JONES, BOY DESPERADO WHO KILLED SHERIFF OF JACKSON, LIVED ALONE, AN ODD CHARACTER

Medford, Or. April 24.—The story of the recent life of Leater Jones, the 18-year-old desperado, who shot and killed Sheriff August Singler and was himself killed Tuesday night, is the story of an imaginative youth whose head had been turned by small successes in petty crime. Jones has always had a penchant for the spectacular, a trait that ied him to steal dynamite, stick at a time, and to hoard them until he had enough to cause a big explosion, When a giant pine tree would be splintered in the night or half a hillside be thrown up in the wilderness near his cabin, neighbors knew that Lester had been provided a gun of kept it within easy reach.

Living alone in the wilderness he spent most of his time playing a violin, or mouth organ, or roller skating on the limited floor space of two small roots. A visit to the cabin shows nothing out of the ordinary. His reading matter consisted of books of the Horatio Alger type of boys' fiction, and a bundle of newspapers telling of the Lounsberry train robbery is the only indication that his thoughts ran to crime.

Jones had a peculiar habit of keeping personal effects hidden in free tops or

The benefits of the new mothers penelon bill recently passed by the state legislature will be clearly demonstrated when Mrs. Singler will be paid $62.50 a month under the provisions of the law. Sheriff Singler was a man of fittle property. His sight children are all under 14 years of age. As the dependent /mathers' penalon law prevides $10 a month for the first cuild and $7.50 a month for each additional child under 16 years old, the total amount to be allowed Mrs. Singler will be $62.50 a month.

be $62,50 a month. The functal of the late sheriff will be held Friday morning in this city and promises to be one of the largest ever held in the county. Delegations from many outside towns will attend.

1851 --- Mile Post 62 ---

The Oldest Dry Goods Store on the Pacific Coast

The hand on the dial of time which registers the progress of this most worthy mercantile establishment now points to 62. The great public, which makes or mars all men and all enterprises, had for 62 years approved the policies of this store-which stands as a fitting monument to Oregon's growth and prosperity. Olds, Wortman & King are not venturesome men-they base their judgment on the sound, logical principles adopted by other great merchants, as well as their own vast experience. Backed by their unbounded faith in the Northwest and knowing that the public had faith in their business methods they staked their fortunes in this store. Was that act venturesome? No; the rapid growth of this store's business today is positive proof of their splendid judgment. Thousands of thrifty people are enjoying the advantages of trading at this store and thousands more are daily flocking to Olds, Wortman & King's for their daily needs.
