

OLYMPIA SENATE IN CONTEST OVER HAY APPOINTEES

Governor-Elect Lister's Supporters Try to Prevent Confirmation of Recess Appointments of Last 2 Years.

Olympia, Wash., Jan. 14.—The senate spent the morning session squabbling over confirming recess appointments made by Governor Hay during the past two years.

Governor-Elect Lister's supporters in the senate endeavored to have these 39 appointments held up until after his inauguration. A special fight was made upon the confirmation of the appointment of Fish Commissioner Riseland of Bellingham.

NEW SHERIFF WINS IN MORAL CRUSADE

Sheriff Word's office won its first case in the moral crusade this morning in the municipal court.

Evidence submitted this morning showed the sheriff's men were investigating Sunday evening, when they came upon the Clay street house, in which the arrest was made.

Sheriff Word had hoped to be able to file state charges against Aubray on the grounds that he was living off the earnings of an immoral woman.

M'MINNVILLE COLLEGE TO RAISE $200,000 FUND

McMinville, Or., Jan. 14.—The trustees of McMinville college have secured the services of Dr. Myron Haynes, a prominent Baptist clergyman, who at present is raising an endowment for Franklin college.

August Lovgren, of Cherry Grove, was selected as one of the board of trustees to succeed Timothy Brownhill, who has gone south because of his health.

Use of Asphalt in Antiquity. That asphalt was known to the ancients is a well attested fact, its use as a binder for masonry in Babylon being in point, but of its use other than

Four Generations of Walla Walla Family

With one other, these four, each representing a different generation, comprise the complete circle of the Lutch family.

Just to show old-time Walla Walla friends that she and immediate members of her family did have a relative left in the world, Mrs. Ida M. Lutch, a pioneer resident of the eastern Washington city, recently persuaded her father, Eric Anderson, to come from his home in Ocala, Neb., to her home to spend the rest of his days.

building material was almost entirely clay, either as such or in the form of bricks. It seems rather doubtful that these latter were used in building operations, and it does not seem improbable that it was utilized to improve the streets.

PEOPLE WILL REJECT LAGGARDS—WILSON

(United Press Service Wire.) Trenton, N. J., Jan. 14.—At a luncheon headed here and New Jersey presidential electors here yesterday, President-elect Woodrow Wilson said:

"The people have turned their faces in a definite direction of progress, and any party or anyone who does not go along will be rejected, and ought to be."

COLUMBIA RIVER TO GET $1,740,000 AWARD

(United Press Service Wire.) Washington, Jan. 14.—Included among the Pacific coast appropriations in the rivers and harbors bill agreed upon by the house committee on rivers and harbors are the following:

For improvement of the Columbia river between the foot of the Dalles rapids and Celilo falls, $600,000; for the Columbia river above Celilo falls to the mouth of the Snake river, $400,000; for Coos Bay, $50,000; improvements at the mouth of the Columbia river in Oregon, $1,900,000; the Columbia river at the cascades, $100,000; Los Angeles harbor, $121,000; Oakland harbor, $275,000; and San Diego harbor, $25,000.

JOSEPH HEADS FIGHT FOR LABOR MEASURE

(Salem Bureau of the Journal.) Salem, Or., Jan. 14.—It is reported today that Senator Joseph will lead a movement to have senate bill 113 passed over the governor's veto and in case this should fail, the bill will be re-introduced.

for the protection of the working man and provides that municipalities, counties and school districts must require bonds from contractors and make the municipalities, county and school

Health and Beauty Advice

By Mrs. Mae Martyn. It is an ideal dressing for the hair and very refreshing to an itching scalp.

Health and Beauty Advice

By Mrs. Mae Martyn. You can't expect to appear fascinating with pimples all over your face. During the summer, anyone's blood is likely to become thick and sluggish.

Malden: You will no longer have thin eyebrows and stubby eyelashes if you use a small original package of proxitin and with forefinger and thumb apply some at lash-roots, then with finger-end rub a little on the brows.

Gussie: I, too, was flat-chested until I used the famous vascular treatment, but now have a well developed figure.

E. B. S.: Although gray hair is sometimes caused by worry, it is generally due to a diseased scalp as indicated by such symptoms as dandruff, itching of the scalp and brittle, falling hair.

Harriet: For your tired, dull, inflamed eyes you need a good eye-tonic. Dissolve an ounce of crystals in a pint of water. Two or three drops of this in each eye daily will strengthen your eyes and make them bright and sparkling.
