FIVE OARSMEN DESERT COACH CAMBEAU CREW

Washington, Howeve̊r, Will Put Up Good Race Against California, Thursday.

Seattle, Wash., May 21.—Despite the fact that five of the oarsmen who participated in the triangular race on the Oakland estuary, in which the Varsity crew defeated both the Stanford and California eights, have quit Washington varsity aquatics, Coach Conibear is confident his team will repeat when they are sent over the three mile course on Lake Washington against California Thursday afternoon.

The varsity has lost Waller, Hunton, Frankland, Bonney and Schwabland, which will mean that five of the oarsmen who are to pull oars against California have never participated in an intercollegiate race before. Inasmuch as the varsity is figured as a strong contender in the Poughkeepsie regatta, they will spare no effort to beat the California team. A defeat at the hands of the Californians would be a very discouraging incident to those who have contributed to the fund to send the eight east with the presumption that Washington had the greatest crew on the coast.

The race Thursday will start promptly at 5 o'clock from Leschi park, with the finishing line directly off the Madison park dock. If the weather conditions are not suitable the race will be postponed until 9 o'clock Friday morning.

A match between the Vancouver Boat club and Varsity seconds will precede the big race.

BASEBALL NOTES

Jack Barry, former Portland player and manager of the Seattle Giants, has bought an orange grove near Redlands, Cal. Barry visited Manager McCredie, when the team was playing the Los Angeles team, and informed him of the deal.

Southpaw Ruether, whom Manager McCredie was looking over some time ago, has been released by the Pirates. Ruether will most likely join Dillon's Angels.

Manager Joe McGinnity of the Tacoma Tigers last night gave Lou Nordyke, one of the best known ball players in the northwest, his unconditional release. Nordyke has not been able to hit his stride this season and after being benched by McGinnity in the pinch yesterday requested his release.

Nordyke, when asked if he had received an offer from the Victoria team, which lost the services of its first baseman yesterday, when Brooks broke a bone in his ankle, said this morning: "I will gladly join the Victoria team if satisfactory terms are made." Nordyke managed the Victoria team last season, until he was forced to retire on account of a broken leg. Nordyke left this morning for Tacoma, where he will wait for offers from teams.
