Some Eastern Viewpoint Is to Be Brought West and Incidentally Western Ideas Are to Jar Brockton, Mass.

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.) Salem, Or., March 28.—To exchange Oregon teachers with Massachusetts teachers for a year is the latest move on the part of State School Superintendent L. R. MASSACHUSETTS AND OREGON TO TRADE TEACHERS

Some Eastern Viewpoint Is to Be Brought West and Incidentally Western Ideas Are to Jar Brockton, Mass.

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.) Salem, Or., March 28.—To exchange Oregon teachers with Massachusetts teachers for a year is the latest move on the part of State School Superintendent L. R. Alderman in carrying the ideas of the west to the east and in giving the state the benefit of the viewpoint of the eastern pedagogues.

While in Brockton, Mass., recently Mr. Alderman made arrangements with the city school superintendent to exchange teachers for a year, some high school teachers and some in the grammar grades.

"This will give some Oregon teachers an opportunity to live in New England for a year," said Mr. Alderman, "and to come into close touch with this great center of intellectual activity. It will give Massachusetts teachers a chance to visit the west, and will give them the inspiration that may be had here.

"This year the plan can be tried only to a limited extent. The salaries paid are nearly the same. The understanding, of course, is that the positions will be kept for the teachers in their home states for the following year. "The teachers selected to go from Oregon will not go as applicants for positions there, but will go as representatives of this state and it ought to mean much to them."

CLERK TAKES BOOKS TO MRS. EVANS TO REGISTER

For the purpose of giving Mrs. Mary Kennon Evans, 89 years old, mother of Brigadier General Robert K. Evans of the United States army, now in charge of the department of the gulf, an opportunity to register without coming to the registration office in the courthouse, Deputy Clerk Gregory went to her apartment at the Virginia-Hill, 245 Fourteenth street, yesterday afternoon.

Ms. Evans has been an invalid for years and unable to leave her room except in a wheel chair. Mrs. Frederick Egger and other friends who knew that Mrs. Evans wanted to register, made the necessary arrangements.

When she was asked what her party affiliations were Mrs. Evans hesitated a moment, then gave it as Republican, but added that she was a follower of Roosevelt.

As the voting booth in the precinct in which Mrs. Evans resides is across the street from her home, it will be only necessary to wheel her into the booth on the day of the primaries.

Mrs. Evans was born in Alabama, her people being among the most prominent in the south. She has lived in Portland for eight years. Before then she lived with her son at the Vancouver barracks, for four years, where he was adjutant general.

One result of an evangelical campaign in Bloomsburg, Pa., has been the payment of a number of long standing bills.

FREE PHONE CALLS FROM SUBURB TO THE CITY MAY END

Pacific Line Asks Permission to Make Five Cent Charge to Milwaukie and to Readjust Rates There.

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.) Salem, Or., March 28.—Free telephone service between Milwaukie and Portland will soon be a thing of the past, if the state railroad commission grants the request made today by W. J. Phillips, division superintendent of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company.

Superintendent Phillips estimates that half the telephone calls between Milwaukie and Portland are for the purpose of gossip, and he thinks a 5 cent charge will very largely eliminate the gossip.

He says there are now more than 600 calls a day between the two places, and estimates there will not be over 200 if a charge is made. The Pacific Telephone company purchased the Milwaukie telephone system the first of this year, and is also asking for permission to make a general readjustment of the rates in force at Milwaukie.

A general hearing on telephone rates and other matters is being held by the railroad commission today. The telephone company is asking to be allowed to cancel a lot of old contracts that were in effect before the public utilities law went into force and under which the rates are lower than the company is now charging new subscribers.

SAIN MAY LEASE ALKALI LAKE, TOO

Joseph Gaston of Portland and Others Are Said to Have Prior Rights.

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.) Salem, Or., March 28.—C. M. Sain, manager of the company which has a lease with the state for extracting the salt properties from Summer and Albert lakes in Lake county, is here, investigating the probability of obtaining a lease on Alkali lake, which is said to have greater salt deposits than either of the other two lakes.

It is said that Joseph Gaston of Portland and others have certain rights to this lake, and that Sain's company is trying to buy those rights. Gaston is the author of the Centennial history of Oregon, recently published.

Among the politicians in New York city the opinion is gaining ground that if District Attorney Whitman meets with continued success in his prosecution of the police "graft" cases he is pretty sure to be nominated for mayor next fall.
