UNABLE TO DISPOSE OF POTATOES HERE AT THE PRICES BEING QUOTED

Front Street Business Is Nominal, Even at Lowest Prices in Years, and Buyers for Outside Account Have Quit Entirely.

PORTLAND PRODUCE TRADE. Egg market weaker. Cheese holding steady. Butter remains scarce. Chicken trade better. Dressed hogs firmer. Dressed year steady. Wool contracts sought. Potaces very weak. Onions hardly moving.

The potato trade locally is at a standstill. All sorts of values are being asked along the street, but the movement is restricted. One lead buyer today said that he was unable to sell his holding here, consisting of about 150 bags, and intended to give them to some charitable institution. This he considered far better than holding them and sending them to the crematory later. It is true that as high as $1.10 is being quoted for best Oregon Burbanks in the San Francisco market, but so far as known none of the local trade have been able to get this figure for the very best stock they have sent in that direc-

On the basis of what potatoes are actually selling at in the California market, buyers of carload lots here could not pay more than 46c a certal in the country. Even this would not be so bad were they able to really move the offerings at that figure; but they canally year.

Are Aided.

An appeal will be made by local wholesale interests for the governor to be well all year.

Nearby growers, who bring their stock direct to the market by wagon are unable to sell them on the street because everyone is loaded to the guards with arrivals of some time ago. One grower sold a big load of extra fancy potatoes to a hawker here at 35c a bag, containing about 115 pounds.

No offer for potatoes is being refused by Front street interests. One house, which makes a specialty of potatoes, is not asking more than 55c a cental for the best stock, and 45c for ordinary grade; but is unable to sell more than a nominal amount at this figure.

According to the wholesalers the bill was introduced by them several years ago for the purpose of aiding the industry and to keep unfit offerings off the market.

It is claimed that the open season for clams during the summer would simply be to aid canneries at the coast. Wholesalers the bill was introduced by them several years ago for the purpose of aiding the industry and to keep unfit offerings off the market.

CHICKEN TRADE IS GOOD

There is a very good tone all through the poultry market. Chickens are gen-erally quoted at an advance of a half cent, and there is likewise a much better demand for ducks and geese. Quite the eral shipments of dressed turkeys are coming forward, but most of the stock is poor. Fancy birds continue in de-mand around 25c.

DRESSED HOGS ARE FIRMER

Firmer tone is showing for country killed hogs in the Front street trade. With the recent advance in the price of livestock, there has been a coresponding improvement in dressed stock. The trade in general is looking for a fractional advance during the country week. tional advance during the coming week.

BANANA TRAIN IS DUE TODAY

Trainload of bananas is due to arrive from New Orleans tonight. The market is now quite well supplied with good stock, with sales from 4c to 5c a pound. according to quality

LOCAL CABBAGE STILL GOOD

Quite fair supplies of local cabbage are coming forward to the wholesale trade. Stock in general is very good, the heads being solid. Sales are being made generally at $1.25 a cental, with crated at an advance of 25c.

HOTHOUSE RHUBARB SELLING

A small shipment of hothouse rhubarb

BUTTER IS STILL SCARCE

There continues a scarcity of butter offerings in the local market. Receipts from out of town creameries are small, and city makers are unable to fill their demand. The San Francisco market was firmer at 35 ½ today, which really means 37c to retailers.

FORECAST FOR SHIPPERS

Weather bureau sends the following notice to shippers:
Protect shipments as far north as Seattle against minimum temperatures of about 46 degrees; northeast to Spo-kane, 34 degrees; southeast to Bolse, 25 degrees; south to Siskiyou, 36 degrees. Minimum temperature at Portland to-night, about 48 degrees.

Wool Interests Are Much More EGG MARKET FALS TO Willing to Purchase Contracts

Woolen interests are evidently changing their minds regarding their not wanting to secure contracts on the coming wool clip. They are now secrelly trying to corner supplies at interior Pacific northwest points, but are not yet willing to pay the prices they have offered and paid at other sections of the country.

Growers continue very firm in their views and the amount of contracts written to date is the smallest known here for many years. Advices received from the country indicate the willingness of prectically all of the leading growers to await the regular sales dates before offering their supplies. To stop this it is quite probable that milling interests will offer a fractional advance over prevailing prices in an effort to stamped growers.

Eastern advices continue of former tenor. Better selling has been reported for some grades, but the market, as a whole, shows practically an change for recent days. Foreign advices in general

Absence of official news today of conditions at Mexico City and other Mexican points caused orders to be issued to the commanders of the warships Georgia, Virginia, Nebraska and Vermont, all in Mexican waters, to be prepared to land marines and bluejackets if American Ambassador Wilson or any if American Ambassador Wilson or any their services. Each commander was instructed to take orders from consuls without waiting for orders from Wash-

To Do Police Duty. The landing of a large force of marines, Secretary Knox says, would not onstitute intervention but merely the "exercising of police power." More than 2000 marines and bluejackets are available on the four vessels. He also insisted that President Taft has ample authority to send such an "expedition-ary force" into Mexico City should ne-essity for such action arise. State department officials are unable to understand why they have received day. Madero's forces desperately no communication from Mexico City tacked the rebel stronghold, but for more than 16 hours when press messengers are coming through, although greatly delayed

Chicago was the hignest hog market in the country for the day.

Kansas City hog market was weaker, with a loss of 10c to 15c from yesterday, with tops at $8.05, or 15c below the 10cal trade.

South Omaha hog market advanced again so that tops touched $8.05 this superseding America in diplomatic ac-tivities. De la Barra probably went planned by Madero to surprise Di country. I attach no significance to think Madero deliberately allowed the Secretary of War Stimson this afternoon was summoned before the senate foreign committee, presumably regarding Mexico.

A delayed dispatch from Ambassador Wilson in Mexico City reported that an American boy named Lasan was wounded in today's battle. Wilson declared the Mexican foreign minister had requested him today to move the embassy to Tacubaya, a suburb outside the battle

Secretary of State Knox, in a statement today, declared Wilson cabled that Diaz had recently submitted to him the last correspondence the rebel leader had exchanged with Madero regarding the character of the warfare, said this correspondence made several recommendations with a view to saving 0.65.25 life and property.
