Twenty-fifth Anniversary of Church Will Be Observed With Appropriate Program,

The Swedish Tabernacle people will tomorrow celebrate their twenty-fifth anniversary at the Tabernacle, corner Glisan and North Seventeenth streets. The program provides for three meetings. Commencing in the morning at 16:30, the work of the Sunday school will be reviewed by S. R. Rehnstrom, superintendent of the four Sunday schools of the church. This will be followed by five minute talks from different Sunday school workers. At 11 o'clock A. Backstrand, secretary of the church for over 20 years, will read a short history of the progress of the church during its 25 years of activity.

This review will be followed by five minute talks of former church prestdents. At noon the pastor, Rev. Thoren. will give an address, his subject being, Praise Ye the Lord." The afternoon service at 8 o'clock will be a Fellowship service, to which the Swedish churches and pastors of the city have been invited. Pastors of different churches will give short addresses. The evening service will commence at 7:30, with praise and song service.

Former pastors will then speak on the reneral subject: "God With His People: Choughts of Encouragement," At the porning service the children's choir will sing. At the afternoon and evening the regular church choir will render several

C. E. Convention

Plans are beginning to form for the conducting of the annual state convention of the Christian Endeavor societies to be held here on July 8d and 4th in connection with the second World's Citizenship Conference. Originally the meeting had been planned for Klamath Falls, but owing to the transportation conditions at the present time encountered in reaching that place, it was postponed. Several invitations have been coming in to G. Evert Baker, the state president, for the holding of this meeting, but the best one was that of Dr. James S. McGaw, the secretary of the Citizenship Conference, and accordwas accepted. The convention land Congregational church conducted a speakers on these days will bring their

Rehearsing Play

Frequent rehearsals are rapidly round ing the play, which is to be given by the young men's club of Pilgrim Congregational church, into shape for presenta-tion Friday, June 6, in the auditorium of the Jefferson high school. Efforts are being made to widely advertise the affair and to interest the young people of the churches of the surrounding district. Prizes have been offered to the person selling the highest number of tickets. A feature of the evening will be the ainging of the male chorus between the acts. This chorus is composed of 16 men from the church. The following persons will take part in the play: George Cots, Ethel Sundberg, Ed. Meyer, Julia Hedlund, Earl Paulsen, Winifred Williams, Otto Voelker, Sadie Thompson and Lowell Patton. Proceeds of the play are to go into the new building fund of the church for the purpose of erecting a social and gymnasium hall adjoining the church.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR SOCIETIES WILL HOLD PICNIC MEMORIAL DAY

First Annual Affair to Be Celebrated at Oswego Lake-Program of Contests,

The afternoon and evening of Friday. May 30, Decoration day, is to be the time for a gathering of Christian Endeavorers, when the members of the various societies of the third district union, consisting of societies north of Sullivan's gulch, will hold their first annual pionic at Oswego lake, seven miles from Portland, on the Jefferson street branch of the Southern Pacific.

The party will leave Jefferson street depot on the 12:50 train, special accom-modations being provided for them. Each society is being asked to appoint a transportation manager, who will col-lect the fares during the week from those expecting to make the trip, and will then purchase the tickets necessary for his society, on Thursday evening.

Side Trips Planned.

This plan is suggested to save a congestion at the depot on Friday. Arriv-ing at Oswego headquarters will be established at a point on the bank of the outlet of the lake, close to the power station, which is about a half mile directly south of the depot. The early afternoon will be spent in party trips to the points of interest surrounding the lake, boating and enjoying the scenery.

At 4:30 p. m., everyone will assemble at headquarters to enjoy a program of sports, to be participated in by both men and women. Among the events scheduled are a 100 yard dash, hop, skip and jump, 200 yard dash, half mile run, relay race, standing broad jump and three novelty races. There will also be a girls' baseball game and a pie eat-

At 6:50 p. m., supper will be served. Those unable to come with the main party at 12:50 can take a train at 5:30 and arrive in time for supper. The evening will be spent around the campfire, toasting marshmallows, telling stories and wil be closed by a brief devotional service. Returning, the young people will leave Oswego at 9:80, arriving in Portland 10 p. m.

Young People Invited

All young people, members of C. E. societies, their personal friends and relatives, and church people are invited to join in the celebration. Some societies outside of the third district territory are planning to attend also.
