HARRY KRAUSE GETS HIS WHEN ANGELS HIT 'EM OUT FOR TRIPLES

Portland Gives Southpaw Two Run Lead but He Can't Fool the Seraphic Horde.

(Special to The Journal.) Los Angeles, Cal., May 15 .- Although the Beavers gave Harry Krause a two run lead in the first inning yesterday, the southpaw was unable to prevent the Angels from scoring and had another defeat tacked to his record. After the first inning Perritt was the master of the Beavers and they had no other run in them, although the Seraphs were compelled to play good ball to keep the northerners away from the plate.

Chadbourne and Derrick greeted "Pol" with singles as the first men up, Chad to left and Fred infield. When Page made a wild heave of Doane's grounder Chadbourne scored and Deane was safe at first, Derrick stopping at second. Derrick went to third and Doane to second on Kores' sacrifice and Derrick scored on Rodgers' out, Page to Howard. Los Angeles made one of the runs back in the third inning. Boles opened with a triple and scored on Page's out. For Portland, Rodgers singled and stole in the fourth and took third on McCormick's out. Krueger walked and the pair tried a double steal but Rodgers was nipped at the plate, Boles to Metzger to Boles.

The southerners tied the score in the fourth. Wotell doubled and scored on Derrick's error of Maggart's grounder. In the fifth inning the Beavers had Fisher, Derrick and Doane on base with two out, but Kores forced Doane for the last out.

In the sixth the Angels won the game. Page walked and Ellis singled. Rodgers threw Page out at the plate trying to score on Wotell's grounder to Rodgers. Maggart was out when Howard tripled, clearing the bases; The score:

IN SCHOLASTIC MEET

Many Would Suspend One-Year Rule to Let Dick Grant Meet Goreczky May 24,

Columbia university will enter an 18 man team in the Interscholastic track compete. It is likely that the one year and field meet to be staged under the auspices of the Multnoman club on its clause substituted. field Saturday afternoon, May 24 ..

The purple and white athletes have been conceded first places by all its competitors, but a hot fight for second place is expected between Jefferson and Washington. The Columbia team will be without the services of two of its best athletes,

Lake and Kirkland, both barred because of the age limit of the local league. Three athletes, Goreczky, Malarkey and Muirhead, will give Callicrate's men a large number of points, each being good for at least 8 points.

The Columbia entries are: 100 yard dash-Malarkey, Goreczky, Masterson, Bernhoffer, Nixon. 220 yard dash-Malarkey, Goreczky, Masterson, Bernhoffer, Nixon, Wells, Leonard, Thomas. 440 yard run-Nixon, Larson, Haywood, Carroll, Toomas, 880 yard non, Muirhead. 220 yard low hurdles-Goreczky, Mulrhead, Cannon. An effort is being made to have withdrawn the one year rule of the Portland

Interscholastic league, which prohibits athletes who leave one school and foin another form competing for one whole year. Many of the teachers in some of the schools are in favor of this move.

If the rule is drawn Dick Grant, the sensational scholastic sprinter, will be able to enter the local interscholastic meet. It is certain, that the public would like to see Grant and Goreczky run again.

Grant defeated the sensational Columbia university sprinter in the two sprints in the state meet last Saturday, but Goreczky's friends are confident the Columbia runner will be able to beat him in both recess or advantaged.
