The revival meetings at the Tabernacle Baptist churcsh, which have been going on for some time, have been very successful. A great number of new members have been converted. Tomorrow will be known as "decision day," in the Sunday school, and at 3 o'clock in the afternoon the pastors will give a talk to children. The topic for tomorrow night's sermon will be "Satan's

The Ladies' Aid society of the Hills-boro Congregational church managed an entertainment given by the Schubert quartet in that city last Wednes day night. Proceeds are to be used to start a fund for a gymnasium to be built on the lot adjoining the church. One man in the town has promised to give $500 if such a building is built.

Under the auspices of the Meh's Brotherhood of the Atkinson Memorial Congregational church, a recitation of old English, Irish and Scotch songs will be given Friday night, February 28, by Miss Margery Maxwell and Rev. Frank W. Gorman, pastor of the church, Miss Maxwell is a pupil of Mrs. Elsie Bond Bischoff and is quite well known. Proseeds from this recital will go into a fund to help with the church work.

A most enjoyable time was spent in the clubrooms of the Third Presbyter-ian church by the "We Boys" class of the church, last Monday night when first "get-to-gether" of the boys and their guests was held. About 40 young men enjoyed themselves during a four course dinner served by the "King's Daughters" class. Short talks were made by Dr. A. L. Hutchinson, E. C. Herlow and Wilson Benefiel.

Six new members were added to the nembership of the East Side Baptist church, as a result of the evangelistic services held there last Sunday night by Rev. W. O. Shank, the pastor. Since he took charge of the pastorate of the church, two months ago, the membership has been increased by 35. There are now over 200 members in the Sun-

WILL BE FINE EDIFICE

The Westminster Presbyterian Congregation to Be Housed in $140,000 Structure.

Probably within less than eight months the residents of Irvington will be able to boast of having one of the finest churches in the city located in that district, for by that time the new Westminster Presbyterian church, at East Seventeenth and Schuyler streets is expected to be finished and occupied. Work on the structure is now about half completed.

Plans for this new church were made about a year ago, but work on the building did not begin until several months later. While the work has been going on steadily, rapid progress could not be made, as the members of the church wished to have money on hand to pay for the material and labor as the edifice rose into the air. The building is being put up in units, each unit cost being paid, upon completion. The architecture is of the old English type and when finished the church will rank highly among Portland's handsome buildings. The cost of the entire structure will be close to $140,000. All of the most modern church fixtures will be found in the new building. Social rooms and exercise rooms for the young peopl; of the church and community are also to be featured in the structure. The main auditorium will seat over 1000 people. The walls of the edifice are now up their entire distance, and work will be started soon upon roofing the structure and putting in the interior. Rev. Henry Marcotte is pastor of the present Westminster church.

Church Differences

The question service last Sunday night in Centenary church revealed the fact that many people are interested in the differences in belief in Christendom. At that time Dr. Trimble stated that he would not answer the questions related to controversial points, owing to the difficulty of such problems and the lack of time, but that on account of such general interest, he deemed it his duty to begin a series of sermons on "The Disagreements and Agreements in Christendom," Sunday evening. He will preach four sermons on the disagreements as follows:

February 16-"The Differences Between Roman Catholicism and Protest-February 23-"The Sabbath-Saturday or Sunday?" (Seventh Day Advent-

2-"Baptism-Immersion or Liberty?" March 9-"Christian Science-A Faith or a Fake?" Dr. Trimble says that he takes Protestantism versus Catholicism first because this sixteenth century movement marked the beginning of the division of will be followed by a series on the Christendom." 'Agreement in morning sermon tomorrow will be "God's Guidance of the Individual."

Scandinavian Meetings

A series of special meetings for the Scandinavian people of Portland will two weeks in the First Norwegian Danish M. E. church, Eighteenth and Hoyt streets. The pastor will be assisted by District Superintendent Rev. Joseph Ol sen, of Seattle, Wash., and Rev. J. Brungedahl, of Astoria, Or. All of the Scandinavian people living in this city are urged to attend these services

The men of the Kenilworth Presbyterian church will serve a Washington birthday chicken dinner next Friday night in the basement of the church mittee which has charge of the affair.

CAME FROM ANIMAL; DENIES "EDEN" STORY

Narrative of Adam and Eve Is Merely Typical, Says R. L. Paddock in College Speech.

(Special to The Journal.)

University of Oregon, Eugene, Or., Feb. 15 .- Adam was not the first man upon this earth; neither was Eve the first woman, and the serpent and the garden of paradise are probably figures of fiction, according to Bishop R. L. Paddock of the eastern Oregon diocy of the Episcopal church, who addressed 600 university men and women this week. Man was probably not made in 24 hours, as the Bible states, according to the bishop, but developed by evolution from the animal, during six long ages of many million years.

"The story of Adam and Eye," he de-clared, "is a story told in very simple wording for the children of the race; it conveys the beginning of spiritual humanity. Adam and Eve were merely typical of other men and women already existing."

"Reasonable Religion" Thems.

The theme of Bishop Paddock's address was "Reasonable Religion," under which he condemned theological divisions, and declared that the real problem of immortality lies in its physiological effect upon reproduction and perpetuation of mankind

"The average man of the west today is craving a reasonable religion—one based on common horse sense," he said. We must come down from ecclesiastical divisions, at which the average man rebels; come down from the clouds, and select that which will sweep the streets. Religion may supply ideals, but it must have enough of the utilitarian to prompt men who think to live straight. "It is not so much that we get men into heaven, as to getting heaven into men. The problem of morality is, the problem of making the race better.

'We must keep our bodies sacrednot to avoid punishment; not to avoid disgrace, nor detection, nor pain; we must keep our blood pure, not merely avoid giving pain to whom God gives as our life companion, thus to suffer for our digressions, but that we may give to the world children not damned by our own mistakes.

"Man's Life Must Be Clean." "It is natural for man to want to live even after he is dead. He can do so through his children. It is natural for Succeeds Like Success." She will de-liver an address to the members of the some good in the world; he does it and Anabel Women's Neighborhood club, and continues it by so living that his child on Friday night she will be heard in a will not inherit a tendency toward dedramatic and humorous recital in the pravity. But his own life must be clean throughout. It is too late to say, When I get married, I'll brace up, or 'After I become engaged I will be a better man.' If we are to be successful fathers and mothers we must prepare, It will not do to reform before the birth A series of Lenten conferences with of the child. It is then too late. The men will be begun tomorrow afternoon child will be born, not necessarily with disease, but with developed passions for will probably be of practical and vital lower ideals. The man who would rethe Christian world, and is basal to all interest to men. The conferences will form when the time comes looks upon our present varieties of belief. These be held in the Percival Memorial library marriage not as a factor of evolution, but as a means of gratification of the animal instincts.

Special Services

Brigadler and Mrs. Robert Dubbin, who have charge of the Salvation Army work in Oregon and Washington, are conducting special services at the headquarters of the local corps in this city. The first service will be held at 8 o'clock tonight at the headquakters, Second and Ankeny streets. | Services will be held at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning at the same place, and at 3:15 o'clock in the afternoon and at 8 o'clock at night, at Corps No. 4, 207 Salmon street. Monday night a united meeting will be held at the headquarters. Second and Ankeny streets. Brigadier and Mrs. Dubbin are old of the army's work in various parts of the members of the church and others America. They also have been stationed in England and Denmark.
