

Social and Personal

News for the Sunday society column must be in the hands of the Society Editor not later than Friday of each week and its receipt as much earlier as possible will be appreciated.

By Nona Lawler.
YESTERDAY afternoon the Women's Exchange was the scene of an interesting affair when the annual meeting and tea were enjoyed. Following the business of the afternoon a delightful reception was attended by scores of society folk. The wood and glass decorated the rooms and yellow alyssum and the bright blue delphinium formed an attractive center for the tea table. Mrs. Frederick Alva Jacobs and Mrs. Hunt C. Lewis poured tea with Mrs. David T. Honeyman and Mrs. Rose Bloch Bauer. Assisting were Miss Louise Burns, Miss Margaret Hewitt, Miss Barbara Mackenzie, Miss Lora Cumming, Miss Clementine Lambert and Mrs. Harry Litt.

Entertain at Luncheon.
Mrs. Norman R. Lang has asked a few friends for an informal luncheon Friday at her home on Portland Heights.

For Miss Hastings.
Miss Jessie Hastings was the inspiration for a large affair this afternoon when her cousin, Mrs. Wiley G. Woodruff gave a bridge luncheon of 19 tables in her honor.

Mrs. Willett Hostess.
Mrs. George T. Willett was hostess at a bridge tea yesterday afternoon at her home on Willamette Heights. There were seven tables at cards and a dainty and unique prize was given at each table. They were Chinese book marks of rare workmanship combining the silk tassels and cards embroidered with beads. The rooms were fragrant with sweet hawthorne and laburnum. On the tea table a pink porcelain bowl was effectively filled with a cluster of the pink hawthorne blossoms. Mrs. Charles E. Wolverson and Mrs. H. C. Wortman poured.

Mrs. Coleman and Mrs. Campbell Joint Hostesses.
Mrs. Harry Edmund Coleman and Mrs. Duncan Waldemar Campbell will preside at a large tea tomorrow afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Coleman on Overton street.

Mrs. Froehlich to Entertain.
Wednesday and Thursday of next week Mrs. Paul E. Froehlich will entertain with two large luncheon bridge parties.

For Mrs. Watson.
In honor of Mrs. William B. Watson (Pauline Fithian) who has recently come from England to pay her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. Fithian, a visit, Mrs. Frank E. Heltkemper will preside at an elaborate luncheon and bridge party Thursday afternoon. There will be 12 guests at luncheon, including a group of school friends of Mrs. Watson's and additional guests for bridge, making seven tables at cards.

Mrs. Hodson Hostess.
Mrs. C. W. Hodson will be hostess tomorrow afternoon at a bridge luncheon of six tables, at her home on Willamette Heights.

Indoor Picnic.
Miss Henrietta B. Honey gave an indoor picnic party at her home, 1088 East Alder street, last evening, for the pleasure of her guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lehmann, of Minneapolis, Minn. After the picnic supper, the company was delightfully entertained during the evening with piano selections by Mrs. Francis H. Gill, vocal solos by Mrs. Francis Stiles and reading by Miss Honey.

For Mr. Holland.
Miss Arita Morton was hostess at a farewell dinner last Sunday for the senior members of the Xi Psi Phi fraternity of the '13 graduating class of the North Pacific Dental college. The guests were: Messrs. Draney, Thomas, Bartlett, Peterson, Massey, Allen and Atwater; William Holland was honor guest. Miss Mattie Schaffner assisted the hostess. Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Kleinsmith entertained at dinner for William Holland Friday evening. Besides the host and hostess and honor guest, Mr. and Mrs. E. Morton and daughter, Miss Arita Morton, were present. Mr. Holland leaves for Seattle some time this week. Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Keirns of Vancouver, Wash., entertained at dinner for Mr. Holland Sunday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Keirns, Miss Drusilla Keirns, William Holland and Miss Arita Morton.

New Arrival.
A baby girl was born Sunday night to Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Tibbs, 562 Clifton street.

Sail for Europe.
Mr. and Mrs. William D. Fenton sailed May 10 on the Prinzess Wilhelm for London. They will tour the British Isles and the continent before their return about September 1.

Society Notes.
Portland visitors who called on Spangor Lane May 12, were: Mrs. Charles H. Fuqua, Mrs. Edward H. Fugh and Miss M. Gale Oliver. They are en route to New York to visit relatives.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

The annual meeting of the Women's Exchange was held yesterday, at which time officers were elected as follows: President, Miss Henrietta Felling; first vice president, Mrs. W. C. Alvord; second vice president, Mrs. Leon Hirsch; secretary, Mrs. F. E. Hart; assistant secretary, Mrs. S. T. Hamilton; treasurer, Mrs. A. F. Biles; assistant treasurer, Mrs. E. L. Thompson; directors, Mrs. Charles Scadding, Mrs. E. Ehrman, Mrs. G. S. Whitehead, Mrs. Virginia Bramhall, Mrs. Max Fleischer, Mrs. A. F. Biles, Mrs. W. J. Burns, Mrs. H. N. Mather, Mrs. Sigmund Frank, Mrs. S. T. Hamilton.

A gift was presented to Mrs. Alvord, who for 19 years past has held the office of treasurer of the exchange. A consignee sent a letter of thanks for assistance given, and in this she said that she was no longer in need of assistance, and as an appreciation of what the exchange has done for her she would donate the fancy work she now had on sale there. This amounts to $56.25. In the course of her report, Miss Felling said that as the counter sales were not sufficient to pay the running expenses of the institution they were dependent upon the luncheons and afternoon tea for the much needed funds. She urged the members to give the exchange their loyal support and to get their friends to help them in this worthy work. For three months past the luncheons have been paying well, and has had new customers almost daily. However, it is greatly hoped that the tea room will become more popular with afternoon shoppers.

Oregon consignors are required to pay a membership fee of $1 per year. A total of $16,491.50 was paid to consignors during the year, and the restaurant receipts were $19,847.33. An average of 173 persons were served luncheon daily.

Rossmore Club Election.
The Rossmore Literary club met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. V. Rawlings, corner of Forty-fifth and Brazee streets. An important business session preceded the program, one of the notable things accomplished being the change of name voted upon. It was decided to change the name to the Portland Study club, which will naturally broaden the scope in membership. Heretofore the membership has been limited to the Rossmore district, but under the new name women residing in other parts of the city will be eligible for membership.

The following new officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. C. J. Mathis; vice president, Mrs. L. V. Rawlings; secretary, Mrs. M. D. Lewis; treasurer, Mrs. Mary Wilkins; critic, Mrs. R. E. Gehl. One new member was received, Mrs. L. R. Bailey. It was voted to fine any member not appearing on the program as scheduled, or securing some one to take her place. The fine will be $2. The "Fabled Eldorado" was the general topic for the afternoon's program. Mrs. Lewis spoke briefly on that, and also of British Guiana. Mrs. Shaw spoke of Dutch Guiana, and Mrs. Gehl read a paper on French Guiana, prepared by Mrs. Marx. The next meeting, which will be held two weeks hence, will be the final one of the season.

Chapter A of P. E. O.
Chapter A of P. E. O. met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Chester Pate, 8 1/2 East Eleventh street north. This was purely a business meeting, plans being discussed for the forthcoming state convention to be held soon. A social time followed, during which the hostess served refreshments. There were about 20 present.

Pacific University, Forest Grove, Or., May 12.—The annual guest night of the Women's club at Forest Grove was held last evening at Herrick hall. This function is the great event in the club year and it is an honor to be on the list of guests and friends of the club. Miss (Fornham), dean of women at Pacific University and a prominent member of the club executive committee, acted as hostess. Approximately 150 members and friends of the club were present. An elaborate program was rendered under the direction of Mrs. Wilbur McDoldoney. The program consisted of a piano trio by Misses House, Minkler and Thomas; vocal solos by Mrs. McDoldoney, Mr. McNeill and Miss Peterson; a vocal trio by Misses Peterson, House and Thomas; and a chorus of 12 voices at the close of the program. Mrs. T. J. O. Thatcher is president of the Women's club, which has 75 members. The women have accomplished many things in the past for the improvement of civic conditions and have been active in the Women's club movement.

IN STAGELAND

"Her First Divorce," one of the newer things on Broadway, has been well received. The play is said to be of the "light and frothy" type, but altogether satisfactory as a warm weather entertainment.

Madame Sarah Bernhardt is rounding out a two weeks' engagement at the Palace theatre, New York city.

Charles F. Towle, for 12 years manager of the leading "Ben Hur" company, has resigned from the staff of Klaw & Erlanger, and will take charge of the American tour of the Stratford-on-Avon Players from the Memorial theatre, Stratford. This company is one of the most notable Shakespearean organizations in the world. Mr. Towle has booked its American tour through Klaw & Erlanger. The Pacific coast will be visited. It will be the first visit of the Stratford Players to America.

Baby Care Demonstrations.

HINTS FOR SHOPPER AND HOUSEKEEPER

By Vella Winner

Beauty Hint.
Avoid the use of any face cream which contains either lanolin or cocoa butter. These ingredients will absolutely cause the growth of superfluous hair, and yet one seldom picks up a magazine containing "beauty information" that does not find at least one "simple home-made cream" which has one of these injurious fats as a base. The utmost care must be exercised in such matters, or more injury than benefit will result.

Corset Weave.
This is corset week at that big department store on lower Morrison street and one of the show windows presents a really beautiful picture in a number of the newest models in one of the old standard makes. A name counts for everything in a corset, and this display is one of the best known makes on the market today. The fancy models made especially for display are in brocade lavender silk batiste, but all of these late models are to be had in the ever useful white coutille and white batiste. The new models are very low bust and extra long skirt and have six zee supporter attachments and are well calculated to give the much desired girlish figure. A novel arrangement in the shape of a tab at the bottom of the clasp attached to the front hose supporter distinguishes one of the new models. The purpose of the arrangement is to prevent the clasp from protruding.

The Joke Is on the Women.
For months and years women have yearned, at least with their tongues, for a sensible low-heeled shoe. How many women you have heard say: "Yes, these heels are too high and they are really an abomination, but one just simply can't wear low heels, the shops don't have them," and so she goes on making a martyr of herself. Some months ago a daring manufacturer rose up and manufactured a shoe with a low heel. The shoe was made and sold at the Portland shops, but alas, the priest and the Levite of old—the women passed by on the other side—all except a few really sincere silver-haired grandmothers, who paused, purchased and are delighted. The few others who were tempted to try the "new things" have practically all returned to have "more heel" nailed on or else they are purchasing new shoes. Some way the "common sense" heel don't seem to fit the foot of the twentieth century woman, and it most assuredly doesn't do her sense of the beautiful as seen peeping from a saucy slashed skirt.

Of Jap Towels.
A correspondent tells me how she utilizes the Jap towels of which we are all so fond. "I take one towel, fold up one end, making a case 14 inches long, with a little flap folding down over the case five inches. I featherly stitch the sides and the end of the flap, in either blue or white cotton. I use the cases to hold the nightgown or pajamas which lie on the foot of the bed. I also make shirt waist cases by using two of the towels, featherly stitching both ends and the two sides together, leaving the upper sides open to slip in the waists.

Taffeta ribbons are relegated to the

"has been" class and in their place are the lovely, soft shimmering faille ribbons, which drape so beautifully that they have already won the hearts of the milliners. A lower Morrison street shop is showing these ribbons in kings blue, Coeur De Rusche (a delicate maize yellow), Nell rose, cadet blue and emerald green in five and six inch widths and at surprisingly low prices.

Fashion's Frills.
The lace neck ruffle, standing upright at the back and falling softly away from the neck at the front, is a favored fashion in neckwear. A new idea on many suits is to bind the upper half of the buttonhole with a band of one color, and the lower with another harmonizing color. A pretty hat is covered with white crepe and trimmed with white pleated edged ribbon. The front is finished with a small bunch of colored flowers.

Household Hints.
A light wooden box should be provided for baby's toys. A solution of oxalic acid is good to clean copper and brass. Green vegetables are best cooked in open vessels to save the odor. To give a richer flavor to the roast baste it with dripping instead of water. A piece of ham bone added to vegetable or stock soup will improve the flavor. Candles will last much longer if they are kept on ice 24 hours before using. One tablespoonful of ammonia to a quart of water will clean gold or silver jewelry.

ARREST TWO BOYS FOR MURDER OF FATHER

(United Press Special Wire.)
Douglas, Ariz., May 12.—Charged with the murder of their father, Otto and Fred Watson, 18 and 21 years old, are under arrest here today. The father, William Watson, a rancher, was shot and killed while driving to his home from Douglas, and the arrest of the boys followed. Neighbors declared that they had quarreled with their father. Watson was an Arizona pioneer.

Brewers and Men Agree.
(United Press Special Wire.)
Seattle, Wash., May 13.—After continued conferences lasting for several months, a wage and working agreement between the master brewers of western Washington plants and the employers has been reached. Under the new agreement, which will be effective for two years, the workers gain several points in dispute, but it is understood that it will work no hardship on the brewers.

Funeral of Mrs. Alexander.
(Special to the Journal.)
Oregon City, Or., May 13.—Mrs. J. A. Alexander died at her home in West Oregon City early Monday morning. Mrs. Alexander has made her home in this city for many years and was active in the affairs of the Baptist church. She is survived by six children and one adopted daughter, Miss Florence Reisenberg, who lives in Portland. Funeral arrangements have not been announced by the family, but it is likely the body will be taken to Lebanon, Or., the family burying ground. This is said to be the wish of Mrs. Alexander, who often stated she wanted to be laid at rest beside her parents in Lebanon.

VICE CRUSADERS WILL DANCE TURKEY TROT

(United Press Special Wire.)
Poughkeepsie, N. Y., May 12.—Vassar girls are jubilant today, the faculty having given them permission to turkey trot and tango at the senior promenade on May 20.
