GUESTS IN THE CITY

Twenty-five Members of Economic School on Educational Trip.

Twenty-five members of the economic school of Oregon Agricultural college are in Portland today visiting various industries and commercial houses of the city. The faculty of the economic school are with the party.

This morning the first stop was at The Journal building, where the news-paper plant was thoroughly inspected. While there, the students were introduced to Wallis Nash, editorial writer for The Journal, who was a member of the board of regents of Oregon Agricultural college during the first 10 years of its existence. Mr. Nash was one who laid out the plan of the school and the general course of study which is pursued by the school today.

In a short talk, Mr. Nash said that the school today represents the evolution that farming science has undergone in the last few years. He outlined how the elementary principles of farming were followed almost exclusively by the first students of the school, and showed the development and wide scope of study the school has undergone and acquired for its present day standing.

He told the students that they repr sent the legislature and that that body holds them entirely responsible in the showing of the value of the school to afterward the students visited the Ladd & Tilton bank, the Olds, Wortman & King, Lipman & Wolfe and Meler & Frank stores, Honeyman's and Marshall-Wells hardware establishments, and the Oregonian and Telegram. Before going lunch they visited clearing house headquarters.

They were entertained at luncheon at the Commercial club by C. S. Jackson. This afternoon they visited the automo bille show. The special car to take them back to Corvallis leaves at 6 o'clock.

CITY ANALYSIS IS NON-POLITICAL IN ALL PARTICULARS

(Continued From Page One.) have just finished a similar work in Springfield Mass. I do not know what party is in power there, because I did not inquire. It was not part of my business. It is my duty here to find what are the facts about the way the work of the city is done. I am to do my work without interference, and to report on what I find, nothing more," W. B. Ayer, chairman of the Portland research committee, and one of the city's most respected citizens, made denial of the rumors as transmitted by

Mr. Holton, even more vigorously. The assertions made to Mr. Holton are so ridiculous as to scarcely need contradiction," said he. "The formation of the committee was so spontaneous growing out of the largely attended diner at the Commercial club, that any honest person should be satisfied politics has had no hand in this matter

"So far as I know, Mr. Jackson of would accept no office for ourselves. We shall let no fear of criticism or false report deter us from the duties assigned to us. I am sure the same may be said of all the other members of the committee. The desire is purely one for the benefit of the city as a If ever there was a disinterested piece of work it is the research work commenced by the New York bureau of municipal research.

Must Learn Pacts. "It is the duty of the bureau to ascertain facts, and only facts, and to present these facts to the public, regardless of whom they affect.

"The statements that the work has political motive are only such as might be expected from anyone interested to shut off investigation. It is perfectly clear that one or more interests are beginning to squirm, and probably before the survey is complete other false misleading statements will be made, but no matter what may be said. or what rumers may be circulated, the committee will continue to do its work without fear or favor."

Mr. Holton worked yesterday afternoon and this morning in the office of city engineer. C. A. McKenzie, who has been working in the auditor's office, was authorized to continue work of learning sources of municipal income in the office of the county assessor. While the city makes the levy for taxing purposes, it has no part In the collection of taxes.

Conditions in the County Jail.

Orders were issued by the mayor's office this morning to Chief of Police Slover, instructing the chief to investi-gate a complaint that gambling has been permitted at the county jail. The complainant is C. B. Nuttin, a youth of 18, who was arrested here last week for breaking a parole, Nuttin was an in-mate of the state reform school. He was taken to the county jail for safe keeping until he could be sent to the reform school in company with a poice sergeant.

Nuttin told the police officer who ompanied him to Salem last Monday that the "kangaroo court" at the county jail had first taken $1.50 away from him to purchase tobacco for the members of the court. The inmates of the fail then inveigled Nuttin, according to his story, into a poker game, in which they separated him from $5 more. The chips and cards used in the game are said to have been confiscated, in a recent raid made by the sheriff.

"If I find that gambling has been permitted in the county jail," said Chief of Police Slover, "I will do my duty and enforce the law, no matter whom I have to arrest."

MINIMUM VERDICTS NOT SATISFACTORY

A verdict for $1 damages was returned last night by a jury in Circuit Judge Gatens' court in favor of Julius Dether, against the Spady Manufacturing com pany. Dether asked $7500 damages or ccount of the loss of a finger and in-Davis and Farrell, who represented Dether, are not content with their share, which will amount to but about 50 cents, and will appeal the case. The verdict did not carry costs, which each side must pay.

A new trial was granted yesterday in Southern Pacific company in which a similar verdict was returned several weeks ago. Judge Davis granted the weeks ago. Judge Davis granted the new trial because F. A. Taylor, one of the jurymen, falled to tell that he had worked for a news agency on trains for worked for a news agency on trains for 15 years. Judge Davis held that while Taylor had not been asked directly about this employment, Taylor should have told it when asked if he had ever had any business connected with a railroad

ASSERTS LEGISLATURE UNJUSTLY CRITICISED

"The legislature has been unjustly criticised, but the fact remains that the recent session enacted more constructive legislation than any other session in the state's history." This was the statement of C. N. Mc-

Arthur, speaker of the house of representatives at the recent session of the legislature, yesterday at the regular weekly luncheon of the Credit Men's association. Mr. McArthur explained in detail the provisions of the constitutional amendments submitted to the people have no political aspirations and the "blue sky" law, the workingmen's compensation act, the county bonding and highway acts and others.

Mr. McArthur made a plea for the adoption of the amendment lengthening the legislative session to 60 days, the amendment enabling cities of more than 100,000 people to consolidate their city and county governments, and the amendment permitting adjacent cities to be merged into one.

They are accused of the murder of Lum Fong, also known as Lam Foon, in his store at Second and Oak streets on March 16. Louie Hing and Huey Tung, it is said, were positively identified by Seid Jan, Lung Hin Mun, Chin Sing and Jue Foo as the men who fired the shots which killed Lun Fong, Fong Gee Lung, the San Francisco gunman, was identified as having stood watch outside the door of the store with a revolver in his hand while the other two did the shooting. Lew Soon is connected with the murder as yet only by the fact that he visited the store under suspicious circumstances just before the murder

Among the witnesses before the grand jury was B. S. Pague, an attorney, whose testimony is expected to be vital. Shortly after the shooting Harry Gong is said to have visited Pague at his home in a taxicab. #### EASTER BONNETS BEWARE! RAIN OR SNOW, FORECAST is another low pressure area, These low pressure areas, which amount, roughly speaking, to big holes in the air, are responsible for all the trouble. To equalize the air pressure wind comes pouring down hill like so much water flowing to a pool, to fill up the hole. As the low pressure area coming out of the Pacific, which will soon be passing over Portland, is to the west, the winds here are flowing into it from the east. Hence the chilly east wind that has set Portland a-shivering for the ast few days.

Process Slow One. The "filling up" process is likely to be rather a slow one, according to Mr. Drake, for with its center over the Ohio iver valley, there is an extensive high ressure field which is blocking the progress inland of the Pacific coast "low." Accordingly, the unsettled weather.

With another "high" up in Alaska, there is just a chance that it may become deflected this way and bring fair weather with it in a day or so, but it's rather a remote chance. The weather maps show that most of this high pressure is running off on the eastern side of the Rocky mountains. Therefore weather conditions in the northwest may be expected to remain unsettled for three or four days,

This, however, is not made as a positive forecast, for the weather man in the Pacific northwest knows the danger of being too positive. Forecasting here is a presty hard matter at times, because of the impossibility of getting advance reports on weather conditions out in the Pacific. Something unex-pected in the weather line is likely to blow ashore at any time.

It was generally warmer last night and teday throughout the northwest, perature was 32, and at Seattle 36. For awhile yesterday the thermometer reg-istered as high as 40 degrees, and it may go higher today. Approximately one-tenth of an inch of snow fell last night, according to the today and is reported to have told them official government records. In the that Eaton habitually ate arsenic and suburbs and on the hills above the city, ed to half an inch.

Addresses California Legislature on Capital Punishment.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Sacramento, Cal., March 22,—Whether or not Clarence Durrow, under indictment for jury bribing, was a proper person to address a legislative committee in the chamber of the senate was few hours before Darrow began a notable address in a hearing of the ju-diciary committee here Friday night. When the question of a speech on capital punishment by Darrow broached, the question was raised by

Los Angeles members. Shortly before he spoke Darrow was walking toward the capitol. Governor Johnson apporached from the opposite direction. When Johnson saw Darrow. he hurried forward, with hand outstretched. "Hello, Darrow!" he said. to see you. How are you?" "Hello, governor," said Thanks: I'm feeling fine." -No further question as to the propriety of Darrow speaking was raised.

In his speech Darrow said: "I am not going to talk sentiment, Those who do not believe in capital punishment do not need it; and those who do, cannot be reached by it. "The world has never yet known what crime is, though it has been defined a million times by lawmakers. "In olden times, when men had the courage of their convictions (we haven't), they punished men by boiling them in oil—doubtless as a 'deterrent' that was of great benefit to the community.

"Why shouldn't this legislature substitute boiling in oil for hanging. If t's torture you want, and fear you're after, why not make the death as horrible as possible? "Fear never makes children better.

It never makes men better. The only force that helps man is not punishment, but the law of love." A canvass of both houses of the legisature today, following the public hearing in the senate last night, at which Clarence Darrow spoke, indicated the certain passage of bills abolishing capital punishment. That the assembly will vote almost unanimously to abolish the death pen-

American Woman in Constantinople Says British Guns All That Save Christians.

(United Press Lessed Wire.)
Milwaukee, March 22.—Four British gunboats, anchored in the Dardanelles, alone have prevented a massacre of Christians in Constantinople, according mittee in the chamber of the senate was to the declaration of Mrs. John Allen, very definitely decided for the legisla- wife of an American engineer, in a letter ture by Governor Johnson himself a to a Milwaukee relative. Writing from the Ottoman capital, Mrs. Allen said:
"The situation is gradually growing worse. The government has commandeered all ferryboats, using them to transport soldiers from Asia Minor. Every horse is pressed into service at the front and it is almost impossible for one to leave the city. "Talk of a massacre is heard on all sides. The Arabs say they were from-ised much loot if they enlisted, and the Turkish officers are restraining them with great difficulty, "All night long the British gunboats sweep the city with their searchlights. They are on the lookout for trouble at any hour and, but for their presence, the streets of Constantinople would run red with the blood of Christians,

"To make things worse, food supplies are low. I don't believe the city can hold out against the serious famine conditions more than two months."
