

FART-LIKE AND SEEMS SUSPENDED BY UNSEEN WIRES

Ease and Grace and Charming Personality of Petite Genee Win Portland Theatregoers' Warmest Praise.

Mlle. Adeline Genee, world-famed danseuse at the Heilig last night, gave Portland theatregoers something new and something that prompted them to accord Mlle. Genee thunderous applause and to speak of her in terms of highest praise.

Mlle. Genee personifies the poetry of motion. She is the acme of ease and grace, so petite and airy that in her gyrations of the dance, it might well be imagined that she is suspended from above by invisible wires.

In part one of her program the danseuse offered what is announced as an authentic record of dancing and dancers between the years 1710 and 1848. Each dance was performed to the music of each corresponding period, and in the costume of the time.

Mlle. Genee is surrounded by a company of comparative excellences, necessary that her own artistry be sustained. In the "Pas de Deux," danced by Mlle. Genee and Mlle. Semmols, Mlle. Genee puts fervor and feeling into her action, while Mlle. Semmols proves herself an apt pupil of the younger school.

Altogether, Genee and her company offer entertainment and instruction extraordinary. Last night's program will be repeated at the special matinee this afternoon, and an entirely new program will be given tonight.

Music itself a treat. The music to which Mlle. Genee and her corps de ballet trip the light fantastic is practically continuous from the rise to the fall of the curtain. Last night there was but one intermission, and it a brief one.

Between the dances the orchestra played well known overtures and selections, such as "The Merry Wives of Windsor," a fantasia on Strauss waltz themes, and Strauss' "southern roses."

The company carries an orchestra of about 25 men, and for the performances here it is augmented by the regular Heilig orchestra, making it numerically as strong as the usual grand opera organization.

Director C. J. M. Glaser, a Bohemian, is the typical orchestra conductor of the old school. The selections were enthusiastically applauded and deservedly so, for the music in itself is a treat.

Walla Walla Postal Robbery. Walla Walla, Wash., Feb. 12.—Walla Walla postoffice was robbed last night. Less than $2 in change from the general delivery department and a package containing gold rims for eyeglasses, a dollar watch, several boxes of candy and a jack-knife from a mailing table were taken, while the safe containing several hundred dollars and valuable registered packages was left untouched.

Police say the robbery evidently was done by a young boy. Footprints in the mud in the back of the office are smaller than those of any man connected with the office, and the character of the things taken led to this theory.

Today is the Day. Mr. Forryman turns to page 10. There you will find some articles regarding your business that you should read. This feature appears in The Journal every Saturday and always contains interesting items.

ARMY IS DIVIDED INTO 4 DIVISIONS

Plan Will Enable Quicker Mobilization of United States Troops.

Washington, Feb. 15.—Reorganization of the United States army on the tactical basis, recently ordered by President Taft, to facilitate mobilization, became effective today. It divides the organization into four divisions—three infantry, with headquarters in New York, Chicago and San Francisco, and one cavalry division, with headquarters in San Antonio.

Secretary of War Stimson says the reorganization eliminates the necessity of sending army posts separate mobilization orders.

"The importance of this reform," Stimson added, "will be appreciated when it is remembered that in 1911 it required 16 days to mobilize a single division of 12,000 troops in Texas."

In 1912 the Bulgarians required only 18 days to mobilize 250,000 men, across the enemy's border, and beat the Turks into submission.

The troops affected by the order are the third battalion, Fourteenth infantry, moving from Fort Misoula, Mont., to Fort George Wright, Wash.; the second battalion, Ninth infantry, from Fort Snelling, Minn., to Fort Thomas, Ky.; the first battalion and machine gun platoon, Eighteenth infantry, from Fort Bliss, Tex., to Fort Misoula, Mont.; third battalion, Fourth infantry, from Fort Logan H. Root, Ark., to Fort Snelling, Minn.; third battalion, Ninth infantry, from Fort Sill, Okla., to Fort Logan H. Root, Ark.; second battalion, Nineteenth infantry, from Fort Sheridan, Ill., to Fort Sill, Okla.; and the third squadron, First cavalry, from Boise Barracks, Idaho, to Presidio of Monterey, Cal., 2000 in all.

POINTS OUT WAY TO HELP SCOTT'S WIDOW

London, Feb. 12.—Mrs. Paul Scott, the deficit in the cost of the Scott's South Expedition if you wish to aid the families of the victims.

This was the message given to the British nation here today by Lord Curzon, president of the Geographical Society. In an open letter to the public, Lord Curzon says there is a deficit of $150,000.

BANK CLEARINGS ARE UP $321,484.75 FOR WEEK JUST ENDING

An increase of $321,484.75 was shown in the bank clearings for the week just ending over the same week in February, 1913. The total clearings for this week aggregate $11,496,034.57, and for the same week in 1913, $11,174,549.82. This is an increase of more than 28 per cent and is considered a very good showing.

WARM WEATHER MAKES SNOW LEAVE CASCADES

Ellensburg, Wash., Feb. 15.—The temperature this morning is 46. The railroads report no trouble in the Cascades from snow slides and washouts are feared. Trains are being run slowly through the mountains.

Brother's Perfidy Causes Suicide.

Berlin, Feb. 15.—A young locksmith named Karl Schroeder is in jail for encouraging his brother Paul to commit suicide. Last April Paul told Karl he was going to kill his sweetheart on the ground of jealousy. Karl not only approved the idea, but helped Paul buy a revolver and ammunition. Paul then went off and shot the girl, and himself. Both recovered, and Paul was sentenced to 2 1/2 years' penal servitude. Later Paul so worried over the perfidy of his brother that he beat out his brains against the iron bars of his cell.

PUNISHMENT FOR KELLAHER IS PLAN OF FOES IN SENATE

Resolution of Censure Under Way, It Is Said, to Be Dragged Out Maybe Next Week; Malarkey Approves.

Salem, Or., Feb. 15.—A resolution censuring Senator Dan Kellaher, in the name of the senate for unbecoming conduct, insulting the dignity of the senate and obstructing the public business, is said to be in course of preparation, to be brought out on the floor as soon as the senate reaches a breathing place in the rush of business.

"Because of the hurry of the senate to dispose of its calendar today it is not believed that the censure resolution will be brought in before next week. It may even be decided to withhold it altogether, on the ground that it would give Kellaher too much advertising. But that it corresponds to the temper of a large number of the senators and is being seriously considered is a fact.

This resolution would meet with favor from President Malarkey, it is well known. In fact, Malarkey himself yesterday gave a strong hint in this direction when he told Kellaher that he deserves the censure of the senate for his conduct. This was just after the Multnomah man had imputed improper motives to the president in connection with Kellaher's bill repealing the gas franchise.

The resolution will stir up a swarm of hornets is certain. But the organization members are confident that they have the votes, and they are watching Kellaher for the next "overt act," as the proper time for presenting such a resolution.

CIGAR COMBINATION NOT TO START WAR

The consolidation of M. A. Gunst & Co. of San Francisco with the United Cigar Manufacturers' association is not for the purpose of fighting the United Cigar Stores company, but has to do with the eastern manufacturing and jobbing interests of the Gunst company, according to a statement this morning by Assistant Manager Luison for the Portland branch of the company.

A Disease That Develops Unsuspected

Many People Are Afflicted With Kidney Disease Before They Have Any Idea Anything Is Wrong.

No wonder doctors consider kidney disease one to be most dreaded. It most often attacks without any particular previous warning. This puts a watchful care of the kidneys right up to every individual.

Dr. Loomis, the great specialist on kidney diseases, says: "There is not one person in twenty-five at 40 years of age who has healthy kidneys." This information gives one a shock. Who can claim to be one of the lucky four in every hundred?

FILIBUSTER SOUNDS THE KNELL OF BILLS

Democrats in House Will Try to Prevent Action on Big Pension Bill.

Washington, Feb. 15.—Unless "economy Democrats," led by Representative Roddenberry, quit filibustering against what this resolution would mean for certain today that no more bills would be passed in the house at this session.

The filibusters are now preparing to prevent action on the $180,000,000 pension bill now pending in the house.

PRESIDENT VETOES IMMIGRATION BILL

Washington, Feb. 15.—President Taft vetoed the Burnett-Dillingham immigration bill, stating in a special message to the senate that his reasons for doing so were based upon protests from various foreign governments.

GIRL HEIRS FOUND BY DR. SHORT IN PORTLAND

Salt Lake City, Utah, Feb. 15.—Information has been received by Dr. Francis Burgess, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church of this city, that Ada, Laura and Lida Ehler, daughters of Mrs. Elizabeth Ehler, formerly of Salt Lake City, are now living in Portland, Or. As there is a fortune of $50,000 awaiting these young girls, who are aged 9, 12 and 19 years, respectively, Dr. Short wrote to them at Portland. The Rev. Joseph Hicks of Rawlins, Wyo., informed Dr. Short by letter recently that the young girls had fallen heir to an estate in the east, their portion amounting to $50,000, and Dr. Short's efforts to ascertain their whereabouts after leaving Salt Lake City about two years ago were rewarded.

TWO WOMEN, TIRED OF LIFE, TRY TO DIE

Two women attempted suicide yesterday afternoon. Both declared they were tired of life, but medical attention saved their lives. Mrs. A. G. Jones, 410 South Sixth avenue, went to her husband's office in the Sherlock building, attempted to swallow chloroform, but was stopped before a sufficient quantity to cause death had been taken. She was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital. Continued ill health is supposed to have been the cause of her act.

SOUTH AMERICAN LUMBER CARGOES TO BEAT RECORD

Thirteen Carriers Now En Route or in Port; Nearly All on Way to Columbia River, It is Reported.

While last year was a banner year for the movement of lumber from the Columbia river to the west coast of South America, this year bids fair to be as good, if not better, there being 13 carriers now on the enroute list and in port.

Of this fleet practically all are on the way to the river. The schooner W. H. Marston is now in port loading and is expected to finish loading for Valparaiso Monday, while three have not yet sailed.

Two of the fleet have come to grief and strange as it may seem both were chartered for the same cargo. The German bark Mimi, which went on the beach near Nehalem, had been chartered to replace the British bark Torridade, wrecked a couple of months ago south of the Jetty at Grays Harbor.

Up to about a year ago there had been very little shipping of lumber from the Columbia river to the West Coast for a number of years but last year the lumber trade to South America from Oregon took a spurt and many cargoes were set afloat at points between Portland and Astoria for Chile and Peru.

Some shipping men seem to believe that this year will be as good if not better in this business.

Although practically all the carriers for that trade are American schooners, a few foreign bottoms have taken cargo of Oregon fir to the West Coast during the past year. The British ship Wray Castle is the only one shown on the list so far with the exception of the German bark Mimi, which is apparently out of the question now.

HEARING CUSTOMS CASES

Protests and Re-Appraisements Are on the Docket.

Customs cases are being heard today at the customs house by William B. Howell, of the board of general appraisers at New York, who is here accompanied by his secretary and Attorney Baldwin. A number of protests and re-appraisement cases are on the docket, but the most numerous probably are in connection with sake leakage. The government recognizes the tubs in which sake is imported as containing 18 gallons with 2 1/2 per cent outage. There has been a subject of controversy for a number of years as the importers claim that the duty imposed be based only on what liquor is in the tubs. There are also some sulphur cases as well as protests on various other things.

WHEAT CARGO LOADED

British Bark Inverclyde May Leave Down Tomorrow.

Wheat cargo having been completed aboard the British bark Inverclyde, she was towed from the Irving dock to the stream this morning and is expected to be in readiness to leave down the river on the first leg of her voyage to the United Kingdom tomorrow morning. She will be cleared this afternoon by M. H. Houser, having a cargo of 102,158 bushels of wheat, valued at $88,877. She will clear for Queenstown or Falmouth for orders. The German ship Olona was towed from the ballast dock at Linnton to the Inverclyde berth at the Irving dock this morning.

OLIVER LEE HULL AND OFFICE HIGHER UPS

Oliver Lee Hull Makes Charge of Fraud Against Siletz Settlers.

Oliver Lee Hull, an attorney of 487 Union avenue, has filed charges with United States attorney John McCourt that applicants for homestead on the Siletz Indian reservation have made false statements in making new affidavits under the recently passed Hawley act, and is asking their indictment.

Hull appeared before the United States attorney December 2 and put the matter before him. Hull said that he had evidence to show that applicants who had relied on claims in the Siletz reservation had made false affidavits.

Hull subsequently laid the matter before the government and officials of that department ordered the present investigation.

The matter is complicated by the fact that these applicants were before officials of the land department a few days ago and made affidavits that will be recognized by the government as a basis for perjury in case they are raised.

Fifteen of these applicants are being examined today by District Attorney McCourt to determine regarding the affidavits and Hull is assisting.

THRUST NON-PARTISAN JUDICIARY TO WALL

Salem, Or., Feb. 15.—The effort to establish a non-partisan judiciary in Oregon is being pushed by the legislature, met with its usual defeat in the senate yesterday, when Senator Butler's bill for abolition of party names on the ballot, so far as judges are concerned, was sent to the scrap heap by a vote of 19 yeas and 18 nays.

Butler made a strong appeal to his fellow Republicans to throw aside partisanship and adopt the principle of putting all candidates on equal footing. He said this would not work to the disadvantage of the Republicans, and that the partisan system of nomination produces more Democratic judges than would be likely under the non-partisan plan.

Those registered for the bill were Butler, Dunick, Joseph, Kellaher, Edmond, Carl Colloch, Miller, Neuman, Ragdale and Smith of Coos. In the negative were Barrett, Bean, Burgess, Calkins, Carson, Day, Farrell, Hawley, Hollis, Hoskins, Lester, Moser, Perkins, Smith of Josephine, Stewart, Thompson, von der Helten and Wood.

Executions With Silent Rifles. Carson City, Nev., Feb. 15.—Three specially constructed rifles, fitted with Maxim agencies and fired automatically, have taken the place of the executioner's firing squad at the state penitentiary here today. The guns are in a steel cage, and are worked by a spring arrangement. The only sign they give is that they have done their work is when their victim crumples with three bullets through his heart.

MEMBERS OF MANUFACTURERS ASSOCIATION MAKE PROTEST AND GAIN ADMISSION FROM MARTIN SCHACHT.

Protest of a strong delegation representing the Oregon Manufacturers' association yesterday at a meeting of the city executive board resulted in the question of what kind of brick should be used in the construction of the new city jail building, being again referred to the joint police and fire committees of the board.

Before that committee Oregon manufacturers will endeavor to prove by test that Oregon brick is in every way the equal of the brick manufactured near Seattle by the Owen-Reardon company.

Architect Sydney Brown, president of the board, championed the "made-in-Oregon" brick, saying that it should be given the preference if it is as good as the Seattle brick.

At yesterday's session of the board Mr. Schacht was the target of attack by various members of the delegation, which was headed by Sidney B. Vincent.

C. W. Hodson, a member of the board, said in explanation of his having signed a report of the previous committee, recommending the Seattle brick that he had done so on the strong recommendation of Architect Schacht, who, he said, "is either competent to judge what is best for the city or else should resign."

Architect Schacht when called upon to defend his position reiterated former statements that Oregon brick is inferior to the product of the state of Washington. However, the architect admitted finally that his chief reason for objecting to the local make of brick was that its color does not lend itself to the sand stone trimmings planned for the jail building as harmoniously as does the soft brown tint of the Washington brick.

Mr. Schacht said, further, that the Oregon brick has a greater tendency to discolor than has the other kind.

Bids Are Opened. "We of the Oregon Manufacturers' association," said Mr. Vincent, "feel that Oregon brick interests have not been treated fairly. In the first place the specifications were so drawn that Oregon brick could not be used in the construction of the jail. Afterwards, though the police committee agreed the specifications thrown open, this was not done to our satisfaction. The architect still persists in his antipathy for our product. If the people of Oregon and Portland do not support the 'made-in-Oregon' movement, factories representing millions of dollars of investment will have to go out of business."

The executive board opened bids for the plumbing, heating and electric wiring of the jail building. Bids were also opened for the electric wiring of the Broadway bridge. These will be awarded at a special meeting next Tuesday.

SONS OF REVOLUTION PLANNING BANQUET

Arrangements are being perfected for the proper commemoration of Washington's birthday by the Sons of the American Revolution, the patriotic order that has done much in the past to stimulate the study of Revolutionary literature and men of those days amongst the public school children and universities as well as colleges of this state. They will hold their annual election in the afternoon of 2 o'clock of February 22, in the Portland hotel, to be followed by a banquet and addresses in the evening at the same place at 7 o'clock. The list of speakers will be announced within a few days.

BONNEVILLE HATCHERY TO BE VISITED SUNDAY
