

PORTLAND MAN HEADS AD CLUBS

Clark, of Local Advertising Men's Association, Elected President Yesterday.

(United Press Special Wire.)
 Sacramento, Cal., May 22.—Advertising men of the Pacific coast are returning home today after a successful convention here. Vancouver, B. C., gets the 1914 convention. A. G. Clark of Portland is the new president. Other officers are: First vice president, H. L. Stillwell, Los Angeles; second vice president, F. H. Lloyd, Spokane; third vice president, G. A. Cummings, Sacramento; secretary and treasurer, Dr. L. S. Rowe, Vancouver, B. C.; executive committee, R. L. Bisbee, chairman, Los Angeles; W. W. Cribben, Oakland; A. G. Ross, Stockton; Dawson Mayer, San Francisco; A. J. Izard, Seattle.
 Portland delegates will be entertained at luncheon today and at dinner in San Francisco tonight.
 Little Mildred Tucker and her Caroline (testout rose float) will be sent to the national convention at Baltimore in June. Her song at the Tuesday night club last night made a great hit. A resolution was adopted in memory of Charles B. Merrick, the Portland postmaster, who died some months ago.

LAWYERS AND DOCTORS EUCURED OUT OF FEES?

(Special to The Journal.)
 Cottage Grove, Or., May 22.—It is understood that attorneys and physicians having large fees coming to them in the case of Stone vs. the West Coast Mines company have had a coup sprung on them. The case was tried in district court a short time ago, a judgment of $10,000 being rendered in favor of Stone. Shortly afterwards notice was given that a mortgage on the property of the mines company would be foreclosed and Stone declared this an attempt to evade payment of the judgment.
 It now appears that the company merely wished to evade payment of lawyer's and physician's fees, for officers of the company were here last week, arranged settlement with the injured man, took him to Eugene and got the judgment cancelled without the knowledge of those having claims.
 The attorneys in the case are J. C. Johnson of this city and C. A. Hardy of Eugene. Mr. Johnson declines to make a statement. Stone has gone to Washington.

TEETH! UPPER TEETH! WHO LOST 'EM? SOUP AND MUSH DIET PALL?

Who is the person having no teeth in the upper jaw except two on the right side and one on the left?
 There is such a person in Portland, and he or she, as the case may be, must be eating mush and foods of similar consistency. At least indications point strongly in this direction because his or her false teeth are now reposing in a drawer in the Journal office awaiting a claimant.
 The imitation molars were picked up by Charles Beggs of 1464 East Davis street. He forthwith brought them to the Journal, knowing that its "Lost and Found" column is an efficient medium to bring finders and losers together.
 Many things come to the hand of the "Lost and Found" advertising man during the course of a week. He is asked to find everything from dogs and cats to diamonds and valuable watches. And it is worth while to watch the column too. For instance, a prominent young woman lost a silver bracelet watch a few days ago. She is advertising for it today and promises to pay a reward of much more than the intrinsic value of the article.

TAKES 8 MILE TRIP IN FLYING MACHINE

Copyright Harris & Ewing.
 Josephus Daniels, secretary of the navy.

Annapolis, Md., May 22.—Flying boat C-1 carried Secretary of the Navy Daniels yesterday afternoon for eight minutes, during which time the craft traveled about eight miles. The pilot was Lieutenant John H. Towers, senior officer of the navy aviation corps. Mrs. Daniels watched the flight from the naval academy.
 Secretary Daniels' aide, Lieutenant Commander Holmer, also flew in a converted biplane with Lieutenant Smith, grade from Pasco to Portland? If you have, you know what my official title looks like when it starts across a page. Listen close. I don't want to have to repeat it. I am practicing saying it in one breath: I am commissioner of immigration, labor and statistics and executive commissioner for Idaho to the Panama-Pacific International Exposition at San Francisco.

JUDICIAL DIGNITY HAS DIFFICULT DAY WHEN BABY VISITS COURT

With a chubby faced baby girl crawling around his chair cooling to herself and with the spectators in his courtroom doing their best to keep from laughing, the official dignity of Justice Bell was ruffled, if not badly upset, yesterday afternoon while hearing a case.
 Not content with clambering up and down the short flight of stairs leading to Judge Bell's diaz, the baby waddled around the table in the courtroom, climbed up and jumped off the witness stand and playfully pushed a chair around.
 It was only after her mother, who had been arrested on a charge of wanton destruction of property, was discharged by Judge Bell, and had left the courtroom with the baby, that quiet was restored and Judge Bell secured a firmer hold on his official dignity.
 The baby is the daughter of Mr. Gwen Bowen, who was arrested following a complaint made by Catherine Walker, the owner of some apartments at 422 1/2 Union avenue. It was charged that she cut up a large piece of linoleum on the floor of one of the rooms.
 After hearing the evidence Judge Bell decided it was not sufficient to hold the woman to the grand jury and she was dismissed.

Smith Gets Better Transportation.

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.)
 Salem, Or., May 22.—The state railroad commission has entered an order in the case of the Frank L. Smith Meat company against the United Railways company and the S. P. & S., in which the companies are directed to arrange their schedules so as to transport livestock in carload lots from North Portland to Stockdale during the afternoon and evenings of Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday of each week. The companies are given 20 days in which to put the order into effect.

Thinking of an Auto?

With fine weather upon us, the roads in good condition and the numerous pleasant outing spots to be visited, many start to think about an automobile. Perhaps if you know of a bargain in a car you would not hesitate in making a purchase. There are bargains to be had; it's just a matter of knowing where to locate them. Suppose you watch The Journal's automobile column in the classified section for a few days. Splendid bargains have been picked up through watching these little ads.
