

PADDED MITTS WILL FLY AT MULTNOMAH CLUB TONIGHT

CREAM OF VANCOUVER MITT AND MAT STARS MEET 'M'S' TONIGHT

Visitors Workout This Morning and Are in Shape for Hard Battles.

The cream of the boxing and wrestling talent of the Vancouver Athletic club will appear tonight against Multnomah's representatives in the last boxing and wrestling tournament of the 1913-1914 P. N. A. season.

Chester McIntyre and his quartet of athletes arrived in Portland last night and worked out for a short time at the Multnomah club this morning. McIntyre said: "I have brought down the best balanced team I could get together and I expect to win a majority of the bouts."

"In Smith, I have a wrestler that defeated Oscar Frank in the 135-pound class championships in San Francisco. He was unable to appear in the P. N. A. meet last fall. Houghes is the best heavyweight boxer in Canada and held the championship for two years. I expect him to beat Williams, although it will be a hard bout."

"Al Hatch weighs about 145 pounds, but Hatch is very anxious to meet McCarthy and expects to put the shoulders of the middleweight champion to the test. Charles Patton, who meets Knowlton, weighs only 125 pounds, but I look for him to outpoint Knowlton. Patton is one of the cleverest boys in the Vancouver club."

The Multnomah boxers had their last workout last evening and instructor Tommy Tracey of the boxers stated that he expected both boys to win their bouts this evening.

Chairman Edgar E. Frank has arranged a quartet of preliminary bouts that will be exciting from start to finish. The first bout will be staged promptly at 7:30 o'clock.

The complete program is:

Interclub Events:

135-pound wrestling—Smith, Vancouver vs. Clifton, Multnomah.

155-pound wrestling—Hatch, Vancouver vs. McCarthy, Multnomah.

115-pound boxing—Hughes, Vancouver vs. Williams, Multnomah.

135-pound boxing—Patton, Vancouver vs. Knowlton, Multnomah.

Special Events:

125-pound—Fuercks, Columbus club vs. Powers, Multnomah.

135-pound—Bovette, Columbus club vs. Schmeer, Multnomah.

135-pound—Boxing, unattached, vs. Allen, unattached.

115-pound—Forbes, unattached, vs. Belmont, Multnomah.

Hood River Wants One Team.

(Special to The Journal.)

Hood River, Or., Feb. 21.—The baseball fans of Hood River are beginning to agitate the matter of baseball and the consensus of opinion seems to be that one team in the field will be better than two. Hood River had two teams in the Columbia River league last season, the Hood River Heights winning the pennant easily. A strong team can be secured by combining the City and Heights teams.

Nine Cars to Race.

Imperial, Cal., Feb. 21.—Nine cars are entered today for the first annual Imperial Valley Automobile Road race which will be run tomorrow over a 67.7 mile course. Among the drivers who will compete are Tostaff, Cliffield, Lyons and Verbeck. A special train from Los Angeles will bring several hundred automobile enthusiasts.

Motorcyclists to Climb Hills.

The Portland Motorcycle club will hold a hill-climbing contest Sunday afternoon in South Portland. Between 15 and 20 riders have entered the contest to be held on the Bancroft street hill.

PLAY FOR BASKETBALL TITLE

FIVE HUNDRED TEAMS FOR TOLEDO TOURNEY

Best Bowlers in U. S. Will Compete in 13th Annual Event.

Toledo, Ohio, Feb. 21.—With more than 500 five men teams, 1165 two men teams and 2387 individual entries, the thirteenth annual tournament of the American Bowling Congress will have its formal opening in this city tomorrow under conditions that promise one of the most successful events in the history of the organization. For weeks the local committee has been busily at work preparing for the tournament and the entertainment of visitors.

Regulation alleys that are pronounced by experts to be perfect in every particular, have been installed in the big Terminal Auditorium where the competitions will take place. Ample accommodations have been provided for the spectators.

The best bowlers in the United States will take part in the tournament. The entry list shows that the men who capture the national title this year will not only reap a harvest of glory, but a substantial sum of money on the side.

Under the careful direction of Coach John A. McDonald the members of the Tufts college track squad are rapidly rounding into first class form.

MULTNOMAH SEASIDE TRAIN LEAVES AT TEN

Excursionists to Reach Gearhart in Time to Take High Tide Surf.

At ten o'clock tomorrow morning at the North Bank station, the "Winged M" special with over 150 funmakers on board, will depart for Gearhart, Or., where the annual spring frolic of the Multnomah club will be held. The committee in charge of the trip has arranged an excellent list of events and amusements for the excursionists.

The special will arrive in Gearhart a little after 1 o'clock and as high tide comes in at 1:45 o'clock, it is expected that most of the members of the party will go in surf bathing at that time.

Professor Cavill has arranged for several swimming races and Professor Krohn has laid plans for several athletic stunts and a one-day golf tournament will be one of the features of the trip.

The Gearhart hotel people have arranged to serve at the banquet Saturday night the choicest of Pacific ocean sea foods.

Ross to Fight Koepke.

(Special to The Journal.)

Centralia, Wash., Feb. 21.—Billy Ross of Centralia, at one time middleweight champion of the Pacific coast, yesterday agreed to box Frank Koepke before the Tacoma Eagles on March 6. Ross has not been in the ring for several years, but he recently showed he had "coming back" qualities when he put away a fast Chicago middleweight in two rounds before the local "M" club.

WOLGAST GOES INTO RING AN OUNCE FROM HIGH WEIGHT LIMIT

Jones and Wolgast Apparently Have Placed Several Large Bets on Chances.

(United Press Leased Wire.) San Francisco, Feb. 21.—Although he has been enabled to take a few tucks in his "bummy" since his arrival here, Al Wolgast still looks up a bit fat today and probably will go into the ring against Harlem Tommy Murphy tomorrow only an ounce below the weight limit.

Wolgast's last workout was about as strenuous as a hobo camp at midnight, and the little fellow has sweated further looking until ring time. The bettors are getting worried over the Cadillac boy's surplus poundage and his listlessness.

Neither the fighter nor his manager, Tom Jones, is worried, however. They have doubtless placed several large bets and express the utmost confidence that the bout will be ended abruptly.

Over at Shannon's training resort in San Rafael, Tommy Murphy has been making the days hideous for his sparring partners. The little Harleimite will leave off boxing today, merely doing a little road work and a few stunts in the gym.

Both boys rested today at their training quarters. Brown played about the gymnasium for an hour during the afternoon but refrained from hard work and did no boxing. Rivers loomed about his quarters, venturing outside only for a couple of trots up the road and a spin in his automobile.

Advance sales of seats have been heavy and indications are that the men will show before a large holiday crowd.

Three preliminaries will be staged. The first will begin, according to schedule, at 2 o'clock. Brown and Rivers are expected to answer the first gong an hour later.

NO LOAFING AROUND FOR MAC'S GUNNERS AT TRAINING PLACE

Corps of Good Twirlers Makes No One Absolutely Sure of His Job.

There will be no loafing around on Walter McCredie's pitching staff this year, because there are too many good hurlers anxious to get seven months' job. It looks as if one of the seasoned pitchers was as good as another, and there are only about four that can be looked upon as fixtures—Krause, Hagerman, James and West. While Krapp may still be suffering from a sore arm, McCredie is inclined to the belief that he will be as effective as he was in 1910, when he was the young sensation of the team. He will get a very thorough trial.

There are nine twirlers on the list, including the two youngsters, Lefty Stanley and Matt Hynes. Six twirlers will be retained. This makes a situation that will bring out the best that is in the pitchers, for there is a month and a half difference in the lengths of the seasons of the Pacific Coast and Northwestern leagues.

Ernie Higginbotham was heard from this morning. Higginbotham informed McCredie that he would be in such shape at the opening of the season there would be no chance to shunt him to the Northwestern league, as had been planned. If that is the case then it is hard to see how he can be turned away.

With Krause, James, West and Hagerman looked upon as fixtures, four of the staff is about settled. Either Hynes or Stanley may come through. Knapp did in 1910 and if that is the case McCredie will have to hold on.

At Carson will have to travel at some speed to keep abreast of the bunch that Mac has on hand, and unless the veteran shows something pretty early in April it may be over to the N. W. for him.

Howard Replaces Reidy.

(United Press Leased Wire.) San Francisco, Feb. 21.—Bill Reidy has been "canned" as manager of the San Francisco Seals. Del Howard is the new boss. These are two unexpected moves that Owner Cal Ewing of the local Coast league club has put over, and it will be some time before all the fans will be able to pick themselves up. Ewing's announcements came like a bolt from the blue, but the Seals' comptroller of the currency likes to put these things over occasionally.

"Reidy did not treat me right," explained Ewing. "He overlooked the club and myself as soon as he hit Cleveland. Nobody knows what he is doing now, and he doesn't seem to care a bean about the San Francisco club."

Howard is one of the most popular men in the Coast league. He has had ten years' experience, and was at one time Frank Chance's understudy.

White Sox in Oakland Sunday.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Chicago, Feb. 21.—Riding in a special De Luxe train, the Chicago White Sox, with their wives, attendants and corps of newspaper writers, are today spring training. At the head of the contingent of first class ball players is Charles A. Comiskey, president of the club, and Manager Jimmy Callahan. The train is billed to reach the terminal at Oakland, Cal., Sunday morning. Several more players will be picked up en route. Harry Grabner, Comiskey's private secretary, is bringing his bride of one day along.

Corbett Pans Marquard.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Sacramento, Cal., Feb. 21.—That Rube Marquard, New York Giant star, is an ingrate and "struck the hand that fed him," is the opinion today of former Heavyweight Champion James J. Corbett, who is doing a vaudeville turn here.

"Someone ought to 'call' this fellow Marquard," Corbett declared. "He would be playing on the sand lots today if it were not for the Giants' manager, Muggsy McGraw."

Now Overall Won't Play.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Los Angeles, Feb. 21.—Big Jeff Overall announced today that he will not sign a contract tendered him by Charlie Murphy of the Chicago Cubs, which he declared calls for $4000 a year. Overall is not exactly satisfied with his figure, and at the same time he wanted to be traded to a Coast league club. Overall stated that unless he reaches an agreement with Murphy he will spend the season in Los Angeles.

The Harvard university fencing team has been provisionally chosen as follows: J. S. E. Damon, 14, J. A. Arlett, 15 and R. von Nardoff, 15.

LOS ANGELES BET RIVERS WILL KNOCK KAYO BROWN TO NOD

Mexican Is Strong Favorite Over New York Boy for Vernon Fight.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Los Angeles, Feb. 21.—Rain is all that can now spoil one of the best pugilistic attractions of the year, in Los Angeles, according to the general verdict today of fight fans who will watch Joe Rivers and Knockout Brown try to put each other out of the lightweight championship running at Vernon tomorrow afternoon.

Brown and Rivers are scheduled to meet over the derby distance, 20 rounds. Rivers is a strong 10 to 1 favorite, with indications that the odds will lengthen considerably before ring time. In spite of the fact that Brown never has been knocked out, several bets have been placed at even money that Rivers will duce the sleep punch before the limit is reached.

Both boys rested today at their training quarters. Brown played about the gymnasium for an hour during the afternoon but refrained from hard work and did no boxing. Rivers loomed about his quarters, venturing outside only for a couple of trots up the road and a spin in his automobile.

Advance sales of seats have been heavy and indications are that the men will show before a large holiday crowd.

Three preliminaries will be staged. The first will begin, according to schedule, at 2 o'clock. Brown and Rivers are expected to answer the first gong an hour later.

The crack Amicus club basketball team is in fine shape for the championship game with the Silverton, Or., team tomorrow night on the Christian Brothers floor at Grand avenue and Chickamauga street. Early in the season, the Amicus team defeated the Silverton players by the score of 13 to 12. The Silverton team defeated Amicus at a later date by the score of 26 to 25.

The Amicus team won the city championship last year and expect to land the state title. The game will start promptly at 8:30 o'clock.

The Amicus juniors will play a preliminary game with the C. B. B. C. juniors at 7:30 o'clock.

The Lumbermen National Bank team defeated the Ladd & Titton five last night on the Portland Academy floor by the score of 25 to 17, and cinched second place. The game was fast and thrilling.

The lineup Lumbermen—Ashworth, Munger and Percival, forwards; Avery, center; Sammons and Murphy, guards; Ladd & Titton—White and Steadman, forwards; McGinty, center; Gammis and Ball, guards.

The final game will be played next Thursday night.

Mount Angel, Or., Feb. 21.—The fast Mount Angel college juniors won their eleventh consecutive game of the season here yesterday, defeating the Salem Deaf Mutes, 40 to 24.

MEIER & FRANK TEAM WINS BOWLING TITLE

Take Two Out of Three Final Games; Dwight Edwards Quintet Is Second.

By winning two out of three games from the Powers Furniture team last night, the Meier & Frank bowlers, headed by Tom O'Donnell, won the championship of the City Bowling league. The Dwight Edwards team finished in second place, falling down in the last match of the season, losing two out of three games to one of the second division teams.

The victory of the Meier & Frank team is a well earned one, every member of the team rolling his hardest to get the championship. Much credit is due Ahrens and Tom O'Donnell who bowled well all season.

In the first game, the M. & F. team made the score of 990, Ahrens making the high score of 233. The Powers team made the score of 849 in the first game. The score of the second game was 862.
