ON JOB WHEN IT

French Consul Only Waiting for Some One to Make a Complaint; Had Enough of Sampling Pork.

As official taster of food products aboard French yessels in port, C. Henri Labbe, French consul here, has had a great deal of experience lately, but his one ambition now is to have a complaint made against the wine so that he can taste that. When he asked sailors of the French ship Thiers yesterday If the wine aboard was all right, they replied that it was fine, which proved an incentive for the consul to find some excuse to taste it.

Complaint was made by the sailors Santa Rosalia Will Load Grain Here of the Thiers that their grub was not what it should be, the rice, sauerkraut and sea biscuits being the cause of the plaint. They appeared before Consul Labbe with their statements and the master of the vessel admitted that the articles were not what they should be, but on his promise to get some fresh provisions trouble among the crew was

On the last occasion when a crew of a French vessel complained of their food Mr. Labbe had to taste a sample of the salt pork which caused the trouble, or rather which formed the excuse of the French bark Marechal de Villars to start some trouble several weeks

Remembering his experience in tasting the salt pork, says Mr. Labbe, he took pains not to try any of the rations brought as samples from the Thiers. However, a complaint about the wine would bring a quick response from him to try a sample, declared the

The Thiers has just shifted into a berth at the Irving dock, where she will load a cargo of wheat for the United Kingdom; under charter to M. H. Houser. She arrived here December 20 with general cargo from Newcastle-on-Tyne, consigned to Balfour, Guthrie & Co., and has been discharging at the Mersey dock since that time.

ROYAL MAIL STEAMERS

Boats to Call at Northwest Ports, It Is Stated. (United Press Leased Wire.) Seattle, Wash., Jan. 30.—Royal Mail

packet steamers will call at northwest ports each month, beginning with June. according to an announcement made today by Frank Waterhouse, of the company bearing his name. This in addition to the new service by the Hamburg-American line will be the most important addition to the ocean traffic in years.

The Royal Mail is the largest steamship corporation in the world and the present move is taken as a preparation for trade via the Panama canal, Pending the completing of the canal, steamopened by the steamer Monmouthshire, which will sail from London on May 7 range of the canal, great and state of the steamer Monmouthshire, which will sail from London on May 7 range of the canal, great state of the canal, gre for Seattle, Victoria, Vancouver and at 1:30 p. m.—Steamer Breakwater Portland. The Monmouthshire is 8000 Bay. Arrived at 3:30 p. m.—Steam gross tons burden and 400 feet long. Hamburg-American traffic will be inaugurated by the liner Sithonia, which leaves Hamburg next month. A. T. Prichard, local manager for Waterhouse & Co., said this morning that while he was aware that the Royal Mail Steamship company was to inaugurate a line here, he had received no details from the head office of Waterhouse & Co., Seattle.

CHANNEL WORK DONE

has been completed by the Port of Portland dredge Willamette, and she was scheduled to leave up the river this morning. She may stop at St. Helens to do two or three days' work there for the McCormick Lumber company, as there steamers are bothered by some shoals near the docks. Should she not remain there for that work she will proceed to the Port of Portland drydock at St. Johns while the pontoons and pipeline will be sent into Oregon slough to awalt the work there. Willamette will begin digging out the ship channel in the slough as soon as confirmation of the contract with the United States engineers is received from Washington.

EMBARGO REMAINS

Exception in San Francisco Fair Material Made,

(United Press Leased Wire.) Scattle, Wash., Jan. 30,—J. E. Chil-berg, president of the Chamber of Commerce here, today after a trip to San northwest would be lifted, except in the case of lumber for use in the Panama-Pacific exposition. He said that in the conference in the south between himself, C. B. Yandel, secretary of the chamber, and P M. McCarthy of San Francisco, representing the building trades, it was agreed that lumber will be accepted from any mill for use in the fair grounds. But so far as other projects are concerned, the embargo is still on lumber from mills which are not unionized.

The situation will be discussed tonight at a meeting of the Lumbermens association at Tacoma.

NO LIGHTS ON RAFTS

Complaints Are Filed Against Four Lumber Companies.

A number of sawmills, on the Willamette slough are in trouble with the government on account of having no lights on log rafts. This morning complaints were filed by customs inspectors with the collector of customs against four companies. They were the Columbia County Lumber company, 8. Ban company, Chapman Timber company, which is said to have about 21 rafts in the slough, and Broughton & Wiggins. The complaints were filed on evidence secured by the customs spectors.

MAPLE LEAF STEAMER COMING

for Europe. Coming to load grain for Europe, the British steamer Santa Rosalia of the Maple Leaf line, was scheduled to sail today from British Columbia for this port. The steamer has been discharging steel products at Vancouver, having come to this coast from New York via the Straits of Magellan. This is her first voyage to the North Pacific, After loading her Portland cargo the Santa Rosalia will sail for Swansea, via San Francisco.

ALONG THE WATERFRONT

Laden with cement, the steamer Northland, Captain Bodge, arrived at Couch street dock last night at 9:30 o'clock from San Francisco,

After discharging her cargo at Couch street dock, where she arrived at 12:30 o'clock this morning from San Francisco, the steamer Rochelle, Captain Nelson, will proceed to Rainier to load lumber for the Golden Gate.

It is expected that the German bark Osterbek will complete her grain cargo for the United Kingdom at the Oceanic dock this afternoon.

The Japanese steamer Shinsel Maru shifted from Montgomery dock No. 2 at 11 o'clock this morning to the Oceanic dock. She will probably sail tomorrow for Japan ports with wheat and flour. The steamer Olympic has cleared for San Pedro laden with 700,000 feet of

In tow of the steamer Ocklahama the British bark Killoran left down for the sea this morning laden with 109,785 bushels of wheat, valued at $98,807. The steamer Henderson left down for Astoria this morning with the schooner Alyena in tow from St. Johns. The later is laden with 940,000 feet of lumber for San Pedro.
