

MONKEYS RECEIVE BENEFIT OF NEW TURTLE SERUM

Tests Are Made by Government Experts of Dr. Friedmann's Treatment; Doctor Gives Culture to U. S.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Washington, March 21.—Six of Uncle Sam's expert bacteriologists today are putting the "acid test" to Dr. Frederick Franz Friedmann's tuberculosis cure. Under their observation millions of the bacilli are propagating. Just outside the government's big laboratory here scores of monkeys, suffering from tuberculosis in its various stages, are blinking in the sun, and every conceivable test will first be made on these. Then, if it is successful, tubercular patients in Uncle Sam's various hospitals will be inoculated. Surgeon General Blue is personally watching the tests. Dr. Friedmann gave the government experts about a gill of the culture. It was brought here from New York in a hermetically sealed tube. The culture constitutes a darkish fluid. From it millions of new bacilli are being propagated and their effect noted on various chemical media, like beef bouillon and gelatine. The experts are studying whether the bacteria will attack or refuse to attack them. Assistant Surgeon General Rucker explained the cultures should show reactions similar to tuberculosis bacilli. He says it is possible from the cultures furnished the government by Dr. Friedmann to propagate enough bacteria to supply the world.

JAPANESE EPISCOPAL RECTOR IS GUEST HERE

Rev. P. C. Datto, rector of St. John's Episcopal church, Portland, today is a guest in the city today of Bishop Scadding and is stopping at the Imperial hotel. He is in the United States for the purpose of making a year's tour to create interest in the Episcopal missions in Japan. He arrived in San Francisco on February 25, and left yesterday for Seattle. Rev. Mr. Datto has been in charge of the Tokio church for eight years. He received his education and degrees at Philadelphia, following a course of study at St. Paul's college in Tokio. Born of a banker's parents, he was converted at the age of 15 years, by an Episcopal missionary at Tokio, and immediately after entered the Tokio educational institution. On graduating from there he came to the United States to complete his studies. He was a speaker yesterday afternoon at St. Stephen's pro-cathedral, where he lectured on the missionary situation in Japan. He stated that there are 16,000 members of the Episcopal church in Japan.

PLAN IMPROVEMENT OF WESTERN AVENUE

For the improvement of East Sixtieth street, often known as West Avenue, property owners along the street organized the Sixtieth Street Betterment club last Saturday, with R. W. Jones as president and Clinton B. Smith as secretary-treasurer. The club adopted the Norway maple and the Madama Caroline Tentour rose as the uniform tree and bush, to be planted in a row down the middle of the parking strip, two trees and 12 bushes being planted to every 50 foot lot. The announcement was made that the club has secured special prices from a Portland seed company of 66 cents for each tree and $2.25 a dozen for the rose bushes. "If you do not live on Sixtieth street, you should not plant roses now," reads a communication sent to property owners living elsewhere. "Non-residents should plant trees only. If you live out of town, write or telephone to the secretary and he will see that good stock is secured and will direct the planting free of charge for you. Mention your block and lot number when writing." Secretary Smith's address is 646 East Sixtieth street north. His office telephones are A-6571 and Marshall 892; his residence telephone is C-1738.

The Best of All Have you a cough? If you have do not forget that Rum and Pine is the best of all remedies for a cough, or for soreness in the chest. It cures, while other remedies merely think about it. See the bottle, at the Clemenson Drug Co., Front, and Morrison streets.

ALL YALE WEEPS FOR RESTAURANT QUEEN

Dear Editor: In me you see a student bowed in gloom, my spirits are at low degree, my life has lost its bloom; the buckwheats now are flat and stale, the coffee's turning gray, the milk is sour, the soup is pale—Naomi's gone away. Could you have seen her queenly poise as modestly she'd wait to clear away without a noise each banqueted plate, you would, I know, have loved her too, to see was to adore, but

Naomi Campbell, New Haven waitress, who eloped with George Stearns, a freshman. She was known as the "Restaurant Queen."

One thing I've heard, and if it's true it brings unholy joy, they say his pop is very blue and won't receive his boy. They're trying hard, the papers say, to make him reconciled, but papa isn't built that way when once he's truly riled. Oh, sweet Naomi Campbell Stearns you've broken all our hearts, you've stirred a fire that sears and burns, you've busted cupid's darts, you're left a trail of grief and pain that long will live, forsooth. So, Editor, I now remain, A LOVELESS COLLEGE YOUTH.

now all Yale is drear and blue—Naomi is no more! George Stearns, a "Dauntless Durham" bloke, one day meandered in, and sat amongst the other folk amidst the crash and din, and as Naomi wandered by I saw him start and stare with admiration in his eye, for she was passing fair. I noticed, too, that when she came to ask him what he'd eat her dimpled cheeks burst into flame—oh, my, but she looked sweet. I saw her fair hands tremble, too, her voice took on the shakes in calling forth, "One dark, fry two, rush them three butter cakes." Then day by day in anguish deep, I watched them smile and smirk. I couldn't eat, I couldn't sleep, I couldn't think or work, and then at last the climax came, against which I had hoped; they told me she had changed her name—Naomi had eloped! Like Desperate Desmond, whom you know, I cursed, and raved, and wept. You may't believe it, but it's true, I never since have slept. In far Wyoming, so they say, although I do not care, with George's father they will stay, for he's a millionaire.

Oregon representative of the congress, has been asked to recommend two suitable men. The commission will leave America April 26 on the steamer Saxonia, and will be in Europe 90 days. An examination of methods employed in production and marketing in progressive agricultural communities will be included in the inquiry. No Cruisers for Guaymas. (United Press Leased Wire.) Washington, March 21.—Official de-

ASKED TO RECOMMEND TWO COMMISSIONERS

The late legislature appropriated $2400 to pay the expenses of two delegates to represent this state in a commission composed of two members from every state and of delegates from the Canadian provinces which is to journey to Europe to investigate the rural credit system, and in a letter from James H. Brady, president of the Transmississippi Commercial congress, John D. Coleman, nal was made today at the navy department of reports that the cruisers Maryland and California would sail from San Francisco to Guaymas, Mex. Acting Secretary Roosevelt insisted that the warships have only been dispatched to San Diego to await orders, and asserted that no vessels would go to Guaymas for at least a month. The French government plans to spend more than $23,000,000 in improving the harbor of Rouen and the channel of the River Seine.

WAGE INVESTIGATORS START FOR WASHINGTON (United Press Leased Wire.) Springfield, Ill., March 20.—Lieutenant Governor O'Hara and the other members of the state senate "starvation wage" committee will go to Washington this afternoon to consult with President Wilson regarding a conference of governors to discuss minimum wage legislation for women. The wage investigators, armed with statistics showing the close relation between starvation wages and the white slave traffic, left for Chicago at noon and at 5:30 o'clock this afternoon will leave for the east. The first stop of the committee will be at Harrisburg, Pa., where they will meet with Governor John K. Tener. Friday night the investigators will go to Washington, to meet with President Wilson Saturday afternoon.

PLANS PERFECTED FOR EASTER EGG HUNT

Fifty thousand brightly colored Easter eggs hidden among the vines and shrubs and in the grass of the parks of the city give promise of making glad the hearts of 10,000 miniature beaux and belles of Portland next Monday afternoon, for that is the day set for Portland's first Easter egg hunt. Especially jubilant will be the kiddies who succeed in finding the greatest number of eggs in each park, for each one finding the greatest number will receive a white rabbit, perky-eared, pink-eyed and all. Beside the hunt there will be numerous contests, and the prizes for these will be candy chicks and rabbits. The rabbits have been donated by the Routledge Seed and Floral company and the candy eggs and chicks by the Hazelwood Confectionery company. By a special dispensation the children of the public schools up to and including the fifth grade, will be dismissed for the festivities. Contributions of eggs are earnestly solicited, any number, no matter how small or how large, will be thankfully received by the committee. All eggs must be left at the following stations by noon Monday: Eggs for Washington park at the Woodard & Clark store; eggs for Brooklyn park at Rowe & Martin's; eggs for Sellwood park at Routledge Seed & Floral company; eggs for Mt. Tabor park at W. H. Markell & Co., Union avenue and East Morrison, or Tabor Heights Pharmacy, East Sixty-ninth and Belmont streets; eggs for Columbia park at Ketchum's store, Lombard and Hodre streets or Mann's grocery, corner Hassalo and Grand avenue; eggs for Peninsula park at Castleman Pharmacy, Killingsworth avenue and Albina street, or Albina branch People's Institute, 73 Russell street. All eggs must be hard boiled and as many should be colored as possible. The committee requests that only egg dyes be used, as others are apt to be injurious. Children have the privilege of going to any park they like and entering the contests regardless of their school or their place of residence.

- The Journal herewith presents the list of winners of special awards for Bargain Day, 1913, which closed last month.
