

BUSY DAYS FOR P. E. O. MEMBERS

Many Social Events Feature Annual Convention of Oregon Grand Chapter.

Mrs. Samuel Shaw Parks of Chicago.

The second annual convention of the Oregon grand chapter of the P. E. O. Sisterhood, now in session at the Multnomah hotel, has brought together nearly 75 of the representative women of the state to confer together on matters of social, philanthropic and educational moment and interest.

The convention opened with an informal reception Monday night in the peacock room of the Multnomah, chapter A acting as hostess. Those receiving were: Mrs. C. R. Davis, Mrs. E. E. Thomas, Mrs. S. H. Morgan, Mrs. C. E. Patterson, Mrs. Ione Townsend Wells, Mrs. G. A. Rogers, Mrs. T. E. Edwards, Mrs. W. P. Jones, Mrs. W. O. Haines and Mrs. W. Hill. The reception room was elaborately decorated in snowballs, Scotch broom, spruce, lilacs and snapdragons combined with the little gold and white pennants of the Sisterhood.

A very delightful musical program was given. Mrs. F. E. Deem sang a group of songs in a most beautiful manner. Mrs. J. F. L. Beaumont gave splendid piano numbers. Mrs. Sarah Blackman was heard to advantage in vocal numbers and Miss Marjorie Trotter gave violin numbers, accompanied by Miss Trotter. Light refreshments were served.

Yesterday morning 25 out of town visitors enrolled. Mrs. E. E. Thomas and Mrs. J. K. Mock were appointed guards. Mrs. Beaumont was made pianist. Mrs. G. F. Peck and Mrs. T. H. Edwards were appointed reporters. Mrs. Mary Purfield conducted devotionals. The address of welcome was delivered by Mrs. Davis and the response was made by Mrs. Dorothy Seymour. The following committees were then appointed: Credentials, Mrs. Braze and Mrs. Stockton; dispensation, Mrs. Seeburger and Mrs. Brand; state by-laws, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Burlingham and Mrs. Braze; local by-laws, Mrs. Seltz, Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. Bollinger; chapter reports, Mrs. Bean and Mrs. Zinkham; officers' recommendations, Mrs. Stockton, Mrs. Ferguson and Mrs. McCaw; auditing, Mrs. McCaw and Mrs. Seltz; finance, Mrs. Bollinger and Mrs. Bean; memorial, Mrs. Phipps and Mrs. Davis; resolutions, Mrs. Ferguson, Mrs. Seeburger and Mrs. Burlingham.

The principal address of the morning was delivered by the national president, Mrs. Parks, her topic being, "P. E. O. Ideals." She touched upon the highest aims and objects of the organization and urged the women to highest ideals of the original organizers and to perpetuate in every way possible the feeling of sisterhood, which has already made the organization distinctive. Miss Beatrice Kirkup sang, "It is Spring, Dear Heart." Luncheon was served in the Arcadian gardens, covers being laid for 60.

The afternoon was taken up in committee reports and an address on "What Our Educational Fund Is Doing for Ourselves and What We Are Doing for the Fund," by Mrs. Elizabeth P. Codding. Miss Katherine Davis and Miss Irene Stewart gave vocal solos and Mrs. Ada Holbrook gave the memorial address. Last night a delightful reception was given for the members and their husbands, held at the home of Mrs. H. R. Albee. Handsome decorations, beautiful gowns, refreshments and music were features of this affair.

This morning devotionals were led by Mrs. Belle C. Miles. Mrs. Emma McCaw gave two vocal numbers, reports of committees were given, the ritual was exemplified and a short talk was made by the state organizer, Mrs. Haines. Mrs. Ada Holbrook led in a series of three minute talks on topics of current interest. At noon luncheon was again served in the Arcadian gardens. At the luncheon table the women listened to an address by Marshall N. Dana, candidate

INVALID WOMAN ACCUSES SISTER

Says Intimidation Was Used to Get 91-Year-Old Father to Deed His Land.

(Special to The Journal.)

Albany, Or., May 21.—One of the allegations in the suit to set aside a deed which was filed here yesterday by Martha Houston against her sister, Orpha Greener, formerly Orpha Henningsen, was that the latter took advantage of the feeble condition of her 91-year-old father, James Williams, who died intestate at Solo on August 19, 1911, and was successful in persuading him to deed her all his real property, consisting of about 40 acres, all situated in Linn county.

Martha Houston, the plaintiff, alleged that she cared for her father for several years prior to his death and that she herself was stricken with paralysis in 1907, which rendered her absolutely helpless to perform the household duties, care for her sick father, or herself. She finally decided to ask her sister, the defendant, to come and live with them and care for them. The sister agreed and cared for both Martha and her father for several months, but finally tired of her work and under threat to leave both of them alone and without aid or care, she was successful in persuading her invalid father, old and feeble, to deed her an acre of land as compensation for her work in caring for them. After caring for them several years more, she again threatened to leave, and the father, who had been rapidly declining in health and strength, and fearing to be left without help, deeded her his property, according to the complaint. He later died, and now the invalid daughter has brought suit to have the deed set aside by the court, alleging that her sister used undue influence in securing title to the land.

Chamberlain is among the veteran members of Laurel lodge No. 7, Knights of Pythias of this city who will receive one of the coveted veteran's jewels to be awarded to all veteran members of the local order at special ceremonies, which will be held on Wednesday evening, May 22, in this city. Other members of the local order who will receive veteran's jewels on that occasion are Charles Wagner, Albany; D. V. S. Reid, Heppner, J. W. Hodges, San Francisco; E. U. Will, Portland; W. M. Parker, Albany; G. E. Probst, Albany; and Charles A. Warner, Albany. The local lodge has many other members to whom veteran's jewels have already been presented. A program is being prepared for the presentation ceremonies, which will include talks by prominent members of the Knights of the Pythias order from Portland and Albany, and many musical numbers. The exercises will be attended by the members of the Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters' orders. The committee having the event in charge consists of W. L. Marks, chairman; Leland R. Gilbert and Albert L. Kullander.

Women Glad, Dog Owners Mad.

(Special to The Journal.)

Albany, Or., May 21.—The women of the Modern Travelers' club of this city passed a resolution at their meeting this week commending the mayor and members of the city council, for their action in passing an ordinance recently which prohibits all dogs from running at large in the city. The "dog ordinance," however, has aroused a great deal of resentment among dog fanciers in this city, many of whom own thoroughbred dogs. They maintain that inasmuch as they pay the taxes on their pets regularly, the dogs should be given the freedom of the city. It is probable a test case will be made of the ordinance.

Memorial Plans at Albany.

Albany, Or., May 21.—The annual Memorial services will be held in Albany this year in the new First Presbyterian church, recently completed at the cost of $40,000 and will be attended by the members of the Grand Army of the Republic, the Spanish war veterans, and the members of the Fifth company, coast artillery corps.

for commissioner. Mr. Dana spoke briefly and at the conclusion of his address he was pelted with questions pertaining to some of the issues in the present campaign, the women showing themselves to be keenly interested in the betterment of the city.

CARNEGIE REFUSED TO BREAK LAW--SCHWAB

(United Press Leased Wire.)

New York, May 21.—Andrew Carnegie's method of doing business was explained in the hearing of the government suit for the dissolution of the steel trust by Charles M. Schwab, first president of the United States Steel corporation, under cross examination by former Secretary of War Jacob M. Dickinson. Schwab freely admitted that a pool in steel rails existed even before the United States Steel corporation was formed.

Schwab asserted that in 1908 the Carnegie Steel company refrained from making girder rails for a consideration paid by a competitor. He also asserted that once Andrew Carnegie refused to organize a selling company to market the products of certain steel companies "because it would have been unlawful."

The United States is now the greatest photographic materials producing country.

Springfield School Gardens Pine.

(Special to The Journal.)

Springfield, Or., May 21.—"The finest school gardens I have yet found," is the verdict expressed last evening by Professor L. P. Harrington, who was here this week in connection with the agricultural extension work of the state school superintendent's office. Mr. Harrington addressed 350 pupils and 20 teachers during the afternoon and left Superintendent C. E. Kirk an enthusiastic as he over the outlook for exhibits from Springfield for the state and county fairs. Mr. Harrington commended the placing of manual training apparatus at each of the three city schools, and was especially pleased by the half block devoted to a garden at the high school grounds.
