

SENATORS TALK IN INTERESTING WAY ON ELECTION COST

What Bourne and Ben Selling Spent Is Entertainingly Discussed; Proposed Reform, However, Is Rejected.

(Staff Correspondence.) Salem, Or., Feb. 13.—Radical reform in the corrupt practices act, proposed in the bill introduced by Senator C. C. Cook, met with defeat in the senate today, the bill being lost by 12 to 17, after Smith had vainly tried to have it referred for amendment and had sought to persuade his colleagues to go into committee of the whole.

Dimick declared the purpose of the bill is to put teeth in the corrupt practices act so as to stop large expenditures of money by millionaires and their friends in senatorial campaigns. "When Jonathan Bourne ran for senator," he said, "Bourne clubs were formed all over the state and spent large sums of money. We all knew whose money they were spending. In the last campaign, he said, he thought it would be allowed to waste it."

President Malarkey said that while he believed the bill too broad, the present corrupt practices act is largely a farce, and he would vote for the bill, "but as it is."

Joseph furnished a diversion by saying that for the president knows that his vote will not count the bill. "I don't know whether it will or not," said Malarkey. "What has that to do with the question?"

"Oh, I was just looking ahead a little," said Joseph.

TAFT ORDERS WILSON TO DRAW ON U. S. TO PROTECT AMERICANS

of the Mexican government over all its patches is increasing.

Red Cross Leader Slain. Ambassador Wilson reports that the entire population of Mexico City is terror-stricken by rumors of attacks and massacres. Even the Red Cross society is not respected by the belligerents, and in one of the skirmishes today the Red Cross president was slain. Members of the White Cross society who were detected by Diaz conveying ammunition were summarily executed. Wilson believes the fighting will continue throughout this afternoon and tonight.

An unconfirmed report today declared that 2000 revolutionists have arrived at San Louay en route to Mexico City to aid Diaz.

Members of the White Cross society today estimated they had cared for 1500 wounded and the Red Cross 2000. Assistant Secretary of State Huntington Wilson says that Ambassador Wilson has been asked to call marines to guard the American embassy. As the battleship Georgia will arrive at Vera Cruz tomorrow, it probably will not be necessary to call out the marines. If they are needed the landing of a force of marines would not be regarded as intervention, but merely as a protective force.

Taft in Close Touch. Colonel Bonney reports that hundreds of foreigners are flocking to San Luis Potosi for refuge, and that the countryside is infested with outlaws. President Taft is in constant touch with the situation, receiving hourly reports from the state department. Officials here believe that quiet will

AUTO BURGLARS ARE FLED IN BANK

Blow Open Vault, Wreck Building but Safe Falls on Its Face; Escape in Car.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Vacaville, Cal., Feb. 13.—Robbers who blew the vault of the Vacaville bank here early today and who were reported to have obtained $10,000, had their trouble for their pains. They did not get a dollar.

When the robbers blew open the vault the safe containing all the bank's funds fell face down and before they had a chance to blow their way in, the safe was almost completely wrecked. The yegmen secured entrance to the bank by opening a rear window with a crowbar. They then bored a hole in the concrete wall of the vault and set off a heavy charge of nitro-glycerine. The concussion was of such force that it toppled the safe over, the top protruding through the jagged hole in the side of the vault.

Flightless array by the sound of approaching footsteps, the yegs leaped into a car they had stolen several hours before from the home of Will Bucks, and sped northward. A posse was on their trail within 20 minutes after the men left the bank.

not be restored in the Mexican capital until President Taft orders intervention. High army officers declare, however, that the United States would not be prepared to adequately intervene within two weeks.

"President Taft," said an official here today, "will ask congress for permission to intervene in the following contingencies: "If anarchy continues to spread; if the demands of ambassadors for cessation of hostilities continue to be ignored; if another power threatens to intervene if the Madero government falls; if the rules of civilized warfare are ignored; if communication between Washington and Mexico City is severed; and if anti-foreigner riots cause death."

Intervention Is Likely. "At least three of these contingencies already have arisen and it now probably will be necessary for President Taft to submit these matters to congress as any proposed intervention would really constitute an armed invasion."

Secretary of State Knox was notified today that the Cuban battleship Cuba, with 200 troops aboard, will land a force at Vera Cruz, which will go to Mexico City to protect the Cuban legation.

General Leonard Wood, chief of staff of the American army, today denied that the government had asked any of the railroads to reserve cars for troops and also declared that no request to state militia to hold itself in readiness for mobilization had been made.

Diplomats at state department officials here do not regard the killing of two American women in Mexico City yesterday as sufficient to cause intervention. They maintain such fatalities are merely the fatness of war, holding an overt act necessary to furnish cause for invasion.

Europe Looks to United States. First signs of foreign interest in Mexican affairs is presenting itself in visits of foreign representatives to the state department. Within the last few days European diplomats are reported to have unofficially indicated that they expected America to protect all foreigners in the Mexican capital.

It was reported the state department is preparing comprehensive statement of outrages and conditions in Mexico to be incorporated in a special message by President Taft if he decides to bring the matter to the attention of congress. Ambassador Wilson reports that a diplomatic committee has been formed in Mexico City to protect foreigners. The American embassy, it was said, is overcrowded with refugees.

It was learned today that in case of American intervention in Mexico, the 7000 regular troops on the border will be replaced by twice as many militiamen "drafted" for service in Mexico. The militia pay bill authorizes the government to draft the militia into the "volunteer" army. This force comprises 9142 officers and 112,710 men.

General Miller, chief of the division of militia affairs, said today: "The militia are intensely excited and all are looking forward to the possibility of active service."

(Special to The Journal.) Marshfield, Or., Feb. 13.—Mrs. J. B. Barrow died on the steamer Breakwater while the vessel was en route from Portland to Coos Bay. She was taken suddenly ill and died while the vessel was off Tillamook.

The body was brought to this city and Dr. Bartle, the marine officer, and Coroner Wilson met the Breakwater and investigated the case. Heart disease was supposed to be the cause. Mrs. Barrow recently came from England, and with her husband and daughter, had started for Coos Bay to visit relatives and possibly locate here.

LAND DEAL QUERY MAY COME HERE

Local Business Men Interested in J. R. Keep's Enterprises.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Although definite information is lacking at this time it is suspected that the activities of Joseph R. Keep, of Portland, now under arrest at The Dalles for forging deeds to lands worth thousands, did not end there.

In addition to handling real estate, Keep was the promoter of the "Clear Lake" Irrigation company, which recently was sold to another concern in which Keep is an officer. The Clear Lake Irrigation & Lumber company was capitalized at $500,000 in 1907, under the laws of Oregon, and Keep made himself president. Prior to that time he had been a busy maker.

He had seen the possibilities of financing corporations a short time prior, when he went into Wasco county to install a boiler on an irrigation project which was being promoted by a George McCoy, it is said. The two got together and soon afterward Keep was in possession.

Big Sum Obtained. He sought funds from various business men of Portland, and in addition it is said secured $30,000 from the Title Guarantee & Trust company before it went under. This money is secured by a note upon the city of Portland, according to the story now going the rounds.

Soon after the company purchased an allotment of 100,000,000 feet of standing timber from the government, paid down $10,000 cash, secured a sawmill and started selling stock in it.

Keep then represented that the company would ultimately irrigate about 40,000 acres of land in the Wapinitia district, and in addition would install and own a string of hydro-electric plants, and engage in the lumbering business.

Just how much stock was sold could not be ascertained today, but a company report dated 1908 shows there were 125,000 shares in the treasury.

In this same report Keep values the company's ditches at $76,000; the sawmill at $43,000 and rights of way, permits, water rights, etc., at $272,025.69. The total assets were placed at $620,000. Recently a new company was organized, the old stock, then selling at 50 cents, was called in and it is understood the Clear Lake Irrigation & Lumber company will soon lose its identity, through absorption by the new concern.

Just what effect Keep's arrest at the Dalles will have on the fortunes of the concern is not known, and there are a number of local business men who have invested sums in its stock ranging from $1000 to $15,000 who are anxious to know.

Seven Foreigners Killed. (United Press Leased Wire.) Vera Cruz, Feb. 13.—Seven German and American parole guards for the International railway were killed at Yaneagas by 50 Mexican rebels, according to dispatches received here this afternoon. Other employees of the train were robbed. The rebels later burned a freight train.

Army and Navy Board Meet. (United Press Leased Wire.) Washington, Feb. 13.—Believed to have been called into conference on account of the Mexican crisis, the members of the army and navy board are in session in the offices of Admiral Dewey today. Dewey is president of the board.

Among those present are Major General Wood, Major General Witherspoon, Brigadier General Weaver and Crozier, Rear Admiral Osterhaus and Veeland and Captain Potts.

Rush Repair Work. (United Press Leased Wire.) Vallejo, Cal., Feb. 13.—Orders to rush repairs on the cruisers California and Maryland preparatory to probable service in Mexican waters, were received here today by officials of the Mare Island navy yard. The refrigerator ship Glacier is scheduled to sail Saturday for Acapulco with stores, machine guns and ammunition as well as a detachment of marines for the cruisers Colorado and South Dakota.

Major J. W. Walter, commander of the marine barracks, has 600 men ready to leave for San Diego on a "moment's notice."

Graft Scandal Grows. (United Press Leased Wire.) Charleston, W. Va., Feb. 13.—It is reported several persons not connected with the legislature, are to be indicted by the special grand jury meeting here today to investigate the graft scandal in the state's governing body. Five arrests of legislators have already resulted from the scandal.

Disregard Consul's Appeals. Frantic appeals by American Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson and the German and Spanish ambassadors have gone unheeded by both Madero and Diaz. Madero has expressed a willingness to have the seat of government within a day or two, but this is as far as he will go. Diaz refused to listen to any sort of a peace proposal unless it involves complete surrender by Madero, "I am acting," General Diaz said, "not from personal ambition to overthrow the Madero administration, but from a desire to carry out the will of the nation."

Told that he was flagrantly violating the laws of civilized warfare, General Diaz flushed with anger, said: "The people of this republic," he said, "have not been treated as a civilized nation by Madero. I serve notice now that I intend bringing out bigger guns than I have yet brought into play. All foreigners and non-combatants must either leave the city or suffer the consequences. This revolution is not going to be a 'moving picture warfare.'"

Madero now claims that he has 7000

GERMANY GETS FRIEDMANN'S CURE

Discoverer of Tuberculosis Serum Probably Will Not Come to U. S. Now.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Berlin, Feb. 13.—Answer to skeptical physicians who have asserted openly that he was afraid to put his alleged tuberculosis cure to the test, was made last night by Dr. Frederic Franz Friedmann, who announced he had turned over his discovery to the German government.

Friedmann returned here today from Frankfurt on the Main, where he turned over his remedy to Dr. Paul Ehrlich, who has charge of the government's experimental laboratory there, for investigation. Dr. Ehrlich, the discoverer of "606," a positive cure for blood poisons.

Stance Dr. Friedmann has placed his serum in the hands of the government for experiment, it is doubtful if he will sail for the United States February 18 on the Kron Prinzessin Cecilia, as he announced.

Professor Kleiner, head of the government health department here, said today that he knew nothing of Dr. Friedmann's movements. The erratic actions of Friedmann, here are hurting his claims.

loyal soldiers. Yesterday he claimed he could muster 40,000 troops. General Diaz is known to have 6000 soldiers at his command but is not believed yet to have shown his full strength. He declared today that 2500 Zapatistas are nearing the capital to join his revolt.

Dias Has the Advantage. It is certain that Diaz has the stronger arm and machine guns and that his marines are vastly superior to those of the Madero forces. The rebel machine guns have wrought fearful havoc both to life and property.

Whatever advantage there is, lies with Diaz. Strategically, he holds the better position. He controls the arsenal, the Alameda park and large portions of the residence district. Madero and his forces are hemmed in about the National palace and the downtown district.

Madero Sends Message. (United Press Leased Wire.) New York, Feb. 13.—President Madero of Mexico sent the following dispatch to the United Press here this afternoon:

"None of the foreigners in the more tranquil parts of the city are suffering from the Mexican crisis, as supposed. Possibly some projectiles have caused damage outside the hostile zone, but every effort is being made to prevent it."

PASTOR SAYS HE DID NOT MARRY

Rev. Frank Horn Is Released; Claims He Never Legally Wedded First Wife.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Redwood City, Cal., Feb. 13.—The Rev. Frank Horn, former pastor of the First Baptist church at Richmond, Cal., whose trials since Eva Mae Metz, his alleged wife, accused him of bigamy have been many and varied, walked out of the jail here today, a free man.

Horn, the woman says, married her here under the name of De Torree, and was alleged to have previously married Miss Edwail in Everett, Wash. This Horn denied. He admitted having lived with Miss Edwail, but declared no marriage ever had been performed, although he did get a license to wed her in Oakland.

The harassed pastor, who has been accused of escapades in Oregon and California towns, declares that his twin brother is the man who married Miss Metz. She says the preacher is the man.

Miss Metz, Mrs. De Torree or Mrs. Horn—as she claims to be—announced in San Francisco today that she would push a suit for divorce.

COLD DEALS DEATH TO NEW YORK POOR

Severest Weather of Winter Causes Much Suffering; Bread Lines Stretch.

(United Press Leased Wire.) New York, Feb. 13.—Gripped by the lowest temperature of this winter, 10 degrees above zero, New York's poor today are suffering terribly and are facing the prospect of worse to come through the weather bureau's prediction of still colder weather.

All last night and today charity workers were busy on the lower east side rushing fuel to the poorer quarters where many of the tenement dwellers were dismantling their homes and burning the fittings of their tenements to escape death by freezing. Every rescue mission and bed house on the east side was jammed last night, the police stations were overflowing, and on every heat grate in the streets scores of freezing wretches fought for a place over the bars to get some warmth from the gusts of warm air which rose from the basements below.

The bread lines throughout the city today were longer than at any time this winter. Several deaths are reported, and scores of the homeless have been rushed to Bellevue and other hospitals suffering from exposure.

WOULD CHANGE THIS LIFESAVING STATION

(Washington Bureau of The Journal.) Washington, Feb. 13.—C. Green, president of the Chamber of Commerce of Marshfield, has wired Senator Bourne that immediate action has been requested on changing the location of the lifesaving station, as that is necessary if construction work is to be carried on advantageously next summer.

Replying to a query by Bourne, Superintendent Kimball of the lifesaving service said the war department owns the property on which the station is located and has indicated where it is willing to permit the station to be situated.

The treasury department has ordered an engineer to inspect the proposed site, stated it be shown to be suitable the cost of removal will be $30,000, which Bourne considers a fully justifiable expenditure, because the change would make the lifesaving crew much more effective in case of wrecks.

JUDGE HANFORD'S DECISION REVERSED

Court of Appeals Reverses Famous Olsson Citizenship Case by Stipulation.

(United Press Leased Wire.) San Francisco, Feb. 13.—The United States circuit court of appeals, sitting here today, reversed the decision of Judge Cornelius Hanford revoking the citizenship papers of Leonard Olsson of Seattle, and remanded the case to the United States district court of Western Washington for a new trial.

Hanford disfranchised Olsson because he professed adherence to the principles of Socialism. This action caused a wide protest and precipitated the congressional impeachment inquiry which terminated when Hanford resigned his office as United States district judge.

The court avoided going into the merits of the case by the simple process of having attorneys on both sides stipulate to a reversal on the ground that no record was kept of the proceedings before Judge Hanford when Olsson was deprived of citizenship. The decision states that there are "other reasons" but does not specify them.

This Shampoo Helps to Dry the Hair. "It may sound paradoxical to say that shampooing helps dry the hair," writes Mae Martyn in the New York Star, "but it is a fact that women using canthrox in cleansing the hair and scalp find their tresses dry quicker than when shampoo mixtures are used. Aside from this, it leaves the scalp in a vigorous condition and gives the hair its natural glossy appearance."

"Next time you wash your head try this simple recipe: Dissolve a teaspoonful of canthrox in a teacup of hot water. Pour on the head and rub briskly until the scalp is thoroughly massaged, then rinse well. Canthrox costs but a trifle, but the only certain way to get it pure is to buy an original package."—Adv.
