

Legislators Are Named to Inspect State Institutions :: Oregon Senate Votes to Amend Direct Primary Law

MALARKEY PICKS MEN TO GO INTO INSTITUTIONS

Penitentiary Pair Is Hollis and Ragsdale, on Whom Most Eyes Will Center; Latter Is New Man.

(Staff Correspondence.) Salem, Or., Jan. 25.—President Malarkey in the senate this morning announced the membership of various committees of investigation of state institutions authorized by the Lewelling resolution, two from the senate and three to be named from the house.

On the committee to go out to the penitentiary and investigate the management of Governor West, the senators are Hollis of Washington and Ragsdale of Sherman. This is the committee upon which most attention will be centered, because of reports that have been spread as to what a committee might "dig up," and the demand of the governor for a thorough investigation.

(Staff Correspondence.) Salem, Or., Jan. 25.—Speaker McArthur today announced the house members of the joint committee that will investigate the Oregon State Penitentiary and six other state institutions. The investigation was provided in a joint resolution introduced in the house by Representative Lewelling of Lincoln.

Inmate asylum—Porter, Homan and Schubert of the house; Vonder, Hallen and Farrell of the senate. School for Blind—Belland, Carlin, Thoms of the house; Barrett, Miller, senate.

School for Deaf Mutes—Anderson (Wasco), Barron, Chavis, of the house; Kellaher and I. S. Smith, senate. Industrial School—McDonald, Spencer, Brunk, of the house; Lester and Smith, senate.

LABOR OUTLINES NEW COMPENSATION ACT CARRYING HIGH SCALE

(Continued From Page One.) tions to eliminate accidents. Otherwise, the waste expense would be so great they could not do business.

LABOR'S THREE MEN ON OLD COMMISSION STICK FAST TO THEIR BILL

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.) Salem, Or., Jan. 25.—The three labor representatives who served on the commission which drafted the workmen's compensation bill now before the legislature, refused to recede from their support of the bill in spite of the fact that the State Federation of Labor voted over two to one against the measure, and voted nearly two to one to censure Representative Lawrence for introducing the bill.

Bills Introduced in Oregon House

(Staff Correspondence.) Salem, Or., Jan. 25.—These bills were introduced in the house yesterday: H. B. 621, by Barton—To provide for conveying or releasing of custody or dower of a husband or wife of a person judicially declared to be of unsound mind. H. B. 262, by Bonebrake (request of Attorney General Crawford)—To regulate use of sales of poisons.

TAFT'S BROTHER ATTACKS RECALL

Henry W. Taft Before the New York Bar Association, Makes Criticism.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Utica, N. Y., Jan. 25.—Blister denunciation of legislation which would provide for recall of judges or judicial decisions was voiced at the meeting of the New York State Bar Association her by Henry W. Taft, brother of the president. His opposition to the recall is practically the same as that offered on several occasions by President Taft.

TWO ALASKA COAL CLAIMS GRANTED

Washington, Jan. 25.—Patents on two coal claims, aggregating 200 acres near Juneau, Alaska, and the first to be given out since the Glavin-Ballinger controversy, were granted yesterday by Secretary of the Interior Fisher.

REALTY MEN DISCUSS PLAN TO INCORPORATE

After a discussion lasting over two hours the members of the Portland realty board in their regular weekly meeting held yesterday noon in the Commercial club, decided to put into the hands of a committee the matter of incorporating what form the board would incorporate.

ROADS WITHIN CITIES MAY ALL BE STREETS

(Staff Correspondence.) Salem, Or., Jan. 25.—The senate judiciary committee last night decided to recommend passage of S. B. 52, by Wood, declaring all county roads within the incorporated cities of the state to be streets.

WEIGHTS AND MEASURES DEPUTY AT $2400 ASKED

(Staff Correspondence.) Salem, Or., Jan. 25.—A state sealer of weights and measures is provided for in a bill introduced by Representative Loggren of Multnomah county. The bill empowers the state treasurer to appoint a deputy for this purpose, at a salary of $2400 a year. He in turn may appoint county deputies, though this is to be optional with the counties. Five thousand dollars a year is appropriated by the bill.

BILLS PASSED SO FAR BY THE STATE SENATE

(Staff Correspondence.) Salem, Or., Jan. 25.—Bills have been passed by the state senate as follows: S. B. No. 91, by Bean—To permit corporations and municipal corporations to petition for drainage.

HOUSE MUST WORK ALL SATURDAYS EXCEPT ON FEB. 1, SAYS M'ARTHUR

(Staff Correspondence.) Salem, Or., Jan. 25.—Breaking a custom of long standing in the legislature, the senate and house did not adjourn yesterday afternoon for the usual week end rest. Speaker McArthur told the house there was no reason why it should not work six days a week and recommended that there be no adjournment until Saturday.

TILLINGHAST RISES TO DEFEND HIS SCHOOL

(Staff Correspondence.) Salem, Or., Jan. 25.—Re-sentencing institutions that have been cast in certain newspaper reports, E. S. Tillinghast, superintendent of the state school for the deaf, sent a communication to the senate yesterday afternoon demanding an investigation of the school.

GOVERNOR WANTS THIS VETO KILLED

(Staff Correspondence.) Salem, Or., Jan. 25.—On the recommendation of Governor West himself, conveyed to the house by Representative Hagood of Multnomah, the house yesterday afternoon passed another bill over the governor's veto.

LAND BOARD WANTS ONLY FIRST LIENS FOR SCHOOLS

(Staff Correspondence.) Salem, Or., Jan. 25.—The state land board went on record today opposing the bill introduced in the house by Representative Smith of Klamath, providing

FOR POOR WIDOWS PASSES UNANIMOUSLY

(Staff Correspondence.) Salem, Or., Jan. 25.—After more than an hour of discussion, the house passed by unanimous vote yesterday afternoon H. B. 169, which provides for financial assistance from the various counties for women with one or more children who are unable to work, and whose husbands are dead or inmates of some Oregon institution.

GOVERNOR SIGNS FIRST TWO BILLS, WHICH KILL TWO OTHER MEASURES

(Staff Correspondence.) Salem, Or., Jan. 25.—The first two acts passed by the twenty-seventh legislative assembly were signed by Governor West Thursday afternoon. They repeal two obsolete sections of the code, one repealing section 2832, which provided for the publication of an official state newspaper, and the other repealing section 3323, which pertained to county clerks.

NEW MEMBERS ELECTED TO STATE LEGISLATURE

(Special to The Journal.) C. J. Forstrom of Union, representative from Union county; Republican. (Salem, Or., Jan. 25.—C. J. Forstrom, representative from Union county, was born in Sweden in the city of Ostersund on September 25, 1878, graduated from several of the best schools there and came to this country in 1896 with $28, with a lot of ambition and speaking four languages, but not English.

BILLS PASSED SO FAR BY THE STATE SENATE

(Staff Correspondence.) Salem, Or., Jan. 25.—Bills have been passed by the state senate as follows: S. B. No. 91, by Bean—To permit corporations and municipal corporations to petition for drainage.

Bills Introduced in Oregon Senate

(Staff Correspondence.) Salem, Or., Jan. 25.—To prevent false and misleading statements in advertising and providing a penalty therefore, is the title of a bill introduced in the senate this morning by Smith of Coos. It declares any person or firm guilty of a misdemeanor that publishes or circulates, in any manner, statements that are untrue or deceptive whereby anyone is injuriously affected. This is S. B. No. 130.

TILLINGHAST RISES TO DEFEND HIS SCHOOL

(Staff Correspondence.) Salem, Or., Jan. 25.—Re-sentencing institutions that have been cast in certain newspaper reports, E. S. Tillinghast, superintendent of the state school for the deaf, sent a communication to the senate yesterday afternoon demanding an investigation of the school.

LAND BOARD WANTS ONLY FIRST LIENS FOR SCHOOLS

(Staff Correspondence.) Salem, Or., Jan. 25.—The state land board went on record today opposing the bill introduced in the house by Representative Smith of Klamath, providing

FOR POOR WIDOWS PASSES UNANIMOUSLY

(Staff Correspondence.) Salem, Or., Jan. 25.—After more than an hour of discussion, the house passed by unanimous vote yesterday afternoon H. B. 169, which provides for financial assistance from the various counties for women with one or more children who are unable to work, and whose husbands are dead or inmates of some Oregon institution.

GOVERNOR SIGNS FIRST TWO BILLS, WHICH KILL TWO OTHER MEASURES

(Staff Correspondence.) Salem, Or., Jan. 25.—The first two acts passed by the twenty-seventh legislative assembly were signed by Governor West Thursday afternoon. They repeal two obsolete sections of the code, one repealing section 2832, which provided for the publication of an official state newspaper, and the other repealing section 3323, which pertained to county clerks.

NEW MEMBERS ELECTED TO STATE LEGISLATURE

(Special to The Journal.) C. J. Forstrom of Union, representative from Union county; Republican. (Salem, Or., Jan. 25.—C. J. Forstrom, representative from Union county, was born in Sweden in the city of Ostersund on September 25, 1878, graduated from several of the best schools there and came to this country in 1896 with $28, with a lot of ambition and speaking four languages, but not English.

BILLS PASSED SO FAR BY THE STATE SENATE

(Staff Correspondence.) Salem, Or., Jan. 25.—Bills have been passed by the state senate as follows: S. B. No. 91, by Bean—To permit corporations and municipal corporations to petition for drainage.

Bills Introduced in Oregon Senate

(Staff Correspondence.) Salem, Or., Jan. 25.—To prevent false and misleading statements in advertising and providing a penalty therefore, is the title of a bill introduced in the senate this morning by Smith of Coos. It declares any person or firm guilty of a misdemeanor that publishes or circulates, in any manner, statements that are untrue or deceptive whereby anyone is injuriously affected. This is S. B. No. 130.

STATE TAKES HAND IN PHONE DISPUTE PUTS DESERT LAND UNDER NEW BOARD

(Staff Correspondence.) Salem, Or., Jan. 25.—The senate yesterday adopted a resolution by Senator Kellaher, directing the attorney general to appear for the state next Monday in the foreclosure proceedings against the Northwestern Long Distance Telephone company, in the circuit court for Multnomah county.

ATTORNEY GENERAL WILL APPEAR IN NORTHWESTERN L. D. T. FORECLOSURE.

(Staff Correspondence.) Salem, Or., Jan. 25.—A bill introduced by Representative Homan of Malheur county, would take out of the hands of Governor West the power he now exercises in the management of the state's desert lands and irrigation projects for their reclamation.

GOVERNOR SIGNS FIRST TWO BILLS, WHICH KILL TWO OTHER MEASURES

(Staff Correspondence.) Salem, Or., Jan. 25.—The first two acts passed by the twenty-seventh legislative assembly were signed by Governor West Thursday afternoon. They repeal two obsolete sections of the code, one repealing section 2832, which provided for the publication of an official state newspaper, and the other repealing section 3323, which pertained to county clerks.

NEW MEMBERS ELECTED TO STATE LEGISLATURE

(Special to The Journal.) C. J. Forstrom of Union, representative from Union county; Republican. (Salem, Or., Jan. 25.—C. J. Forstrom, representative from Union county, was born in Sweden in the city of Ostersund on September 25, 1878, graduated from several of the best schools there and came to this country in 1896 with $28, with a lot of ambition and speaking four languages, but not English.

BILLS PASSED SO FAR BY THE STATE SENATE

(Staff Correspondence.) Salem, Or., Jan. 25.—Bills have been passed by the state senate as follows: S. B. No. 91, by Bean—To permit corporations and municipal corporations to petition for drainage.

LABOR OUTLINES NEW COMPENSATION ACT CARRYING HIGH SCALE

(Continued From Page One.) tions to eliminate accidents. Otherwise, the waste expense would be so great they could not do business.

HOUSE MUST WORK ALL SATURDAYS EXCEPT ON FEB. 1, SAYS M'ARTHUR

(Staff Correspondence.) Salem, Or., Jan. 25.—Breaking a custom of long standing in the legislature, the senate and house did not adjourn yesterday afternoon for the usual week end rest. Speaker McArthur told the house there was no reason why it should not work six days a week and recommended that there be no adjournment until Saturday.

TILLINGHAST RISES TO DEFEND HIS SCHOOL

(Staff Correspondence.) Salem, Or., Jan. 25.—Re-sentencing institutions that have been cast in certain newspaper reports, E. S. Tillinghast, superintendent of the state school for the deaf, sent a communication to the senate yesterday afternoon demanding an investigation of the school.

GOVERNOR WANTS THIS VETO KILLED

(Staff Correspondence.) Salem, Or., Jan. 25.—On the recommendation of Governor West himself, conveyed to the house by Representative Hagood of Multnomah, the house yesterday afternoon passed another bill over the governor's veto.

LAND BOARD WANTS ONLY FIRST LIENS FOR SCHOOLS

(Staff Correspondence.) Salem, Or., Jan. 25.—The state land board went on record today opposing the bill introduced in the house by Representative Smith of Klamath, providing

FOR POOR WIDOWS PASSES UNANIMOUSLY

(Staff Correspondence.) Salem, Or., Jan. 25.—After more than an hour of discussion, the house passed by unanimous vote yesterday afternoon H. B. 169, which provides for financial assistance from the various counties for women with one or more children who are unable to work, and whose husbands are dead or inmates of some Oregon institution.

GOVERNOR SIGNS FIRST TWO BILLS, WHICH KILL TWO OTHER MEASURES

(Staff Correspondence.) Salem, Or., Jan. 25.—The first two acts passed by the twenty-seventh legislative assembly were signed by Governor West Thursday afternoon. They repeal two obsolete sections of the code, one repealing section 2832, which provided for the publication of an official state newspaper, and the other repealing section 3323, which pertained to county clerks.

NEW MEMBERS ELECTED TO STATE LEGISLATURE

(Special to The Journal.) C. J. Forstrom of Union, representative from Union county; Republican. (Salem, Or., Jan. 25.—C. J. Forstrom, representative from Union county, was born in Sweden in the city of Ostersund on September 25, 1878, graduated from several of the best schools there and came to this country in 1896 with $28, with a lot of ambition and speaking four languages, but not English.

BILLS PASSED SO FAR BY THE STATE SENATE

(Staff Correspondence.) Salem, Or., Jan. 25.—Bills have been passed by the state senate as follows: S. B. No. 91, by Bean—To permit corporations and municipal corporations to petition for drainage.

NOMINATIONS BY JUST PAYING FEE MAY BE POSSIBLE

Senate Passes It 16 to 12 After Joseph Has Decided It Amid Smiles, as Attack on Oregon System.

(Staff Correspondence.) Salem, Or., Jan. 25.—"Shame, shame," cried Senator Joseph in the senate chamber yesterday, lifting his voice to high pitch as a rejoinder to remarks by Senator Gus C. Moser, who had just made a speech flaying Joseph as a "hot air" artist.

The bill under discussion was by Barrett of Umatilla, amending the direct primary law so as to permit candidates for office to put themselves in the race by paying a fee and filing papers for nomination, without circulating and filing a petition.

Joseph implored his Multnomah colleagues especially to stand with him in defeating the bill. Kellaher was the one who wanted to do so, and a bill was passed by a vote of 16 to 12 with two absent.

ATTORNEY GENERAL WILL APPEAR IN NORTHWESTERN L. D. T. FORECLOSURE.

(Staff Correspondence.) Salem, Or., Jan. 25.—A bill introduced by Representative Homan of Malheur county, would take out of the hands of Governor West the power he now exercises in the management of the state's desert lands and irrigation projects for their reclamation.

GOVERNOR SIGNS FIRST TWO BILLS, WHICH KILL TWO OTHER MEASURES

(Staff Correspondence.) Salem, Or., Jan. 25.—The first two acts passed by the twenty-seventh legislative assembly were signed by Governor West Thursday afternoon. They repeal two obsolete sections of the code, one repealing section 2832, which provided for the publication of an official state newspaper, and the other repealing section 3323, which pertained to county clerks.

NEW MEMBERS ELECTED TO STATE LEGISLATURE

(Special to The Journal.) C. J. Forstrom of Union, representative from Union county; Republican. (Salem, Or., Jan. 25.—C. J. Forstrom, representative from Union county, was born in Sweden in the city of Ostersund on September 25, 1878, graduated from several of the best schools there and came to this country in 1896 with $28, with a lot of ambition and speaking four languages, but not English.

BILLS PASSED SO FAR BY THE STATE SENATE

(Staff Correspondence.) Salem, Or., Jan. 25.—Bills have been passed by the state senate as follows: S. B. No. 91, by Bean—To permit corporations and municipal corporations to petition for drainage.

LABOR OUTLINES NEW COMPENSATION ACT CARRYING HIGH SCALE

(Continued From Page One.) tions to eliminate accidents. Otherwise, the waste expense would be so great they could not do business.

The Sunday Journal For Tomorrow, Complete in Five News Sections, 12 Page Magazine and Comic, Offers the News of the Day, Reviews of the Week and Many Features Invitingly Illustrated. In The Magazine THE CHEAPEST HUSBAND A GIRL CAN AFFORD—Have living expenses reached a stage where only the $5000-a-year man can hope for wedded bliss? THE CITY PARK ZOO IN MID-WINTER—The way keeper Herrmann humors his savage pets during the dark days reveals many interesting facts about the habits of the animals. BUSINESS WHILE THEY EAT—The meeting more than the eating is the principal purpose of Portland's 16 noon day luncheon clubs. TEACHING GIRLS TO EARN A LIVING WAGE—How Manhattan Trades School for Girls is battling with the problem of feminine upkeep. PLENTY OF WOMEN DRESS BETTER THAN A QUEEN—Fifty times as much as Queen Mary's $4000 a year for clothes seems about the American limit. THE NET—By Rex Beach; serial story. HEALTH AND EFFICIENCY—By Lora C. Little. HOME SANITATION PROBLEMS—By Minerva B. T. Angell. FOR THE INDUSTRIOUS NEEDLEWOMAN—By Adelaide Bird. HATS ON FOR THE LITTLE DAUGHTER—Smart styles in children's bonnets. TOMORROW The Bank of Personal Service The convenience, comfort, safety and welfare of our customers being of first consideration, we do not hesitate to solicit your account, knowing the above service is bound to result in pleasant and profitable banking relations. We Pay 4 Per Cent on Savings Accounts Merchants National Bank Under Government Supervision Founded in 1896 Washington and Fourth Streets

3% MONEY DEPOSITED in our Savings Department on or before February 1 will begin to draw interest on that date. Open an account and get the February interest. SECURITY SAVINGS AND TRUST COMPANY Fifth and Morrison Streets Capital and Surplus $1,400,000 Established 1890