Coroner's Jury Holding Inquest Upon Death of Mrs. O. J. Anderson.

FASI' IKFA

Scattle, March 25.-A coroner's inquest is being held to investigate the death of Mrs. Ida J. Anderson of Stanwood, Wash., who, according to her husband, H. C. Anderson, died from starvation while under the treatment of Dr.

Linda B. Hagzard, the fast specialist. Mrs. Anderson had been under Df. Hazzard's care for 14 days, living at the Releigh hotel, where Dr. Hazzard put morning, two hours after calling Miss June Oakes, a graduate nurse.

A post-mortem examination by Louis Rubenstein, a chemist, showed a large amount of alum in her stomach, and Coroner J. Tate Maston stated that death may have resulted from starva-tion and neglect.

Dr. Hazzard is now under a maninghter conviction for the death of tions several men were recently Miss Claire Williamson and the case is victed of obtaining money on false preon appeal in the supreme court. A point interesting to fraternal or ganizations was decided by Circuit Judge Kavannugh when he overruled a demurrer to the indiciment of G. E. M. Somerville, A. J. Court, J. H. Wheeler and J. D. Johnson, who are charged with unlawfully organizing a fraternal organization. The demurser was based on allegations that no crime was set forth in the facts recited in the indictand that legislation protecting ment, fraternal organizations is unconstitutional.

morning when Acting Postmaster Shellenbarger answered a query from the postoffice department requesting an estimate on the number of postal clerks the main office will require 10 years The request was made so that architects in making preliminary plans for the building might have something to work on. There are at present 193 employes in the main office. That is an increase of 338 per cent over the amount of help 10 years ago. Basing his figure on the supposition that the increase will be the same 10 years hence, he informed the department that Portland will probably have 650 clerks working, in the main office in 1923. The new postoffice will mean the doing away of Station E at Third and Glisan, which really handled the overflow from the main office.
