

EVENTS IN SOCIETY

Miss Marie Zimmerman, whose engagement to Charles Austin Perovost is announced.

the younger set of that fashionable suburb.

The "J. U. G." club consists of 12 young girls who for several years have given an annual hop, and turned over the proceeds to some needy family. Many beautiful gowns were in evidence at the dance. The grand march was led by Miss Esther Zimmerman and Ralph L. Wittenberg.

The members of the club are: Esther Zimmerman, Serita Lind, Gladys Searth, Tirzah McMillan, Myrtle Brit, Gladys Connolly, Helen Wegmann, Esther Ruden, Helen Weiland, Ruth Cushing, Ruth Cooper, Helen Wastell and Helen Zimmerman.

The chaperones were Mrs. Zimmerman, Mrs. Brit, Mrs. Wegmann, Mrs. Wiegand and Mrs. Searth.

Miss Gretchen Klotzner and Miss V. Ona, Quinlan, presided at one of the most delightful affairs of the week Tuesday evening when they asked about sixty couples to enjoy a dancing party at the Portland Heights club.

Miss Mary Belle Estes left Saturday for San Francisco from where she will sail on the fifteenth for Honolulu, to be married to Harry Leonard Wheeler Shaw. Miss Estes will be much missed here, as she has hosts of friends. She is the daughter of the late Levi Estes and sister of Mrs. Amy Estes von Rhein, Harry F. Estes and Edward L. Estes, and aunt of Charles Estes von Rhein.

Mr. Shaw was a former Portlander but is now making his home in Honolulu.

Miss Nellie Williams, daughter of the late Mayor Williams, has postponed her wedding for the present to David L. McCarrison of England, who was to arrive by steamer at Vancouver for the wedding two weeks ago Sunday. Mr. McCarrison took the steamer and the steamer took Mr. McCarrison at least in sight of Vancouver, but some unknown fellow passenger took smallpox and for 18 days the good British ship has been off Vancouver island in quarantine. Miss Williams, who now makes her home in Victoria, has written friends in the city the news of the plight of the bridegroom and will decide the wedding date when the passengers are to be permitted to land.

At a charming party given by Miss Henrietta Rothschild Tuesday afternoon her engagement was announced to Arthur Sanders, coming as a complete surprise to her many friends. Miss Rothschild had her sewing club meet yesterday and asked about 50 additional guests to call for tea. They were greeted on arriving with little cards attached to a dainty corsage bouquet of pink sweet peas presented by Miss Laura Korall and Miss Edna Patterson, on which the names of the betrothed couple were engraved.

The wedding is to be an event of June. Miss Rothschild is the daughter of Mrs. Otto Rothschild and a charming girl and exceptionally pretty.

The house was attractively decorated for the reception. Quantities of daffodils adorned the tea-table, at which Mrs. Roy Getz and Miss Lola Sanders presided.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel May (nee Parkin), whose wedding was a recent event at the home of the bride in England, have been touring Europe for the past month, and are now in Rome. They have written friends in the city that they will sail for America April 3 and will come west after a short visit in Boston and New Haven. They will be domiciled at the Alexandra Court for the present.

Notwithstanding the advent of good weather and the insistent call to the woods, card playing among the smart set still holds full sway. While games of minor importance as "nada," "conquian" or "run," etc., are played to some extent, auction is still the game par excellence.

The recent innovations known as the high grade bids introduced by Milton C. Work, the eminent card expert, and approved by the chief leading authorities, as C. D. P. Hamilton, R. F. Foster, Miss

Miss Marie Zimmerman, whose engagement to Charles Austin Perovost is announced.

Kate Wheelock, and others, have completely revolutionized the game and the player to whom these methods are unknown is practically an "has been." Milton C. Work, it may not be generally known, is the originator of the royal court which, since its inception in the latter part of 1911, has steadily grown in favor, and is now in use by auction bridge players the world over. Under the able direction of Miss Annie Blanche Shelby who has recently returned to Portland after an absence of several months, many of the card players of Portland are fast becoming initiated in the present mode of play, and not only do they find the game greatly enhanced in interest and attractiveness, but they enjoy the double satisfaction of being thoroughly in accord with the leading authorities of the day.

News has reached his many friends here that James R. Barbour and Mrs. Annette Barton were married in London, England, March 14. Mr. Barbour is a well known business and clubman, with hosts of friends here.

The Portland Heights club gave a dance, known as "Ma's and Pa's Dancing Party," Friday evening, April 11. Children under the age of 18 years were not admitted.

Mrs. Theodore Opsund entertained Tuesday afternoon in honor of Miss Fielda McCallum of Silverton. The house was tastefully decorated with cream roses. The afternoon was pleasantly spent playing "500." Professor Charles Swenson and Mrs. Swenson gave several numbers on the piano and violin. The card honors were awarded to Miss G. L. Wade and Mrs. George Cathey. The guests were: Mrs. Bert Jackson, Mrs. C. A. Ziegler, Mrs. Paul C. Yates, Mrs. Hammett N. Lacy, Miss Fielda McCallum, Miss Ione Lambert, Mrs. E. H. Wiggins, Mrs. Charles Swenson, Miss Mable Adams, H. D. Coale, Mrs. George Cathey.

The engagement of Miss Alice Cline and Mr. Albert Ertz was announced yesterday afternoon at a reception given by Mrs. J. R. Smith. A large number of friends were present. Miss Cline is a Rocky mountain belle, and a talented musician, and a daughter of Mrs. W. E. Cline of Denver. Mr. Ertz is a prominent business man of Portland, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. Ertz, and brother of C. W. Ertz. The wedding is to be some time in June.

Miss Verna Menefee entertained last week with six tables of cards. Miss Mary Corquinn and Miss Gladys Reed won highest points. Miss Ruth Van Waters and Miss Edna Kindred assisted. The guests included Miss Amelk Samuels, Miss Marie Michner, Miss Alma

Miss Elsie Brooks, an attractive Southern girl, who arrived yesterday for an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. George Eastman.

THE closing dance of the season for the Subscription Dancing club was given Friday night at Murlark hall. This was the most successful of all the dances in the series this season. An elaborated supper was served in the latter part of the evening. The hall was a bower of palms, potted ferns and roses. Clusters of pink ramblers, "Dorothy Perkins" were set in profusion about the platform screening the musicians and decorating the balcony and anterooms, making a striking effect in pink and green.

Many handsome costumes were worn, their bright, vivid shades contrasting in charming effect. The patronesses were: Mrs. William S. Biddle, Mrs. Henry Ladd Corbett, Mrs. Guy Webster Talbot, Mrs. David T. Honeyman, Mrs. E. C. Shewlin, Mrs. Marion F. Dolph, Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Mrs. Thomas Robertson, Mrs. Robert Wilson Forbes and Mrs. Lee Hawley Hoffman.

Mrs. Biddle wore a charming gown of mole colored charmeuse with chiffon and tulle combined, and silver lace trimming. Mrs. Corbett was charming in a gown of champagne silk in the blue and lavender shades, with dresden silk in panner effect.

Mrs. Talbot wore a handsome gown of king's blue chiffon, trimmed in fur and crystal beading.

Mrs. Honeyman was attired in coral shaded chiffon with gold lace trimming.

Mrs. E. C. Shewlin was gowned in vivid blue chiffon with crystal trimming.

Mrs. Dolph wore a chiffon gown in pastel shades of light blue and pink.

Mrs. Ladd wore a striking toilet in white lace, with diamond ornaments.

Mrs. Forbes was attired in white satin with overdress of chantilly with girdle of cherry and velvet.

Mrs. Hoffman wore a becoming gown of golden yellow charmeuse with lace trimming.

Miss Isabelle Gauld wore white satin with white chiffon overdress and touches of black about the corsage.

Miss Marjorie Hoffman, who, with Mrs. Lee Hawley Hoffman, has just returned from an extended trip abroad, wore an imported gown of lavender chiffon embroidered in gold.

Miss Cornelia Cook was gowned in dresden silk in violet tones.

Miss Cully Cook wore a charming gown of apple green chiffon over white satin with Rhinestone trimming.

Miss Genevieve Thompson wore a charming gown of white satin with over-drapes of dresden chiffon in panner effect.

Mrs. Edmund King was attired in white brocade with corsete chiffon.

Miss Anita Burns wore a becoming gown of white satin with light green chiffon overdress beaded with Rhinestones.

Mrs. Adrian S. Flemming of the Post was gowned in robin's egg blue chiffon with lace trimming.

Mrs. Donald Green wore a stunning gown of black crepe meter with cut steel trimming.

Miss Evelyn Carey was gowned attractively in "Madonna" blue chiffon with crystal beaded overdress.

Mrs. Gerald Beebe was attired in white satin with rose point trimming.

Mrs. Chester Murphy wore a charming gown of pale pink chiffon with white girdle.

Mrs. David C. Lewis wore white chiffon brocade in cut velvet with Rhinestone trimming and sash of vivid blue.

Mrs. Victor Johnson wore turquoise blue chiffon cloth with lace combined.

Mrs. Andrea Foulhoux was gowned in salmon pink charmeuse with lace and pearl trimming.

Mrs. James Dougherty was gowned in pink satin with lace overdress and beaded trimming.

Mrs. A. A. McDonald wore a becoming gown of white satin combined with green and black chiffon and trimmed with gold lace.

Mrs. Paul C. Yates entertained the Wednesday "500" club Wednesday afternoon. The parlors were decorated with red and white carnations. The guests were: Mrs. J. W. Mackenzie, Mrs. W. P. Jenkins, Mrs. Robert Jenkins, Mrs. C. C. Child, Mrs. J. H. Long, Mrs. Frank Wagner, Mrs. B. D. Stouffer, Mrs. George Weiden, Mrs. John McCue, Mrs. Frank Menefee, Mrs. A. E. Hammond, Mrs. G. L. Wade, Miss Nellie Norstad of Seattle. The honors fell to Mrs. Frank Wagner and Mrs. A. E. Hammond.

Miss Millie Wessinger surprised her guests yesterday who called for tea during the afternoon with the announcement of the engagement of Miss Romalene Wood to Henry Wessinger, her brother.

Miss Wood is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Wood of Aberdeen, Wash., and is popular in Portland society, where she has been a frequent visitor, the house guest of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Green.

She attended school in Farmington, Conn., and finished at a fashionable Paris school.

Mr. Wessinger is a popular club man and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wessinger.

Presiding at the tea table was Mrs. Carl Wernicke and Mrs. Gilbert Durham and Mrs. Frederick H. Green. Assisting were Miss Margaret Hewett, Miss Barbara MacKenzie, Miss Jean MacKenzie and Miss Clara Weider.

Delightful in every detail was the banquet and dance of the Knights Templar club at the Multnomah hotel last evening. The entire mezzanine floor of the hotel was turned over to the fashionable assemblage. The banquet was served in the east hall at 6:30 o'clock, with covers for 250 guests. The tables were laden with spring flowers and ferns. Cards were arranged in the room connecting the banquet hall and ballroom at about 20 tables, and 500 was enjoyed. Quantities of cut flowers, palms and potted plants, with festoons of smilax and asparagus fern made an attractive setting for the many handsome couples.

The patronesses were Mrs. Harold T. Hutchinson, Mrs. Franklin A. Freeman, Mrs. Charles E. Runyon, Mrs. George A. Lovejoy, Mrs. Robert S. Farrell, Mrs.

Alva Stephens, Mrs. John H. Hall, Mrs. Alexander G. Riddell, Mrs. A. W. Averill, Deodato G. Tomasini, Mrs. N. U. Carpenter and Mrs. Walter J. Holman. The reception committee was: Messrs. Deodato G. Tomasini, Joseph McClelland, Hopkin Jenkins, William E. Grace, Edward G. Crawford, E. J. Jaeger, Alexander G. Riddell, Frank McCrillis, E. L. Pettis and Charles E. Runyon. John H. Hall presided as toastmaster, and short addresses were delivered by the eminent grand commander of Oregon commandery No. 1 Hopkin Jenkins, the president of the Knights Templar club, George F. Robertson; other officers of the club, and prominent members. Mrs. Walter J. Holman responded on behalf of the ladies in a clever little talk.

A partial list of those present includes: Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Alva L. Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Archibald, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Runyon, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Skeen, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Latimer, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Finley, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph D. Mrs. Carl Liebe presided at two charming affairs in compliment to Miss Valerius Liebe, of The Dalles, who is her house guest. Thursday evening she had dinner for ten covers with the table laden with jonquils and Oregon grape. Friday afternoon she had five tables at "500." The house was attractively decked in spring flowers and ferns. Mrs. Fred Schranz and Mrs. Pearl Norman won the highest
