Miss Rugenstein was injured on March 4, 1912, by Ottenheimer's automobile which struck her as she was crossing Washington street, near Trinity Place. Her spine was dislocated. Judge Guy A. C. Corliss and Attorney Roscoe F. Hunt represented her.

Card of Thanks. I wish to extend my sincere thanks to Mrs. Little and husband for the friendship they showed to me in my late sickness. MR. W. M. COX. The inventor of a new motorcycle tire claims to so compress the rubber that it automatically closes a puncture when one occurs.

East Side Public Market. Mr. T. A. Riggs, the new manager of this market, was chosen because of his proven ability to lighten the work of the housewife in selecting her food supplies. He has made a striking success of drawing around him only the best market affords at prices which are generally charged for ordinary and often inferior products. His engagement by the East Side Public Market means a distinct service to the housewife, both from the standpoint of more economical as well as better buying of table supplies.

DAYTON Eyesight Specialist. will some day have gathered their toll. In the evening of their life keen, clear vision will be gone and reading will be limited, if not impossible. In such cases a pair of "proper" glasses, today, would insure to the years to come that clearness and strength of vision that is so much desired but so often lacking at the age of 55 or 60. We make no charge for examinations.

an investigation of taxation methods by an analysis of single tax. The club is entirely non-partisan and is organized for educational purposes. Its members have arranged to exchange tables in which books, magazines and other publications bearing on current topics of civic importance will be brought and redistributed. ... John F. Logan and J. M. Smith, affected settlements with the Pennsylvania Bridge company for W. L. Fades for $11,250 damages on account of a fall from the Broadway bridge as the result of which Fades lost both feet by amputation. Mr. Logan declared that Fades would receive over $9000 from the settlement, an unusually large percentage in a damage case. The case was originally brought in the circuit court and an attempt was made to transfer it to the federal court, as the bridge company is a Pennsylvania concern. On the showing that Fades held his residence in New Mexico, the federal court remanded it to the circuit court, and it was to have been started this morning before Circuit Judge McGinnis.

Saloonkeeper to Bookstore.—Emil Lind, saloonkeeper at 355 North Sixteenth street, was sent to the reformatory this morning in the municipal court for 180 days for fighting with his stepdaughter yesterday. He was also charged with being drunk. Patrolmen Coulter and Wewley were called to the home yesterday by neighbors, who reported a fight in progress. They found Lind coming out second best in the fight, as his stepdaughter, Josie MacFarland, had struck him over the head with a beer bottle. She informed the police the trouble started over Lind's efforts to sell liquor on Sunday. Lind has been in the police court before for operating a blind pig.

Collapses Twice on Street.—Twice yesterday afternoon, J. W. Blackmore, a mailman, was picked up on the streets and taken in charge by the police. Heart trouble was the cause. He said he was on his way to Redding, Cal., where he expects to spend two months. Blackmore also said he was in Seattle, Friday, having a ticket to Redding, but the conductor put him off at Portland on account of a faulty ticket. Since that time he has been wandering around on the streets. After temporary treatment yesterday, he was ordered to continue his journey. His family lives in Seattle.

Mold Greek.—B. A. Wilson, a Greek, was arrested Saturday by Patrolmen Long and Wise for soliciting a girl under 18 years of age to commit a statutory offense. He will be heard Tuesday in the municipal court. The girl is 17 years old. Her name is Yerna Pisto. She has been working in a coffee house at 23 North Fourth street, and roomed at the Burgoyne hotel. Wilson is accused of going to her room, asking her to meet another fellow countryman. He is held in the city jail. The girl is held at the Detention house.

Calumet Demure Overruled.—Attorney Ralph Moody's demurrer to the government's indictment of Attorney Max G. Cohen for subornation of perjury was overruled this morning by Judge Bean in the United States district court. Judge Bean held that the indictment that gave the defendant sufficient information regarding the charge against him so that he could properly defend himself of the charge, was all right, although he admitted that the indictment used in connection with the hearing before United States Commissioner Cannon was not right.

Fire Damages Home.—The home of Miss E. Talbot, on Council Crest, took fire early yesterday morning, causing damage of $500. A. Duchamp first noticed the blaze, turning in an alarm. J. G. Williams and A. A. Pyle, crew of an owl car, were among the first to the fire, giving what assistance in fighting it they could. The home of E. Wing, 5418 Fortieth avenue, southeast, took fire yesterday morning, causing damage of $700. Cause of both fires is unknown.

Rowe Sentence Postponed.—At the request of Deputy District Attorney McGuire, Circuit Judge Morrow deferred sentence of H. L. Rowe, who pleaded guilty two months ago to charges connected with the vice scandal, until tomorrow. Rowe did not appear in court, but Attorney Emmons, who represents him, stated this morning that he is in the city Judge Morrow stated that he would pass sentence as soon as he has heard all of the facts in the case.

Corliss and Attorney Roscoe F. Hunt represented her.

TAXPAYER IS ONE PUNISHED, HE SAYS. Frank E. Coulter gave the last of his five lectures for the Anti-Capital Fund-ment lecture in Christensen's hall last night. He pictured what he called the stupid and wearisome methods by which the state, through the courts, wreaks vengeance upon its victims, always to the detriment of the taxpayer and usually to the ruin of the criminal. ... With this he contrasted the simple, direct and inexpensive punishment by the humane method—that of restitution. He showed how, under present conditions, it is not the dependents of a murdered man who are given restitution as they logically should be, nor the murderer who is made to bear the responsibility of his act by making restitution, but that the sufferers for the criminal's act get no redress. The criminal is not reformed or made to bear the responsibility he should; and for all the nonsense, the taxpayer must suffer—the man entirely innocent and unrelated to the matter, either as victim or criminal.

Promotions for Harriman Men.—J. L. Miller, who for several years has been connected with the passenger department of the Harriman lines out of Portland, has been appointed traveling passenger agent and R. H. Atkinson has been named as city passenger agent to fill the vacancy created by the promotion of Mr. Miller.

Rosarians Meet Tonight.—The Royal Rosarians will meet at dinner in the Commercial club this evening at 6:30 o'clock to adopt a plan of campaign for the $100,000 fund desired for the 1913 Rose Festival. ... With this he contrasted the simple, direct and inexpensive punishment by the humane method—that of restitution. He showed how, under present conditions, it is not the dependents of a murdered man who are given restitution as they logically should be, nor the murderer who is made to bear the responsibility of his act by making restitution, but that the sufferers for the criminal's act get no redress. AN EXHIBITION SUCH AS WAS NEVER WITNESSED HERETOFORE

Eilers Music House Will Commemorate Its Fifteenth Birthday With the Greatest Array of Fine Pianos, Player Pianos, Special Art Style Uprights and Grands Ever Assembled Under One Roof—No Goods Will Be Sold Today and Tomorrow—A Cordial Invitation Is Extended to All.

Just fourteen years ago, in a little store on First street, the house of Eilers was founded. Founded upon ideas and ideals then altogether new; ideas that were fundamentally sound, principles that were so correct that in these fourteen years this enterprise has grown from comparatively humble beginnings to the "Nation's Largest." Today, then, the fifteenth anniversary piano exhibition at Eilers Music House commences.

NEW YORK'S BEST IS HERE. The Great Houses of Sohmer, and Haseltin and Decker of New York, have each sent numerous specimens of their greatest achievements, beautiful instruments never shown heretofore. The Nation's Greatest Musical Instrument Makers, the Kimball of Chicago, have contributed a superb collection of baby grands and the new Kimball Acme model player pianos and also several pipe organs are shown.

NO SELLING FOR TWO DAYS. No goods sold today and tomorrow. These days are given over to our friends and visitors, to meeting the staunch adherents of the earlier days who bestowed their patronage so generously and confidently upon this enterprise, and without whose loyal and hearty support this undertaking could not have succeeded.

Our Own Make, the Truly Excellent Eilers Orchestral and the Eilers Duo-tonal pianos.

STORY OF A LOAF OF BREAD. $1000 FOR STORIES ON A LOAF OF BREAD. NO. 9 OF A SERIES OF ARTICLES ON BREAD. Clip this article. Save it. You will need it when you prepare your prize story.

You have known me quite a little while now, and I have really enjoyed these twice-a-week talks with you. "Mrs. Thoroughly Convinced" one of my readers, remarked yesterday: "I notice that the Royal Bakery uses its flour in immense quantities; won't you tell me why?"

The reason is a very good one. In fact, that is one of the many little reasons which all go to make Table Queen Bread so wholesome and delicious. Those friendly, generous, nut-brown loaves of delicious Table Queen Bread that you enjoy every day really have a history that goes way, way back before their birth. The very flour of which they are made was washed and especially attended to long before it is made into bread.

In fact, the bread you eat today was thought of, planned, attended to in flour form many, many weeks ago. Today flour which will be used for making your bread some day in the future is being especially prepared the "Royal" way.

Flour must be seasoned and aged to insure its giving the best bread. It must be stored away in specially prepared storage rooms. For example, direct sunlight bakes flour. Then, too, flour must be carefully protected against foreign flavors and odors. For instance, if a basin of kerosene were placed near some sacks of flour or near a trough filled with flour, you would discover in a few hours that the flour is tainted with kerosene.

Well, I really must not get too deep into the science of bread making, or you will think Mrs. Thoroughly Convinced very dry and uninteresting. But, really, so much depends upon all these little details and the food value of bread is controlled by it to such a large extent that I felt you ought to know about it.

Janet Thoroughly Convinced, my little daughter, had a very odd experience the other day with a loaf of bread, which was to tell you about. But, if you'll excuse me now, I'll continue this next time.

VOWELS ARE GIVEN AX BY REED COLLEGE

A bold attack on most all the vowels that have resided in words through many years by surferance of custom and convention and the patronage of the god of things as they are, is made in a publication which has just been issued by Reed college and the Social Hygiene society. The work in question is a syllabus of lectures to begin April 28 on sexual hygiene and morals, under the direction of President Foster.

Do You Want Money?

Of course you do. Everybody wants money—at least enough money to drive away worry and keep the wolf out of the front yard.

How Are You Going to Get Money?

By saving it, do you hear you say? That, of course, is one way to accumulate a competence but money saved is but half the battle—money must be put to work.

You Work Only Daytimes

Yes, that is all any man should work; but money put to work, works day and night, Sunday and holiday, never asking a vacation; always working, piling up one on top of another the dollars increase.

But Money Must Be Put to Work Intelligently

Yes, that is the rub—how to put your money to work so it will work intelligently, scientifically, without wasted energy or lost motions. The average man can save, something, somehow, some way, but he has not the experience to put his money to work intelligently, hence he puts it in the savings bank.

The Banker Puts the Money to Work Intelligently

Yes, but the biggest part of the wages your money earns goes to the banker and the man he apprentices it out to work for—you only get a commission, as it were (4 per cent); you could get the full wages if you put it to work intelligently.

Well, Then, How Shall It Be Put to Work?

Veronica Water

DIZZY SPELLS, LIVER AND KIDNEY TROUBLES—I have suffered with dizzy spells, liver and kidney troubles and at times I was so badly discouraged that I did not care to live. I had tried everything that the doctor and my friends had recommended, without results. A short time ago my attention was called to Veronica Water. I at once began its use. Now I have no dizzy spells and I feel like a new man; I say, in fact, Veronica Water saved my life. To my friends who knew of my condition before I began to use Veronica Water it is unnecessary for me to recommend it, but to those who do not know me, I recommend this wonderful water, and say give it a fair trial. Respectfully, NICKLAS JENSEN, Care of Bank of Sellwood, 549 Sellwood Ave., Portland, Or.
