GOVERNOR HIMSELF ASKS LEGISLATORS TO GATHER TUESDAY

For Sake of What Good Laws Have Been Passed, He Calls All to Adjourned Session Lest Measures Be Invalid.

IN EMERGENCY, PERSONAL FEELINGS ARE PUT ASIDE

News Is Like Coals of Fire to Rollerites Trying to Dis- credit Him.

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.)
Salem, Or., March 1.—Recognizing that a public necessity requires members of the legislature to return to Salem next Tuesday, regardless of their personal views as to the wisdom of holding over into another week, Governor West tonight issued a signed statement calling upon the members to assemble once more to attend to unfinished business and effect a sine die adjournment.

Failure to return and adjourn in the ordinary way, the governor points out, would cast grave doubt upon the validity of the laws that have been passed, resulting in costly and lengthy litigation. The governor has determined not to allow any political, personal or other consideration to stand in the way of the performance of the duty made necessary by the extraordinary methods of the house and senate leaders.

When it became evident the tactics of the steam rollerites and the ring leaders in forcing through the program of an adjourned session might bring disaster to all the important bills that had been passed, because of the possibility of not being able to secure a quorum and make a formal adjournment, the governor stopped the breach and issued his appeal tonight in order to protect the state from the possible dire results of the rollers' political schemes. His message says: "To the members of the legislature. It appearing that a grave question has arisen as to the wisdom of the measures passed at the recent session of the legislature, should that body

THIRST CRAZED DENVER MAN DIES ON DESERT

Tramp Over Arizona Sands Proves Fatal to One—Companion Saved.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Miami, Ariz., March 1.—Tortured by thirst, weakened by hunger, and half crazed by exposure to the sand-laden winds, Ernest Sutton of Denver succumbed in the desert while struggling to walk to Miami from Devil's Canyon. His death story was stopped here by his hardier companion, Edward Gardner of Los Angeles, who was found unconscious, but still alive, beside Sutton's body, near Ray, Ariz.

The men started several days ago to walk from a mining camp in Devil's Canyon to Miami. When they failed to arrive, search parties were sent out to find the pair. Sutton had been dead several hours when found. Gardner's condition is pitiful. He is conscious and able to talk in whispers, but is utterly exhausted.

LIBERTY IN BARE FEET TO DANCE FOR SUFFRAGE

(By The International News Service.)
Washington, D. C., Mar. 1.—Mrs. Florence F. Noyes, the Greek dancer, with a perfect arm, prominent in Washington society theatricals, will dance as "Liberty" in her bare feet on the cold treasury steps during the suffrage tableau. Her attendants, who include Miss Elsie Hill, daughter of Representative E. S. Hill of Connecticut, likewise will adopt the Grecian foot dressing, unless they get cold feet. Mrs. Noyes, an ardent suffragist, will dance one of her famous classic dances garbed in a diaphanous crimson robe. She declared today she had no fear of taking cold in such a good cause.

RELUCTANTLY GOVERNOR FILES 1915 FAIR BILL BUT REFUSES TO AID IN NAMING COMMISSION

Charging Kay, Malarkey and McArthur With Playing Politics With $175,000 Appropriation, He "Looks on the Whole Proposition With Grave Suspicion."

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.)
Salem, Or., March 1.—Governor West will allow the Panama-Pacific appropriation bill to become a law without his approval. He had prepared and was about to file a veto covering the Panama fair bill for the reason that he had discovered that while apparently it was to have a voice in naming the commission and would surely be held accountable by the people of the state for the proper expenditure of the funds appropriated, it was never intended that I should have a voice in naming the commission," declared the governor in a statement issued tonight.

RECTOR SAYS WOMAN COMMITTED ASSAULT

Fashionable Church Worker Arrested on Charges Pre- ferred by Minister.

(By The International News Service.)
San Francisco, Mar. 1.—The little town of Ross, an aristocratic suburb of San Francisco tonight is divided into two factions over the arrest of Mrs. J. K. Fields, a prominent church worker on charges brought by the Rev. Hubert Cowley-Carroll, rector of St. Johns Episcopal church, that the woman had assaulted him.

BOMB WRECKS STATION, SUFFRAGETTES BLAMED

Machine Explodes in Davenport, Eng- land, Fatally Injuring Clerk.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Davenport, England, March 1.—Suffragettes tonight were suspected of sending a bomb that wrecked the London & Southwestern railway station here, and probably fatally injuring William Gay, a clerk.

MORGAN WOULD REPEAT ANNUAL ITALIAN TRIP

Calif., March 1.—The question of gratifying J. P. Morgan's strongest wish by not depriving him of his usual trip to the continent, was discussed today at a time when a family meeting was held. Beside Mr. Morgan's daughter, his doctor, ex-Senator Aldrich and his daughter, ex-Ambassador Carter and Professor Lythgoe were present.

His temperature remains normal, Mr. Morgan will sail on the tenth on the Adriatic. After a few days' rest he will proceed to Rome, where he will spend Easter with relatives.

TURKEY ASKS POWERS TO PLEAD HER CAUSE

(By The International News Service.)
London, March 1.—Abandoning its prohibiting stipulations, the Turkish government has placed its cause in the matter of peace with the Balkan allies entirely in the hands of the European powers. The notice came to London today and concerned the request that peace be concluded as advantageously as possible.

RELUCTANTLY GOVERNOR FILES 1915 FAIR BILL BUT REFUSES TO AID IN NAMING COMMISSION

(By The International News Service.)
Washington, D. C., Mar. 1.—It was proved some time ago that love laughs at locksmiths, but in the engagement of Miss Marie Von Klein, daughter of Baron Von Klein of Germany, and foremost Chicago physician, and Lieutenant A. E. Miller, U. S. A., who are here today from the Philippines, the little god also laughs at the United States government when the chance affords.

FATE OF RIVERS AND HARBORS IS DUBIOUS; NEWLANDS BLAMED

Nevada Senator, Piqued at Omission of Pet Amendment, Turns Against Bill.

(Washington Bureau of The Journal.)
Washington, March 1.—With all of Oregon items left in the rivers and harbors bill, present indications are that Senator Newlands and his friends will talk the bill to death.

The Nevada senator was rejoiced because, after years of waiting, he had succeeded in getting incorporated in the bill his pet plan of requiring all rivers and harbors work to be done after a carefully considered scientific system.

When the conferees struck this out Newlands was aggrieved, but he recovered sufficiently to start a filibuster against this bill. In vain the house sent word that it would be pleased to receive the bill from the senate. In vain different senators pleaded with Newlands to let the bill come to a vote. He talked on, "spelled" occasionally by Owens, Bristow and others.

Friends of the bill put their heads together and agreed that they would keep the senate in session until the bill was passed. A number of eulogies being scheduled for today, the senate, with crowded galleries in attendance, is patiently listening to kind estimates of deceased souls, while the big supply bills are temporarily, perhaps permanently, named.

BRANDEIS OUT OF THE RUNNING, OTHERS ARE ELIMINATED BY WILSON

Proposed Secretaries of Interior, War and Agriculture Are Still Unknown to Friends.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Washington, March 1.—Late tonight it was positively asserted by those who know because of their associations with President-elect Wilson, that Louis D. Brandeis, the Boston lawyer, has been absolutely eliminated from consideration in the incoming cabinet.

Others who have been eliminated in the last few hours are Colonel Goethals, prominently mentioned for secretary of war; Governor Norris of Montana, Jerry Sullivan of Iowa, former Governor Burke of North Dakota, Governor James H. Hawley of Idaho, and Alva Adams of Colorado. Their names have been discarded by Governor Wilson.

WASHINGTON AWAITS INAUGURAL PAGEANT; CROWDS MAKE MERRY

Vice President Reaches Capital; Wilson Kin Begin Flocking in and Rent Hotel Floor.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Washington, March 1.—Democracy reigned supreme in the national capital tonight. Three days more and the party will actually be in control of the government. Three days more and Woodrow Wilson will be president.

Thousands of glittering electric lights diffused their glow upon decorated buildings tonight, and grandstands peeped up from every conceivable spot. Pictures of Wilson and Marshall, looking like everything in the world as well as their subjects, peered down upon the jostling throng that made Pennsylvania avenue and the adjacent thoroughfares a sea of humanity.

REST OF THE MADERO FAMILY, NOW IN CUBA, TO BE EXTRADITED

Father and Brother of Dead President, Refugees in Havana, Will Be Tried.

(By The International News Service.)
Mexico City, Mexico, March 1.—Francisco Madero Sr., father of the assassinated president, his brother, Ernesto Madero, former minister of finance, and all the members of their party, now fugitives in Cuba, will be brought back to Mexico City for trial.

Having disposed of Francisco, Gustavo and Emilio Madero by killing them, and Raoul in an unknown manner, the Huerta government will now prosecute and punish the two remaining members of the family who were prominent in government affairs.

The Maderos, according to the charges, offered money to Zapata and his followers to remain hostile to the government soon after the execution of Francisco Madero and Jose Pino Suarez. In the Maderista party in Cuba, besides Francisco Sr. and Ernesto, are Rafael Hernandez, former minister; Federico Gonzalez Garza, former governor of the Federal district, and Congressman Serpalo Rendon and Luis Cabrera.

AULD LANG SYNE SUNG BY WILSON AND NEIGHBORS

People of Princeton March to President-Elect's Cottage, Give Him a Loving Cup and Wish Him God Speed.

WILSON TELLS NEED OF THE "INTIMATE TOUCH"

He Wonders If the White House Will Prove as Com- fortable a Home.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Princeton, N. J., March 1.—President-elect Woodrow Wilson has never been in the White House and he looks forward to his surroundings there as much less comfortable and "possessive" than his surroundings in the little village of Princeton, at least so he told those townfolk he said goodbye to this evening.

"I have never been inside the White House," he said, in a reply to a speech of presentation in behalf of his neighbors, who had given him a big silver loving cup as an evidence of their regard, "and I shall feel very strange when I get inside of it. I shall think of this little home and of you as intimate a member how much more intimate a sense of possession there must be in the one case than in the other."

The president-elect said he believed the "conditions of patriotism were local," that they consisted of "consciousness of an intimate touch with persons."

He said that if a man's head was not connected by every thread of suggestion with the heads of the people about him, he could not think as they think.

FRIEDMANN FITS UP HIS LABORATORY FOR FREE TREATMENT OF WHITE PLAGUE VICTIMS

Will Treat All Comers Beginning Tomorrow Morning—No Charge Will Be Made at First—Later, Those Who Are Able Will Be Expected to Pay for Aid.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
New York, March 1.—Countless millions of germs were forming in gelatine over an electric heater in the Waldorf-Astoria hotel tonight in preparation for the multitude of tubercular patients whom Dr. Friedmann, the Berlin scientist, expects will move upon his Fifth avenue laboratory Monday morning.

He further explained that no money would be asked from any applicants for the first week or two, in which time he would demonstrate, he said, the efficacy of his cure. After that he intimated that those who could pay would be allowed to, but reiterated that nobody would be turned away for lack of money.
