackson and Josephine, comprising Southern Oregon, were recommended. The association also favors the making of the non-resident license fee the same as that of the resident for both hunting and fishing.

No change was desired in the law regarding the hunting of deer, but minor changes in the seasons on some other game were advised. These changes were: Squirrel, open season, August 1 to January 1; grouse, September 1 to November 1; quail, October 1 to December 1; ducks, September 1 to February 15; doves, August 15 to December 15.

The opening of Rogue river to commercial fishing was not opposed, though the use of seines on the stream is condemned, and will be opposed by the association, as well as all nets with a mesh less than 6 inches spread. No changes were advocated in the regulations governing the taking of game fish from the Rogue, though the establishing of the status of the steelhead as a trout is asked. This fish has usually been considered here as a salmon, thus leaving it prey to the commercial fisherman in the open rivers.

A second meeting of the association is to be held Thursday evening, when these recommendations will be placed in shape for presentation to the coming session of the legislature.

WORD SAYS WRESTLING MATCH CAN'T BE HELD

Sheriff Regards "Inside Info" as Sound That Match Was Frameup.

The much buffeted Buzukos-O'Connell wrestling match is off. Sheriff Tom Ward said yesterday that there would be nothing doing between the two grapplers Thursday night.

All was serene yesterday morning when the district attorney's office and Chief Stover said that the match could go on, but in the afternoon Sheriff Word executed a flank movement which put the bout all to the bad.

Charges of "frameup" were made to the authorities by persons whose identity is not divulged, but who claimed to be on the "inside." They were to the effect that Buzukos was to take the first fall and O'Connell the next two, and the money bet was to be divided. Greek countrymen of Buzukos were to be the victims, according to the "inside info" peddled to the authorities.

Eddie O'Connell, one of the principals, this morning said: "I entered into this match in good faith. Buzukos has been challenging me for a couple of years, and I resolved to quiet him for good. I never cared to wrestle in a public match. At first I wanted to meet him in private for a side bet. He wanted to show the public what he could do. I would not wrestle him in public now. I don't care to have my name bandied about. This is the work of some ex-wrestlers and sports whom I put out of business in Portland. If any of the wrestlers think they can beat me I shall be only too pleased to meet them in private for a side bet or for the fun to the crowd. I will wrestle Buzukos in private for a side bet or for the defeatation of any one who wants to come and see me beat him. It is hard to be made a "goat" by a lot of irresponsible and disgruntled ex-wrestlers."

Peter Buzukos stated that the charges of frameup were absolutely without foundation, and that he was out to win or lose on merits. Buzukos stated that not a dollar had been bet by his countrymen, and none of them had been approached to make a bet.

The promoter was the man who was hastily arrested in a financial way, and he stated that he was sorry that Sheriff Word did not come to bat before, so much money had been spent in the preliminary arrangements.

SALEM WANTS TO SEE FINISH OF ANNUAL 50 MILE RELAY RUNNERS

Chemawa Indians May Give Trophy So That Start Shall Be in Portland.

(Special to The Journal.) Chemawa, Or., Jan. 2.—Interest in the annual 50 mile relay race from Portland to Salem between teams representing the Chemawa Indian school and the Y. M. C. A. of Portland is by no means lacking on the part of the Indian runners. Already the boys who will try for the team representing the Indians are preparing to go on the road for practice. The interest taken by the Indian school may be given an opportunity to see the finish of the race. The citizens of Salem will also be interested in having the race finish at the capitol in order to see the two final runners. Mr. Smith will probably ask that the Indian school furnish the cup which in former years was given by the Y. M. C. A. Heretofore all of the races have finished in Portland.

The outlook for a good team to represent the Chemawa Indians is very promising. Several of the new students have gained a reputation as long distance runners, and will undoubtedly give the Portland boys the best race they have ever had.

There are also several of the members of the relay teams of former years in school this year. Joe Demmett, the little Indian runner who finished the last relay, is in school again, and so is Klutus Jim, who finished his relay ahead of Barndollar, the Y. M. C. A. runner of Portland. Those in school who have been on the team in former years are Aurelius Talbot, Ed Gengra, Robert Alpheus and William Dale.

New York Wants Willard. (United Press Leased Wire.) Chicago, Jan. 2.—If Charlie Cutler, manager of Jess Willard, the big heavyweight, heeds the message received here today from Billy Gibson, New York fight promoter, Willard will not fight during January unless it is to meet Luther McCarty.

Willard is the only man who earned and received a decisive decision over McCarty, and Gibson declares he will get the latter's consent to meet Willard again in a 10 round battle in New York the latter part of this month.

What's a Few Miles to Him?

(United Press Leased Wire.) Los Angeles, Jan. 2.—It's a terrible mistake. I wasn't running 40 miles an hour. Please change the records and make it 70." This was Barney Oldfield's final request when fined $15 for speeding. Jim Jefferies was with him.

EX-CHAMPION SAYS HE HAS $50,000 TO SPEND FOR RANCH PROPERTY IN OREGON.

(United Press Leased Wire.) San Francisco, Jan. 2.—With the announced intention of buying about 250,000 worth of Oregon ranch property, Ad Wolgast, ex-lightweight champion, and his manager, T. Jones, are scheduled to leave San Francisco for the north tonight. Jones said the first stop would be at Medford, and that they also would visit McMinville, Albany and Lebanon, Or. He said their stay in Oregon might be anywhere from a few days to two weeks, after which Jones will go to Chicago, and Wolgast to Cadillac, Mich.

When asked regarding the report from Los Angeles last week that he had retired as a 20 round fighter, Wolgast said: "Retired? Not if I can get any of three men—Ritchie, Mandoc Rivers—or as long as any promoter wants to pay me $10,000 for a match with any lightweight in the country."

"Nothing in it," said Jones. "Ad is liable to say anything when he is talking."

While in Chicago, it is probable that Jones may become manager of Jess Willard, the Texas heavyweight, who claims a decision over Luther McCarty. Jones admitted that he and Wolgast together lost about $10,000 when McCarty beat Al Falser New Year's day.
