WITH ONE SERIES SALTED AWAY, PORTLAND AWAITS OAKLAND CHAMPIONS COLUMBIA BEAVERS TAKE FIRST SERIES FROM FRISCO

Hi West Pitches Beautiful Ball but Loses 12 Inning Game in Morning.

San Francisco, April 7 .- Portland took the opening series from the San Francisco club of the Coast league, four games to two, by winning the contest yesterday afternoon. The Beavers lost a 12 inning game in the morning, 1 to being unable to hit behind Hi West. who pitched a beautiful game.

A crowd of some 14,000 people wit-nessed the afternoon game, but they did not have a chance to make a cheer. The Beavers were right on top of Cack Henley and he retired under a shower of runs. Fitzgerald, Lindsay and Fish-er made home runs off Henley and put the Seals completely up in the air. Manager Howard used 14 men in the afternoon game and tried hard to win being shut out. Starting .tomorrow the Beavers will play a seven game series with the Oakland club here, while the Seals will go to Los Angeles to take Happy Hogan's club on for seven games.

The Portland Baseball Boosters' club has secured these prizes to present to the young ladles who sell the greatest number of mem-ship cards next Wednesday. Fifty young ladies are wanted to sell the membership cards and sell the membership cards and buttons, and can secure informa-tion as to how to win the prizes by calling on Mrs. Ray Bark-hurst, 171 Broadway street, or telephone Marshall 5600. The sil-ver mesh bag was presented by E. A. Jaeger of Jaeger Bros., and the umbrella by Charles Berg of Lennons. The watch will be given by the Boosters' club.

"Cyclone" Calhoun is stepping out of his class to meet Heffernen of the Columbus club, but expects to win inside of the three rounds. MUCH FOR MEDFORD

Nick Williams' Team Wil Start on Northern Valley Trip Tomorrow.

Medford, Or., April 7 .- The Colts played the Medford team yesterday, the 13. latter being reinforced by a Portland battery, and won 8 to 7. Eastley and Fitchner pitched for the regulars with Harris and Murray receiving, while Martineni and Girot worked for Medford with Bliss catching their offerings. The game was rather ragged and not up to the standard the Colts expect to show. With five runs to the good, hits and walks combined with an error or two let the Medfords even up the score in the eighth. Then the Portland club got the necessary run.

The game was good practice for the boys, however, and served to show them that no matter what team they are playing against, the game is never won till the last inning is played.

Today's practice will end the Colts' very hospitably treated. They will take the Tuesday morning train for Grants Pass, where a formidable array of baseball talent is awaiting them. Wheeler Osborne, the star Penaleton pitcher, refuses to leave for Pendleton until he endeavors to scalp the Colts.
