King Assassinated on His Jubilee Day

King George of Greece, Killed in Salonika, While at Head of the Army.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
London, March 18.—King George of Greece was assassinated today at Salonika, where he was at the head of a division of the Greek army. News of his death reached Paris, Berlin, Rome and other capitals simultaneously. King George had been at Salonika since December, when the city surrendered to the Balkan forces.
Queen Olga had been in the field much of the time with King George. An attempt to assassinate the king in 1898 failed.

The heir to the throne of Greece is Crown Prince Constantine, who now is at Janina, commanding the Greek troops there.

Just 50 years ago today George was elected king by the Greek national assembly. He was a son of King Christian IX of Denmark and a brother of Queen Alexandra of England.
The Greek legation here admitted it had heard rumors of the assassination of King George, but declared no confirmation had been received. Reuters news agency, however, carried an unqualified dispatch to the effect that the king was assassinated at Salonika.
The first report of the assassination received here came in a telegraphic dispatch from Vienna.

MYSTERIOUS DEATH OF MRS. HATFIELD STIRS FOREST GROVE PEOPLE

Inquest is again postponed, awaiting analysis of stomach's contents.

BOSS COX IS INDICTED FOR BANK'S FAILURE

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Cincinnati, Ohio, March 18.—Boss George Cox and 10 other Cincinnati citizens are today facing two indictments charging them with misapplying funds of the Cincinnati Trust company, of which Cox was president. The institution closed its doors in November, 1911. A grand jury which investigated the company's affairs returned the indictment yesterday.
The men indicted with Cox were former officers and directors of the bank. This is the second investigation conducted into the bank's affairs. The first resulted in the indictment of Nathaniel Keith, the secretary, and F. R. Williams, the treasurer. If Cox and his associates are convicted, each will be subject to a fine of $10,000 and 30 years' imprisonment.
Fortune Hunters Rush to Teslin.
(United Press Leased Wire.)
Sitka, Alaska, March 18.—Two passenger coaches full of fortune hunters, headed by Skookum Jim, left for the Teslin strike from here today over the White Pass and Yukon railway. Every hour arriving at this point is crowded with bold hunters and adventurers.

U. P. LOSES $1,266,500 FORFEIT TO SYNDICATE

(United Press Leased Wire.)
New York, March 18.—Following the refusal of the California railroad commission and the United States district court in St. Louis to recognize the Harmonizing plan, the Union Pacific underwriting syndicate is in possession today of $1,266,500 forfeit from the railroad because of the failure of the plan.
The forfeit represented 1 per cent of the $126,650,000 of the Southern Pacific stock which the underwriters would have been obliged to take had the plan been successful.

REAR ADMIRAL EATON DIED FROM POISON

Following the reported discovery of arsenic in his stomach, it is positively stated that Rear Admiral Joseph Giles Eaton either committed suicide or was murdered at his home in Norwell, Mass. Mrs. Eaton and her daughter by a former marriage were the only ones at the funeral.

WILSON FOR BUDGET; LETTER TO TILLMAN INDORSES PROPOSAL

Scheme Proposed by Taft is Given Approval of New President in Letter.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Washington, March 18.—That the budget plan of making appropriations for running Uncle Sam's affairs will be adopted by the Wilson administration is indicated today in a letter given out for publication at the White House. It was written January 20, last, by President Wilson to Senator Benjamin Tillman of South Carolina. The letter said: "I have always insisted on the absolute necessity of a carefully considered and a wisely planned budget. One of the objects I have most in mind when I get to Washington will be conferences with legislative colleagues there with a view of bringing some budget system into existence."

PARIS LIKES NEW AMBASSADOR.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Paris, March 18.—Highly favorable sentiments are being published here over the selection of William F. McCombs, campaign manager for President Wilson, as ambassador to France. The Midl declares today:
"France is to be congratulated. McCombs belongs to the race containing Woodrow Wilson and William James. He is a man of wonderful activity. We are happy that he has reconsidered his decision regarding the Paris embassy. In him, America will be ably represented."

WILSON DECLINES TO BE COLLECTOR FOR WALL STREET

United States, While He is at Head, is Not to Be Used as an Adjustment Bureau With Other Nations.

SANCTION OF CHINA LOAN SAID TO BEEN REFUSED

Bryan Also Said to Favor This Attitude Toward Six Power Loan.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Washington, March 18.—The United States government as long as President Wilson remains as its active head will not act as a collection agent in South and Central American republics for big business, or guarantee any Wall street loans to any foreign power.
Although official announcement to this effect may not be forthcoming for several days, it was learned from a private source here this afternoon that President Wilson is determined that his administration shall adopt this course from the outset.
President Wilson and his cabinet this afternoon discussed a request by J. P. Morgan & Co., Kuhn, Loeb & Co. and other financiers participating in the Six Power loan proposed to be made to China. They wanted the state department to sanction the loan so the security may be unquestioned and the return of the loan guaranteed by Chinese customs collections.
President Wilson, however, is determined. It is learned from an authoritative source, that this government shall not collect private debts or guarantee any loans and it is understood Secretary of State Bryan strongly favors such an attitude. Immediately after Wilson's inauguration, representatives of certain financiers tried to secure Bryan's indorsement of the loan plan, saying it was favored by former Secretary of State Knox. Bryan gave these emissaries no satisfaction.
It is understood the cabinet discussed the advisability of recognizing the new Chinese republic headed by President Yuan Shi Kai.

STUDENTS, ON STRIKE, PLACE A PICKET LINE AROUND HIGH SCHOOL

Police Are Called Out at Centralia, Wash., but So Far No Clash Results.

(Special to The Journal.)
Centralia, Wash., March 18.—This morning education was at a standstill in Centralia as far as the high school is concerned. Striking students placed pickets at the building and 25 strikers, whose parents ordered them to return to school this morning, were prevented from entering the building. Of the 14 who stayed in school yesterday six deserted this morning and joined the ranks of the strikers.
Fearing that the big crowd or students that congregated around the building this morning would attempt to damage property a call was sent for the police, but the strikers remained orderly and no arrests were made.
A petition was placed in circulation among the parents of the strikers asking that the demands of the students be granted, and from the number of signatures secured at noon, it is apparent that the general public is in sympathy with the students.
The trouble started yesterday when 250 pupils went out on strike because

MUNICIPAL RESEARCH BUREAU PLAN IS NOW FORMALLY LAUNCHED

Decide to Study, Efficiency Needs, After Conference With Mayor at City Hall.

(Special to The Journal.)
Albany, O., March 18.—The case of Oregon vs. Ralph Henry, of Newport, charged with murder in the first degree for the killing of George Dodd at Corvallis, last October, which has been on trial in the circuit court here for the past six days, will be given to the jury this evening, the introduction of testimony having been completed yesterday afternoon when the defense rested its case at 5:30 o'clock.
The argument for the state was begun last evening by Deputy District Attorney Dan Johnson, who finished the argument at 10:30 o'clock this morning. He was followed by Judge W. S. McFadden, of Corvallis, who opened the argument for the defense.
Ralph Henry, the defendant, was placed on the stand yesterday afternoon and with tears filling his eyes and his huge frame quivering with emotion, he related his charges of how George Dodd had broken up his home and brought shame and disgrace upon him and the members of his family.
Henry testified that even after his wife had taken their youngest son, Robert, and followed George Dodd to Corvallis, where the latter was employed in the construction work on the new bridge which spans the Willamette river at that place, he was willing to forgive her and went to Corvallis the day before the homicide occurred, and effected a reconciliation with her, intending to take her and the children and leave Oregon

CHANGE OF NAME OF SEVENTH ST. NOW IS OPPOSED

East Siders Will Fight Plan Altering Name of Thoroughfare to Broadway, According to M. G. Munly.

CLAIM CONFUSION IN NAME WILL RESULT

Strenuous Objection to Making of "East Broadway" on East Side Raised.

Action of the city council last Wednesday in changing the name of Seventh street to Broadway without at the same time either changing Broadway on the east side to "East Broadway," or devising a new numbering system for the important thoroughfare linked by the beautiful new Broadway bridge has resulted in a confusing tangle that has embarrassed the federal postoffice authorities in its plans.
The city engineer, as soon as Mayor Rushlight had signed the emergency ordinance renaming Seventh street, got busy and as a consequence, the "Seventh" street signs have been replaced by brand new blue and white plates containing the name "Broadway."
Here is where the confusion comes in. The new Broadway is numbered both ways from Ankeny street. From Ankeny street to the bridge it is proposed to add the suffix "North" to the numbers. Thus far all is simple. But from Ankeny street west to the hills the name of the street would have no distinguishing prefix or suffix, according to present plans.
Will Oppose Change.
This might not lead to any trouble if the people on the east side of the river were willing to have the old Broadway renamed "East Broadway," as is provided in the ordinance now before the street committee of the city council.
It happens, however, that east siders are opposed to any change in the name of the original "Broadway." Judge M. G. Munly, president of the North East Side Improvement association, visited the city hall today and while there, he made plain that the residents of the old Broadway will oppose the plan to change the name to East Broadway.
Will Fight Plan.
"We don't want our Broadway named by any other name," said Mr. Munly today, "and we propose to fight any attempt to change this name. The confusion in the numbering system can be obviated by the adoption of a plan of renumbering the entire street, beginning at its extremity under the west side hills and extending across the Broadway bridge to the eastern limits of the thoroughfare. Broadway is the pivotal street of the city and there is no necessity for splitting the street up into three sections for the sake of retaining the present numbering system."

HENRY TELLS HOW HE SLEW MAN HE SAYS BROKE UP HIS HOME

Shot Just in Time as Wife's Admirer Was Pulling Gun, He Testifies.

LARGE RIVER STEAMER HITS SNAG AND SINKS; PASSENGERS RESCUED

Heavy Losses Occasioned by Wrecks on Coos North Fork and Siuslaw.

(Special to The Journal.)
Marshfield, Or., March 18.—The steamer Rainbow, a big passenger and freight boat running between Marshfield and Allegany on the north fork of Coos river, struck a snag last night near the head of navigation and sank in shallow water.
As there is an upper deck on the boat the passengers were in no danger. They were removed by a gasoline launch and taken to Allegany. Until the Rainbow is raised it will be impossible to ascertain the extent of the damage.
The boat is the largest of the river craft and was built last year especially to handle the auto travel on the Allegany-Drain auto line.
Marshfield, Or., March 18.—The barge Nebalem, loaded with coal from Coos Bay, and towed by the tug Roscoe, went on the spit at the mouth of the Siuslaw river last night. Five hundred tons of coal was lost from the barge on the bar of the river.
The tug safely crossed in over the bar while the barge was driven on the sand. The Nebalem has been used by Portia Bros., contractors on the Willamette Pacific Railroad construction work. She had just been repaired at the shipyard in North Bend. She may be saved.

MRS. STARKWEATHER DIES AT PENDLETON

(Special to The Journal.)
Pendleton, Or., March 18.—Mrs. Theresa M. Starkweather, a prominent Pendleton woman, died at midnight last night in St. Anthony's hospital. She had recently suffered from a severe attack of pneumonia, but recovered. However, the attack left her nervous system broken and she gradually became weaker until death ensued.
Mrs. Starkweather had resided in Pendleton for over two score years. She is survived by four daughters and a son—Mrs. W. J. Furnish of Portland, Mrs. F. W. Vincent of Pendleton, Mrs. Elizabeth Field of Seattle, Mrs. Harry Reese of Pendleton and Robert Starkweather of North Powder.
Mrs. Starkweather began sinking yesterday, and Mrs. Furnish, accompanied by her daughter, Katherine, and Brother Robert Starkweather, who was in Pendleton on business, arrived at last night's train, but got here several hours after Mrs. Starkweather had passed away.
The funeral will be held here tomorrow afternoon.
