Vessel Will Sail From London

ing by A. T. Prichard, local representative of Frank Waterhouse & Co., that e Royal Mall Steam Packet company sterday chartered the British steamer Falls of Orchy for one round voyage on the Transpacific line, being due to sail from this port on her return to Europe via Puget sound ports on June. 30. She is scheduled to sail from London for this coast on March 14. The charter of this steamer, which has been here before, fills a gap between the chartered steamer Harpagus, due to sail from here April 10, and the steamer to sail July 28. Another steamer for May loading is being looked for, and if the right one can be found it will be chartered to come between the Harpa-gus and the Falls of Orchy. With the exception of the Harpa-
