YES, INDEED, PERCY, IT WAS SOME RICKETY OLD BASEBALL SCRAP

Fandom Has Some Mighty Peculiar Things Thrust Upon It at Vaughn Park.

We saw yesterday some funny things in the baseball game between Sacra-

We saw Jimmy Lewis score from third base after Bill Rodgers caught Shinn's fly just off the skinned path, We saw three of Sacramento's five runs scored via the sacrifice fly route. We saw 13 of Portland's speed burners left on bases. We saw Jimmy Shinn step to the plate five times, yet he isn't figured in the A. B. column of the box score.

And we sat for two hours and 35 minutes in the cold while the Wolverthes were shoving us back into the cellar, held jointly by the two clubs provious to the 5 to 2 affair participated in by an even two dozen athletes.

Two Startling Catches. The good baseball consisted of a on handed catch by Moran off Chad-bourne's bat in the second inning with two out and one on, and a glove handed e top catch by Rodgers in the fifth with the bases loaded. Moran and Artie Krueger showed us some good throwing when they winged men out at the plate after singles to center.

Louis Drucke made his premier in the Coast league, but Louis gave way to Kanaka Williams in the sixth after filling the bases on a hit and two walks. Ing the bases on a hit and two walks.

Krapp's wildness gave the Senators their first run. Cheek, who retired from the game in the sixth on account of nose bleed, walked. Drucke fanned. Shinn was hit by a pitched ball. By the way, Jimmy walked twice, was hit twice and had a sacrifice fly. Some afternoon's work. Stark walked, filling the bases, but Moran scored Cheek on a fly to Doane, Rodgers Drives in Enn. Kenworthy's error on Chadbourne's grounder, Kores' sacrifice, Lindsay's out and Rodgers' single to center tied the score in the fifth.

O'Rourke's single to left in the sixth, Derrick's overthrow of Kores in trying to catch Patsy at second on Lewis' grounder, Van Buren's infield hit to Idudsay. Drucke's single to right and the aforementioned sacrifice fly of Shinn to Rodgers gave forth two runs. Derrick's single in the sixth, a stolen base, two walks and Kores' single to center gave the Beavers their second a walk, a balk, an infleid out and Ken-worthy's fly to Doane, all off Higgin-botham, gave the Solons their fifth. Portland again showed a surprising weakness in the plach. In the first inning the Beavers had the bases full with one cut, but Jimmy Lewis camped United States. under flies by Rodgers and Krueger. them. ANDERSON WAS NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR HIS BELATED ENTRANCE

Bud Had Been Ordered to Be Klamath Falls, Or. April 24.—The The Clymple management is working in Ring With Brown at 9:30 Klamath country was made to the Bonneville hatchery. The eggs will be two pugillists here. o'Clock and Was There.

"They did get after us a little when we entered the ring somewhat late at Vernon the night we knocked out Knockout Brown," laughed Dick Donald, manager of Bud Anderson, in discussing the criticism of Bud this morning, but it was not our fault. The jeering. however, made no effect on Bud, and when the gong sounded he proceeded to pollsh off Brown to the queen's taste, and the fellows who were yelling their disapproval when we entered turned their high notes into cheers before three or four rounds were over.

"It was this way. We were informed that we would have to be in the ring at 9:20 o'clock and we were there promptly at that time. Bud and I sat down and watched the second preliminary for four rounds. It was to be attentional affair. Then we got up and a ten-round affair. Then we got up and went to our dressing room to tape Bud's hands, which requires about 20 minutes, along with his dressing for the fight.

"Well, it happened that there was a knockout in the preliminary just after we left. Had it gone the full 10 rounds we would have had plenty of time to get into the ring. Tom McCarey was also under the impression that we were to be ready to go on at 9:30, but his press agent, Burns, had arranged for the principals to be ready at 9:15, and had not let either McCarey or myself know anything about it. It seems that he only told the Brown people and that is why Kayo was in the ring first, about 20 minutes ahead of us. It was not our fault.

"One of the club officials came tearing into our room and started a tirade against us. I thought that it might affect Bud somehow, and I chased him out of the room, expiaining on the outside what really was the cause. After he learned, he quieted down. I am sorry that it occurred. We would not stoop to take advantage of that kind over an opponent, because being out in such a cold night like it was at Vernon might tend to tie up his muscles. I don't tend to the up his muscles. I don't think, however, that it affected Brown, for he was well wrapped up.

McCarey Likes Bud.

"Uncle Tom McCarey is well pleased with the showing Bud made in the south, and if we beat Mandot, May 20, he has promised to stage us with Joe Rivers, July 4, and Willie Ritchie Labor Los Angeles, Cal., April 24.—Feather-day. Bud has been asked to put in a weight Champion Johnny Kilbane's week in vaudeville in Portland in addition to his three nights at Vancouver, starting tonight and ending Saturday but we will have to disappoint the fans cause of apparently careless hitting in his training camp.

The champion is traveling at a fast pace in his workouts. His speed apparent to be as great as ever. He is strong and seems to have developed a better punch.

The champion is traveling at a fast we aim to be in Los Angeles about May 10. Bud will only work lightly until the week before the Mandot fight. We are afraid to train too much, and let me better punch. tell you this talk about Bud being over weight is all bosh. He can make it opponent in a 20 round battle next easily, but a fighter's weight is his own business.

McCarey Likes Anderson, Los Angeles, Cal., April 24.—Bud Anderson of Vancouver, Wash., is likely to remain in the puglistic eye here for some time. It all rests with Bud today for if he disposes of Joe Mandot when they meet here May 20 over the 20 round route, he undoubtedly will be matched with Joe Rivers for July 4. While Promoter McCarey is silent regarding his plans after Independence day, it is asserted on good authority that if Willie Ritchie retains his title an effort will be made to match him with Rivers or Anderson for a September holiday date. Anderson is expected to return here early in May to prepare for the Mandot bout.
