

McCREDIE DECIDES TO PLAY TWO GAMES WITH WHITE SOX

SCHEDULE OF GREAT TRAINING GAMES IS LAID OUT FOR LOCALS

McCredie Decides to Give the American Colored Giants 4 Games; "Hig" Praised.

By R. A. Cronin.
Visalia, Cal., March 10.—Manager McCredie prepared a 10 o'clock curtain talk for the Beavers this morning to take the place of the field practice and signs for the coming games were arranged. McCredie plans to visit Stockton Wednesday to complete arrangements to practice the final week there.

After canceling the Chicago game at Bakerfield last night, McCredie listened to the plea of fans there and it will be played March 13.

Visalia, Cal., March 9.—With the two St. Mary's games, which were won by scores of 6 to 0 and 9 to 2, and the games here with the American Colored Giants of Chicago, Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, followed by one Chicago White Sox game March 18, the Portland Beavers will have had the greatest practice a McCredie training camp aggregation has known.

In deciding to give the negro wonders four games, in conversation over the telephone today, McCredie also resolved to ask business manager Tip O'Neill of the Sox to cancel one of the two games, after he received advices from Bakerfield that a game there would not pay the expenses of the two clubs. McCredie candidly admits he does not believe that his club will win over one or two games with the colored aggregation, which is said to be one of the fastest in the country and the equal of many major league clubs. The defeat of St. Mary's yesterday brought out the fact that Irv Higginbotham is in wonderful shape for this time of the year and ought to prove a winning pitcher from the start. After getting a couple of runs off Krapp, who displayed a streak of his old time wildness, Hig relieved him in the third and the collegians saw neither the bludge nor the tally column.

Walter Doane, facing a right hand speed pitcher, who had a lot of stuff on the ball, clouted one out of the lot in the seventh, checking up the first home run of the season. In addition to that, he got another single through short and stole a base. Fitzgerald was there again with a brace of pretty doubles and some nifty base running, scoring from second in the fifth on Doane's ground-out to first.

Gus Fisher chased two runs across the plate in the fourth with a triple to left, and McCredie took the heart out of the students. Riordan showed up nicely at the bat, getting a sacrifice fly and a two bagger that would have been out of the lot had not a high scoreboard intervened. Derrick fielded nicely and so did Rodgers. Mike McCormick broke into the game, but his long train ride smudged his batting eye. He had a nice swing on the ball, but has little or no more speed than Tommy Sheehan, who guarded the base when Portland produced champion teams. He looks like a splendid fielder. Harry Krause served nothing but a slow ball, while he was on the mound and his old college mates were hitting under it all the time.

Krapp's wildness gave the collegians a duo of runs. Two walks and Wilson's double to left field scored Johnson in the second. In the third inning, Pappa scored. He opened with a single. This was followed by two wild heaves and an infield out, which allowed the Spokane recruit to score.

Portland scored its first run in the second inning. In the fourth Fisher's triple bunted for two tallies and in the fifth and sixth innings two more were added. Walter Doane clouted one out of the lot in the seventh inning, scoring Fitzgerald ahead of him. In the eighth two more tallies were made.

Dutch Krueger lost his glove and shoes and will be off the practice field until he has them replaced. Krueger is feeling much better and may practice tomorrow.

OREGON DROPS FROM FIRST TO LAST PLACE IN ALL-STAR TEAMS

Late Start in Practice and Injury to Fenton Causes, Declares Coach Hayward.

University of Oregon, Eugene, Or., March 10.—In selecting a first and second all-northwest basketball team, Bill Hayward, the Oregon trainer and coach, gives but one Oregon man a place upon either team. The following is his summary of the basketball season which closed Saturday:

First team—Fenton, Oregon, center; Byler, Washington, and Cooper, O. A. C., forwards; Sampson, W. S. C., and McCormick, Washington, guards.

Second team—Savage, Washington, center; Dewey, O. A. C., and McNutt, Idaho, forwards; Simms, Oregon, and May, O. A. C., guards.

Hayward's all-Oregon team—Fenton, Oregon, center; Rice, Oregon, and Dewey, O. A. C., forwards; May, O. A. C., and Cooper, O. A. C., guards.

A team composed of a combination of the choices of five of the six conference coaches, representing the most popular all-northwest team is as follows:

Savage, Washington, center; Byler, Washington, and Cooper, O. A. C., forwards; Sampson, W. S. C., and McFee, Washington, guards.

Hayward gives two causes for Oregon's drop from first place last year to bottom place this year, and from an apparently first class chance to make a championship team this year. The first is that practice did not begin soon enough, failing to give the men a substantial knowledge of the fundamentals of the game. The late starting of practice was due to the fact that three of the Oregon players were football men and needed a rest. Oregon practice did not begin until well after Christmas.

The second cause for Oregon's sudden slump Hayward attributes to the injury of Fenton on the Inland Empire trip, keeping him from the game for three weeks in the middle of the season, and completely disorganizing the team as a result of the shifting of places.

Stewart's All-Star Teams. Corvallis, Or., March 10.—The All-Northwest and All-State basketball teams picked by Coach Stewart of Oregon are:

Grand Opera Stars Choose TUXEDO

The favorite tobacco of the world's best singers

LEO SLEZAK
Leo Slezak, famous for his singing of the title role in "Otello," says: "Tuxedo means tobacco superiority. It easily holds first place in my opinion on account of its wonderful mildness and fragrance."

PUTNAM GRISWOLD
Putnam Griswold, known to all opera lovers as "König Marke" in "Tristan und Isolde," says: "A smoke of Tuxedo adds zest to my work. I swear by it and endorse it above all other tobaccos."

ADAMO DIDUR
Adamo Didur, famous bass, well-known as "Marcel" in "The Huguenots," says: "I've compared Tuxedo with other tobaccos, much to the advantage of Tuxedo. It leads by a wide margin in purity and mildness."

THE world's great singers, the bright stars of grand opera, men whose voices are their fortunes, must have confidence in the tobacco they smoke, must choose a tobacco that is mild and fragrant, a tobacco that has no harmful effect on their throats.

Leading singers at the Metropolitan Opera House during the current season—Leo Slezak, Karl Jörn, Dinah Gilly, Adamo Didur, Putnam Griswold, Herbert Witherspoon—find Tuxedo the one tobacco they can smoke with thorough enjoyment and absolute safety.

Tuxedo cannot sting, bite, or irritate the delicate membranes of the mouth or throat.

Skillfully treated under the famous "Tuxedo process," Tuxedo burns slowly, and affords a cool, mild, pleasant smoke.

Leading men in every walk of life testify to the soothing, energizing, helpful influence of Tuxedo. Business men find Tuxedo restful. Authors and journalists smoke it while they write. Doctors enjoy it and recommend it. Lawyers, ministers, and others, use it regularly.

If you try Tuxedo for a month and cut out other smokes, you will find that you are getting the utmost satisfaction and enjoyment possible out of your smoking, and at the end of the month your general health will have improved.

CHAMPIONSHIP HOCKEY MATCHES IN VANCOUVER

Vancouver, Wash., March 10.—Officials of Pacific Coast Hockey League will this month stage the greatest series of games ever pulled off in professional hockey. Besides matches at Victoria for world's professional honors, an all-star team, composed of stars of the Eastern association, will come to the coast for a series of three matches with the combined Vancouver-Westminster teams. The coast team will journey to Winnipeg to play two games there with some star stars and both teams will then come direct here, playing here on March 18, in New Westminster on March 27 and here again on March 29. The new grounds are considered the best in the vicinity of the city and the traps were moved to the new location Saturday afternoon.

Angels Shut Out.
