New for the Sunday society column must be in the hands of the Society Editor not later than Friday of each week and its receipt as such earlier as possible will be appreciated.

MR. AND MRS. LUCIUS ALLEN LEWIS left last night for New York. Mrs. Lewis is convalescent from an illness of several months. They expect to pass the summer in the eastern states.

Mr. and Mrs. Prudhomme Celebrate Anniversary.

About 250 guests called last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Prudhomme on Twenty-fourth and Irving streets. The occasion was the tenth anniversary of their wedding. A charming array of flowers made a beautiful setting for the many handsomely gowned guests who thronged the rooms of the attractive home of the Prudhommés. The drawing room was filled with pink flowers, roses, carnations and the fragrant gilly flower. An orchestra in the music room which furnished music throughout the evening were screened with quantities of Scotch broom. The dining room was decked in white. Clusters of white snow balls were about the room and the table from which a buffet luncheon was served was centered with a crystal bowl filled with white sweet peas and maiden hair ferns.

The guests were greeted by the little Misses Pauline Farrell and Frances Bernadette Prudhomme and young Master Wilbur Prudhomme, the two little girls holding the card trays.

Mrs. Mary Norden, Miss Frances Norden, and Miss Lorena Prudhomme assisted the hostess in receiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Prudhomme stood in the drawing room. Mrs. Prudhomme was charmingly gowned in peach crepe material with over drapery of lemon chiffon with embroidered pattern of pearl beads. Miss Norden was attractively gowned in pale blue chiffon over satin in the same shade, with trimming of white lace and touches of coral and black velvet. She wore a corsage of pink sweet peas.

Miss Prudhomme was prettily gowned in white embroidered marquisette. Mrs. Norden was attired in gray crepe de chine with cream lace trimming.

Miss Mable Beck and Miss Elizabeth Willis presided at the punch bowl. Miss Beck was gowned in apple green chiffon trimmed in gold embroidery.

Miss Willis wore a striking gown of black brocade with bodice of pink chiffon draped in silver lace.

In the dining room Miss Lucille Delahunt, Miss Irene Flynn, Miss Mayme Nelson Flynn, Miss Josephine Cronan, Mrs. A. D. Monteth and Mrs. J. T. Edwards, served.

Miss Delahunt wore a pretty frock of white chiffon with pink rose buds. An interesting fact is that Miss Delahunt was the tiny ring bearer for Mr. and Mrs. Prudhomme at their wedding ten years ago.

Mrs. Edwards was gowned in peach and blue crepe material with gold lace elaborations.

Mrs. Monteth was gowned in pink crepe de chine with beaded chiffon drapery.

Miss Irene Flynn was charmingly attired in a watermelon shade of brocade charmeuse with trimming of white lace ruffles and lace about the corsage.

Miss Flynn was gowned in yellow satin with gold lace trimming.

Miss Cronan was attractively gowned in sage green chiffon and she wore a corsage of Richmond buds.

A number of delightful solos were much enjoyed during the evening which were rendered by Miss Irene Flynn and George Hotchkiss Street.

Hostess Today.
Mrs. Paul E. Froehlich entertained this afternoon with a bridge luncheon on four tables at her home on Overton street. Tomorrow she will have guests for seven tables at bridge, with a number calling later for tea.

For Mrs. Watson.

In compliment to Mrs. William Bertram Watson (Pauline Pithian), of Harrogate, England, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orrin H. Pithian, for the past month, Mrs. Pithian gave a charming tea yesterday afternoon, the appointments of which were effectively carried out in lavender, the "Dix" color, a sorority of which Mrs. Watson is a popular member. About 125 guests called during the afternoon. Mrs. Pithian received in a charming gown of embroidered net in the copper tones, made over silk, which shaded from the electric blue to the copper tones.

Mrs. Watson wore a becoming gown of king's blue charmeuse, with over-drapery of cloth-of-gold, brocaded in blue of the same shade.

The rooms were decked in Scotch bloom, except in the dining room, which was beautifully arranged with lavender orchids and sweet peas, with quantities of maiden-hair ferns.

Miss Frances Gill, Miss Ethel Clark, Mrs. Frank McCauley and Mrs. Oliver Walker presided at the table. At the punch-bowl Mrs. Herman Clausen and Mrs. Clifford Marshall served.

Assisting in receiving were Mrs. Thomas Brittain Foster, Mrs. Paul Froehlich and Mrs. Frank Heikemper.

Tomorrow Mrs. John T. Stonerod will entertain for Mrs. Watson with a bridge tea, and Friday Mrs. Watson will leave for New York, from where she will sail for home May 23.

Surprise Party.
Miss Emma Wilson was delightfully surprised last Saturday evening at the home of her aunt, Mrs. J. R. Stanton.

The living rooms were attractively decorated with Scotch broom for the occasion. Many enjoyable games were indulged in and along with musical activities and light refreshments the evening was made very interesting.

Those present were Misses Jessamine Harding, Hazel Klosterman, Marian Jordan, Lorene Rector, Elsie Sillry, Mildred Hawes, Jessie McDonald, Anna Allen, Emma Wilson, Frances Healey, Mrs. Mew, Mr. and Mrs. Hawes, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Stanton, Edgar Smith, Lawrence Smith, Allen Thurman, Joe Jordan, Kenneth Jordan, Herbert Taylor, Lee Shark and John Fleckers.

La Hoa Dance.
Invitations will be issued in a day or so by the La Hoa club for their closing party of the season, an informal shirt waist dancing party, which will be held in Christensen's hall on next Tuesday evening, May 27.

Illinois Society to Meet.
The Illinois society of Oregon will hold its first meeting, with the newly elected officers presiding, at Manchester hall, 82 Fifth street, Wednesday evening, May 28, 1913. All former Illinoisans requested to be present. Ex-Governor Geer will address the meeting and plans for the summer will be discussed.

To Go Abroad.
Among the events of the week was a "500" party given by Mrs. C. C. Wise for Mrs. P. Planch, to wish her "bon voyage" on her trip abroad, as she is leaving for London on Friday to spend a few months visiting relatives and friends. An enjoyable afternoon was passed by those present and at the conclusion of a dainty luncheon Mrs. Planch was presented with a portable souvenir of the occasion. The guests were: Mrs. P. Planch, Mrs. E. Fisher, Mrs. J. Felton, Mrs. George Zeller, Mrs. T. Van Doren, Mrs. E. Mathiot, Mrs. A. D. Hosfeldt, Mrs. William Winters, Dr. W. H. Creamer, Mrs. W. Burrell and Mrs. L. C. Davidson.

Covers were laid for 12 at a prettily appointed luncheon given by Mrs. Dr. Creamer for Mrs. P. Planch, who sails from Montreal for London, June 4, to be gone for a few months.

Grimm Fulmer.
Mrs. Rebecca Fulmer, formerly of Pittsburg, Allegheny county, Pa., and W. H. Grimm of Oakland, Coles county, Ill., were united in marriage at the First Presbyterian church, Twelfth and Alder streets, at 8:30 Tuesday evening by Rev. John H. Boyd.

Mrs. Fulmer has lived in Portland five years and for the past three years has been employed by the N. A. A., holding the position as night secretary for one year and for the past two years as matron in the Travelers' Aid department in the Oregon Electric department. Mr. Grimm is a real estate dealer. He met Miss Fulmer seven years ago in Salt Lake City, Utah, and has kept up a continuous correspondence ever since. After an extended trip east, visiting their relatives and friends, via Omaha, Chicago, Tuscola and Oakland, Ill., Pittsburg, Philadelphia and New York, and returning through Canada, they expect to make their future home in the Pacific northwest. The wedding was a quiet affair and came as a complete surprise to both relatives and friends.

Matinee Party.
Miss Bessie Sohn was the young hostess at a matinee party last Saturday. The event was in honor of her seventh birthday and an elaborate luncheon was served at the "Café Fiddle." The young folks were charmed by Mrs. Nathan Sohn, and those enjoying her hospitality were Harold Blazier, Helena Pittelkau, Nondas Wayne, Bessie Rogaway, Lois Smith, Bessie Ponter, Morris Rogaway and Bessie Sohn.

Party at Church Hall.
On account of the sudden illness of Miss Frances Brady, the Madeline parish at-home, which was to have been held at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Brady, will be transferred tomorrow evening to the assembly hall of the Madeline church, East Twenty-second street North, near Sixty-first street. The committee on arrangements is Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Brady, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Clarno, Mr. and Mrs. John Manning, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cronan, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Seufert, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Murphy and Mr. and Mrs. John M. Casey. Cards and music will be the entertainment of the evening, and light refreshments will be served.

Silver Anniversary.
Mr. and Mrs. L. Rosenblum celebrated their silver wedding anniversary Sunday evening, May 18, at their residence, 212 Caruthers street. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Prevost, Mr. and Mrs. Barrell, Mr. and Mrs. Segel, Mrs. Herzberg, Mrs. Gonsgow, Mr. Lebel and Mrs. D. Sondheim.

Society Notes.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scott and their daughter, Miss Mildred, have returned from an extended visit in Colorado and southern California.

Mrs. George T. Willett left Wednesday for a fortnight's visit with the Chester Thornes, at Thornewood, American Lake, Wash.

Mrs. A. Fleishman and daughter, Miss Clara, left for Seattle, Wash., where they will spend two weeks and then will be joined by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dellar on a trip to Victoria and Vancouver, B. C.

WATER STOPS BORINGS ON POSTOFFICE SITE
City Engineer Hurlbutt was requested by the postoffice department to make some soundings on the site of the new postoffice in order that the architects designing the building could determine on the four borings. A few days ago he attempted to make the borings, but was forced to desist after going 18 feet because of the high water in the river. This does not mean that an underground lake exists under the postoffice block. The water has reached a point on the river bank when it seeps along underground through a soft strata of soil or sand in such quantities as to prevent the drill from cutting a hole. The work consequently has been stopped and probably will not be resumed for some time, when it is not this will have the effect of delaying the start of constructing the new postoffice is not known.

WANT AUTOMOBILES FOR AGED VETERANS
The urgent need of more automobiles and carriages for old soldiers who wish to participate in the Memorial Day parade is being exploited by Major Cicero Newell, chairman of the transportation committee. He is making a strenuous effort to enlist the aid of more auto and carriage owners who will contribute the use of their vehicles for a portion of that day.

A request is made to any patriotic citizen who will help out in this matter to communicate with Major Newell at 220 Third street, Main 407. The carriages are to be provided for veterans more than 61 years of age. Many have already responded, but the required number has not yet been secured.

NEW YORK CLUB WILL ACCEPT LIPTON'S DEFI
London, May 21.—Cabled acceptance by the New York Yacht club of Sir Thomas Lipton's challenge for the American cup is received here today by the Royal Ulster club. September, 1914, is the date set for the races, with the New York club's present rules regarding measurement and time allowance governing the contests.

Charles E. Nicholson, the yacht designer of Gosport, England, already is working on plans for the challenge. Asked today whether he thought the New York club would defend the cup with a bigger boat than the challenger, Sir Thomas said:

"I am not worrying about that. American yachtsmen are most generous and sportsmanlike."

Good Autos Cheap
Many dollars may be saved in that automobile you contemplate buying if you will spend a few minutes each day reading the want ads in The Journal's automobile column. There you'll find the latest list of makes and models. It is published in this city. It will only be a question of a few days until the car that meets all your requirements at a price that suits will be presented for your investigation.

Paris Yachtman, candidate for mayor, and various candidates for committee, will speak at Columbus club hall tonight. You will hear something worth hearing. Ladies invited. (Paid adv.)

CORVALLIS DAY SET ASIDE AT ALBANY CHAUTAUQU

(Special to The Journal.)
Corvallis, Or., May 21.—Sixteen business men of Albany, headed by Dr. W. H. Ellis, president of the Albany Chautauqua association, came to Corvallis at noon yesterday and lunched at the Commercial club. About 50 Corvallis Commercial club members were present, and while the lunch was in progress, Dr. Ellis extended an invitation to Corvallis to take part in the Albany chautauqua to be held at that city, beginning July 7. He suggested that a Corvallis day be set if it met approval of this city. The invitation was accepted by the Commercial club here and a plan of boosting for Corvallis day at the Albany chautauqua was launched. Special rates and services will be asked of the Corvallis & Eastern, and Oregon Electric railways.

To Address Ben Butler Post, Ben Butler Post, Grand Army of the Republic, will meet Sunday morning with the Women's Relief Corps for memorial services at Clinton Kelly M. E. Church, East Twenty-sixth and Powell streets. The address will be delivered by Rev. Mr. McCullough, pastor of the church.
