WEDDINGS

Wednesday evening a beautiful wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Wilhelm, when only intimate friends and relatives witnessed the marriage of Miss Emma Wilhelm to Clay C. Cary. The bride wore a beautiful dress of white crepe meteor and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. She came down the stairs with the groom, followed by the bridesmaid, her sister, Miss Anna Wilhelm, and William Carey, the groomsmen. Miss Eva Jeannit played Mendelssohn's wedding march, after which Rev. A. Krause read the wedding service. During the ceremony, music was rendered. A delightful wedding luncheon was served. The couple departed late in the evening for a trip to Spokane, after which they will be at home to their friends. Luncheon was served by Miss Helen Burkhardt, Miss Freda Jensen, Miss Minnie Poulsen and Sadie Weston.

Miss Violet M. Orchard, of Spokane, daughter of J. E. Orchard, contractor in Edmonton, Alberta, and Charles E. Bailey, formerly of Milwaukee, Wis., were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Walker, in Edmonton, the evening of April 4. The service was read by Rev. R. H. Leith, following which the rites of baptism were performed by Ola L. Walker, 7 years of age. Mr. and Mrs. Bailey will make their home at 21 Wylie avenue, Edmonton south, upon returning from a wedding trip to Portland and points on the Pacific coast, the bride's former home.

Archie Ray Cain and Field Grace Wood were married at the Highland Congregational church, Sunday, April 6. The affair was a surprise to all except the immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties, who commenced to gather shortly after the morning service. The bride's procession was led by Miss Olga Wallman, while Miss Elma Hovdegaard played the march. Rev. E. S. Bollinger, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony. The bride has a host of friends at St. Johns where her home has been for some years. Mr. Cain has been one of the best known and respected young men of the Highland church since its organization.

J. Paul Keyes and Miss Maybelle E. Grover were married at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. S. F. Grover, 1113 East Clay street, Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock by the Rev. Dr. William H. Fry, pastor of the Sunnyside M. E. Church. After a brief visit to the home of the bride at Newport, Wash., the young couple will make their home at Corvallis, Oregon.
