

BEAVERS COME BACK AGAINST SOLONS--ANDERSON GREETED BY FRIENDS

BEAVERS BREAK INTO WIN COLUMN BY 9TH ROUND PYROTECHNICS

Lindsay and Doane Come Through With Bases Bulging and Defeat Stroud.

Portland broke back into the winning column again by hopping on Belle Fitcher Stroud in the ninth inning yesterday for two runs and three hits, Walter Doane's single over short, after Bill Lindsay's sacrifice fly, chasing in the old tally. Up to that time the Senators had been leading, because the locals had been able to put over only one run on eight hits, while two infield outs gave the visitors their brace off Fitcher Stroud.

Portland tied it up in the second when Krueger doubled down the third base line and scored on Berry's single to center. Moran singled to left and went to third when Tennant biffed to right in the fourth frame. Tommy taking second when Doane threw to third to try to head Moran. Moran sprinted home when O'Rourke went out, Rodgers to Derriek.

With two out in the fourth, Derriek doubled to left, and was out trying to stretch the bingle. Lewis to O'Rourke. In the eighth Krueger beat out a hit for Tennant, and this was followed by Derriek's bingle to left. Berry tried to sacrifice, but Tennant came in fast and winged Krueger at third on a mighty close play that gave the fans a chance to roar at Umpire Hall.

After a long struggle over whether a badly soiled or a clean ball was the one that should be used by Shultz in pitching to Kores, dirt momentarily tripped him. But Kores refused to bite at bad ones and walked. Then Lindsay doubled to left after McCredie batted Empire Newhouse in calling for a new pill. That was the end of Shultz, and Wolverton hurried Stroud into the breach. Stroud filed the bases by walking Doane, but he immediately tightened up with disaster starting him in the face and whiffed Rodgers and Krueger, who fell for bad balls. Derriek drove a terrific one in the direction of Kenworthy that should be all right, but it was a base hit, but that leg athlete knocked it down, and while lying on the ground tossed it to Stark to force Doane.

Both Kores and Higginbotham pulled misplays in the eighth and ninth, but big Hig was in complete command, and the Wolves couldn't score. It looked for a spell as if the Beavers were to lose another game in which they outbit their opponents two to one, but luck suddenly turned to them in the final frame. Fisher, battling for Berry, fumbled to Stark. Higginbotham hit a tantalizer to Stroud that the pitcher couldn't handle, and it went for a bing. Gene Krapp was put in to run for him. Chabourne smashed one to Kenworthy for a boot, and Kores rolled a slow one to the same spot, beating it out and filling the bases, giving him a perfect hitting average with two blows, a sacrifice

FITCHNER'S HELP IS WOOLY IN 8TH CANTO AND VANCOUVER COPS

Ingersoll Lets Colts Down With Two Bingles and They Are Unable to Tally.

(Special to The Journal.) Vancouver, B. C., April 23.—Bert Fitcher pitched speedball after speedball at the Vancouver bunch today and until the eighth inning, when a couple of his stabblers, Murray and Williams, threw him down, the locals were unable to score. The game put Vancouver still further in the lead.

Bennett started the down fall of the Colts in the eighth inning by singling over second. Helster bunted, and Murray made a bad throw to Mober, covering first, which let Pug reach third and Helster second, but when the fourth ball to Frisk was allowed to get away from Murray, Bennett was over with the first run and Helster perched on third. Walsh grounded to Coltriss, who started a double play that nailed Frisk at second but Williams dropped Mober's relay and Helster scored.

Ingersoll held the Colts to two hits and they were not troublesome until the eighth inning when Fitcher and Hancock walked with one out, but Kippner overhauled Speas' fly and Mober forced Bancroft at second.

Krapp beat the throw home, trying the score. Comes now Doane in the pinch-hitting role. He raised a beauty high over Stark's head, and the Beavers became a factor once more in the pennant race, after dropping some seven or eight straight games.

OLD FOX IS AFTER BLOOD THIS YEAR

As manager of the Washington team the Old Fox has been a brilliant success. He has whipped what was considered a poor second division team into a championship contender and declares the season of 1913 will see the Senators in the unique role of league champions, and probably, world's champions.

EDDIE KINSELLA BACK IN PORTLAND BUT IS SITTING ON SAC BENCH

Former Beaver Pitcher Glad to Reach Pacific Coast Once More After Four Years.

Eddie Kinsella, who pitched for Portland in 1907, '8 and '9, the latter year being a member of Pearl Casey's Northwestern league team, and who was sold to the St. Louis Nationals, is sitting on the bench of the Sacramento club this week. Kinsella had good seasons under McCredie and was rated one of the best pitchers in the west. He has been with Denver the last three years. Kinsella says that he is glad to get back on the coast after a four years' absence. He looks heavier than he did when he was with Portland. Kinsella may go against his old team this week, although Manager McCredie is the only man remaining with the club since Kinsella's time. "I'm mighty glad to get back out here," said Kinsella during a lull in yesterday's game. "I was always able to fool the batters, and inasmuch as I know a whole lot more about the game and have all of the 'stuff' that I used to have on the bag, Portland and I could work like a moose and never feel it. Of course the league may be faster now, but we had some mighty good ball players here then. That Los Angeles team that beat Portland out of the pennant in 1908 was as nifty a minor league club as I have ever seen. Anyhow, you can tell my old friends that I am glad to get back."

Ed Kennedy made an auspicious start with Tacoma yesterday, when he got two hits in four times up. The big outfielder was always a good hitter.

Jack Kibble, last year the third base guardian of the Portland Colts, who finished up the season with Cleveland and was sent to New Orleans this year, is about to be displaced at third on the Pelican team by Jackey Atz or Frank Manush. Here's what a New Orleans paper says of Kibble: "Jack Kibble's record showing with the stick is something the club cannot be handicapped with. Kibble probably is doing the best he can, but his best is horrible. If Knaupp is able to get back in the game Wednesday, it is expected that Atz will be given a whirl at third base, which for the present will be a little difficult, but Jackey will do much better than the youngster there now."

SEALS OVERCOME TWO HOMERS BY SERAPHS

BUD ANDERSON GETS A ROYAL RECEPTION FROM HIS ADMIRERS

Future Lightweight Champion Met at Ainsworth Dock by Family, Band and Friends.

Looking none the worse for his 15 round encounter April 15 in Los Angeles with Kayo Brown, Bud Anderson disembarked from the Rose City at the Ainsworth dock yesterday afternoon with his brother Freddie and Manager Dick Donald, only to fall into the embraces of the entire Anderson clan from Vancouver, besides several scores of Vancouver and Portland admirers of the boy who is heralded as the coming lightweight champion of the world. The military band from Vancouver was on hand to give Bud a royal welcome and to escort him to Vancouver, where he was the guest of the Elks' show last night and will show in vaudeville, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. After visiting his folks for a few days Bud will go to Medford, and thence to Los Angeles to prepare for his fight with Joe Mandot, May 20, in the Vernon arena in a 20 round battle. That Bud will be the next lightweight champion is the firm belief of his manager, who declares that he could have licked either Murphy or Wolgast, who met Saturday at San Francisco, in big time. Anderson and Donald watched the work of the two lightweights closely and believe that Bud can hit hard and often enough to trim both of them without exerting himself much.

Men, Let Me Talk Some Cold, Common, Tobacco-Sense to You

I am a Kentuckian. I know tobacco, and I can tell you there are only two kinds of smoking—Good tobacco and Poor tobacco.

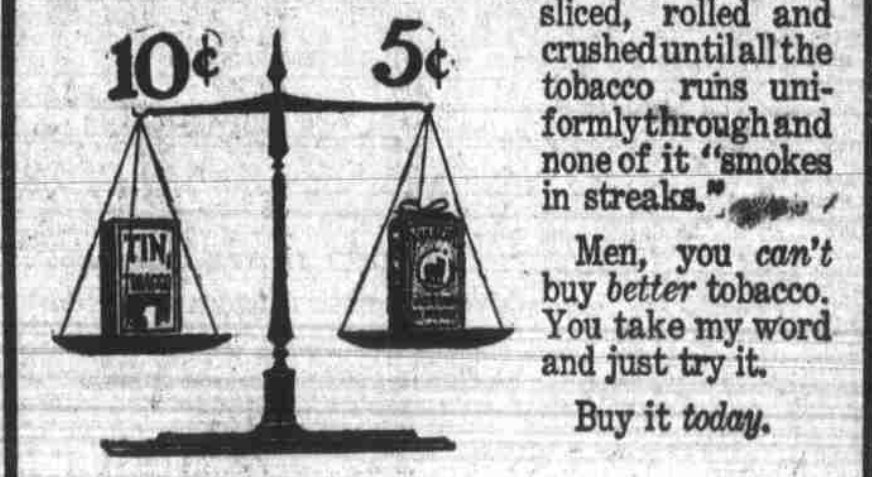

You can pay any price you like. You can buy it in tin boxes or glass jars—you can buy any "process" you like. But—if it isn't good tobacco to begin with it will never be good.

Here is my message to you— Don't pay double for tobacco just because you get it in a tin box.

MASCOT CRUSHED CUT TOBACCO The Brand New Idea in Smoking Tobacco

Costs only 5 cents—but it is as good tobacco as ever came out of Kentucky. The reason I can sell you ten cent quality and quantity for a nickel is—I pack MASCOT in an inexpensive moisture-proof cloth pouch.

With MASCOT in the field, that tin-box, goat-fodder money-waste is no longer necessary on your part. Quit it. MASCOT isn't an ordinary 5 cent tobacco. In quality it stands shoulder-to-shoulder with the ten-centers. It is the very cleanest, carefully-cured mild old Burley leaf, the best Kentucky grows, aged until it is mellow and sweet and fragrant; then sliced, resliced, rolled and crushed until all the tobacco runs uniformly through and none of it "smokes in streaks."

Men, you can't buy better tobacco. You take my word and just try it. Buy it today. In Pouch 5c—In Tins it would cost you double 5c
