AD WOLGAST SIGNS TO MEET MURPHY FOR $9000

PROMOTER AND BOXER COME TOGETHER OVER LONG DISTANCE WIRE

Former Champion, Who Is Now in Portland, Will Leave for California Monday.

Talking over the long distance teleone from San Francisco, Ad Wolgast, ormer champton of the world, and James Coffroth, the San Francisco promoter, came to terms at 11:30 o'clock this morning, by which the San Francisan agrees to give Wolgast a guarantee of $9009 and an option of 50 per cent of the gross receipts. Wolgast will leave Monday or Tuesday for San Francisco to prepare for the fight with Har-Tommy Murphy, February 22. ien Joe Mandot developed a case of the grip at New Orleans and informed offroth that he could not leave for San Francisco to fight Murphy, tha noter immediately wired Wolgast offering him a flat guarantee of $6500. This was yesterday afternoon. Wolgast wired back that nothing less than $10, a would tempt him back into the ring Coffroth wired again raising his ante to $7500, but Wolgast told him that here was nothing doing. Seeing the date slipping out of his grasp Coffroth struck the telephone this morning and had a long conversation with the Cadil-lac wildcat. Wolgast plainly told Coffroth what he wanted and after the fencing. Coffroth said that he not quibble with Adolph, giving im $9600 and an option of 50 per cent If the gross gate receipts, win, lose of

BEAVERS GET FIRST CHANCE AT QUARTET OF MAJOR DRAFTEES

McCredie Luckiest of Minor Multnomah Club Fans Witness League Magnates on Newl Ruling in Baseball.

President W. W. McCredie of the Portland Coast league club last night received a wire from Secretary Farrell Bert Whiting and Sylvester Douglas triof the National association, stating that Portland had been lucky in drawing four title. drafted players that it had put in claims for if they are returned to the minors by the major league clubs. The tors showed excellent head work in their only player Portland lost out on was Pitcher Drohan, who will go to Columbus, of the American association, if he comes back. Sacramento gets first chance at Shortstop Berghammer, tak-en from Lincoln of the Western league by the Chicago Nationals.

Portland's four players are Pitcher Wilson of Knoxville of the Appalachian league, Infielder Bates of Newport News of the Virginia league, Catcher Betts of San Antonio of the Texas league, all drafted by Cleveland, and Infielder Williams of Newark of the Ohio State league, drafted by Washington, They May Not Come Back.

Of course these players may not be sent back to the minors after their month's trial in the major league training camps, but of those who are returned the clubs drawing them will get first chance at their services. If they are not then needed another drawing will be held by the clubs that lost out in the original passing of the hat.
