

INSURANCE BILL, HIT FROM WITHIN, WITHOUT, EXPIRES

Had Its Authors Gone On, Say They, Work of Legislature Would Have Been Torn Up by the Expected Rumpus.

(Staff Correspondence.)
Salem, Or., Jan. 30.—In the presence of prominent business men of Portland who applauded justly as the trust was given, Senator Hollis of Washington last night scuttled the insurance code, which he had introduced, and it sank down, bereft of life.
Stating the matter in parliamentary form, the insurance committee, which had met to listen to a discussion of the 192 page bill, heard a statement by Senator Hollis, in which he asked permission to withdraw the bill from consideration at this session of the legislature. This morning he made a similar statement on the floor of the senate and was granted permission to withdraw the bill.

General Split Threatened.
He explained that this was done because of the great division of opinion among members of the legislature on the subject, the seeming impossibility of working the bill over into acceptable form in time for proper consideration, misunderstanding and prejudice against it, and the numerous objections made to various features of the bill.
Mr. Hollis and other friends of the bill foresaw only trouble and defeat ahead of them if they went on with the bill. Already it has been a disturbing element. Unexpected opposition had appeared and the strength of the lobby against the measure had made it certain that if the bill were pressed for passage, it would cause a great deal of feeling, distract from attention that needs to be given other legislation and ultimately end in a muddle.

So Hollis decided to take the initiative himself in killing the bill. He had secured from a number of members of the commission on insurance legislation, and which he had personally launched in the senate. The insurance committee unanimously agreed with him, and adopted a motion to recommend indefinite postponement of the bill.

New Code Will Be Framed.
Chairman Hollis said he hoped that in the next two years an insurance code can be worked out that will be more acceptable to all interests concerned. He invited suggestions from those interested, to be submitted to himself, or to the insurance committee, and he expected the commission that submitted the bill or some new commission will take up the problem in earnest and have a new measure ready for the next legislature.

Among those applauding the withdrawal of the bill last night were: N. F. Fleischner, H. C. Wortman, H. J. Frank, W. E. Reese, Ralph W. Wilbur, Lionel R. Webster, H. W. Mitchell and Fred W. Graves. Most of the large delegation returned to Portland last night.

Ferguson Sticks to Bill.
Insurance Commissioner Joan W. Ferguson, who largely drafted the bill, after its withdrawal, said:
"It is a good bill and should have passed. But it was impossible to pass it at this session, and rather than have it amended to death, it was better to have it withdrawn. Most of the insurance men, each looking at it from their point of view, said it was generally a good bill, but wanted to write in some amendment that would help his particular case."
"Now we will have time to think it over for two years and get into still better shape. It was drawn in the interest of the insurance public, and I am sure this will be realized as it is carefully examined."

COMMON USER CLAUSE FOR P., E. & E. BRIDGE

(Staff Correspondence.)
Salem, Or., Jan. 30.—Because it lacked a common user clause, the bill of Senator Moser granting a franchise to the Portland, Eugene & Eastern railway to construct a bridge over the Willamette at New Era, was sent back to the senate committee on railroads when it came up for passage. Dimick of Clackamas said his people want the road, but they do not want to take any chances on "bot-tling up" the river, and upon his motion the bill was re-referred to have the common user clause added.

RAISES SOLONS' PAY FROM $3 TO $10 DAY

(Staff Correspondence.)
Salem, Or., Jan. 30.—A resolution for a constitutional amendment to make the pay of legislators $10 a day instead of $3, as at present was presented to the house yesterday afternoon by Lawrence of Multnomah. It limits any members pay to $60 for a session, limits special sessions to 20 days at $10 a day and fixes mileage of $3 for each 20 miles.

PROTECTS WAGES FROM RAPACIOUS LOAN SHARK

(Staff Correspondence.)
Salem, Or., Jan. 30.—Protection against loan sharks is the object of a bill introduced by Senator Farrell. It provides that no assignment of wages shall be valid to secure a loan of less than $200, unless it is accepted in writing by the employer, and no such assignment is to be held valid, when made by a married man, except by the written consent of his wife.

MALARKEY SEEMS TO SHAPE COURSE FOR CANDIDACY IN 1914

on the books a law that will stop such things as Malarkey, the lawyer, was able to successfully assert were unpunishable by the law.
As Jekyl and as Hyde.
In this, again, it is shown that Malarkey has fortified himself against criticism of Malarkey, the lawyer, by showing that Malarkey, the legislator, is seeking to remedy the conditions that his legal experience has shown are contrary to the public good.
All in all, it is an interesting situation. By a few false steps, Malarkey may make his candidacy before the time comes to announce it. But even his strongest foes concede that he can look a long way down the political avenue.
Several times the state has taken its United States senator from the presiding chair in the senate. Taking the latest history, say Howman was president of the state senate in 1909, and in 1910 he was the Republican nominee for governor. In 1911 Ben Selling was president, and in 1912 he was the Republican nominee for United States senator.
Now in the year 1913, Dan J. Malarkey is president of the senate. In 1914 what
