EVENTS IN SOCIET

By Nona Lawler.

ATURDAY, June 7, will be the opening of the new Waverly Golf club, and dinner parties will be numerous that evening. A number of the matrons foremost in the exclusive set will be hostesses at elaborate dinner parties at the club, with dancing following.

Mrs. Charles T. Whitney gave a bridge party of four tables Tuesday afternoon with a few additional guests for tea later in compliment of Mrs. Ruther-ford Hartz, wife of Lieutenant Harts of Vancouver barracks. Mrs. Thomas B. Honeyman and Mrs. William Hamilton Toas will preside at the tea table.

Lieutenant Toas, U. S. N., and his wife, who have been stationed in Portland for the past two years, expect to be wife, who have been stationed in Pot-land for the past two years, expect to be transferred shortly to the eastern coast. Mrs. Whitney's guests included Mrs. Jay J. Morrow, Mrs. James D. Honey-man, Mrs. Frederick Alva Jacobs, Mrs. J. D. Parrell, Mrs. William A. McRae, Mrs. Honey-Mrs. Mrs. Mrs. Mrs. William Hamilton Toaz, Mrs. Thomas D. Honeyman, Mrs. Walter F. Burrell, Mrs. James A. Dougherty, Mrs. Chester G. Murphy, Mrs. S. T. Morey, Mrs. Alexander A. McDonell, Mrs. Mor-ris H. Whitehouse, Mrs. Elizabeth Free-man, Mrs. Adrian Fleming and Mrs. Rutherford Hartz.

Mrs. Holt C. Wilson entertained Thursday afternoon with a luncheon in compliment to her niece, Mrs. George Wallace (Georgiana Burns) who came from her home in the east last week a short visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Burns.

Monday Mr. and Mrs. William Ladd Miss Lillian Buenner, Thornton Ladd and Henry Ladd will leave for New York for the wedding of William Sar-seant Ladd to Miss Mary Babbott. Miss Babbott is the daughter of Frank L. Babbett of Brooklyn. The wedding is to be June 5, at the country place of the bride's father on Long Island, near Glen Cove. The services will take place at tives and a few intimate friends and in the evening a large reception will be

The young people plan to pass most of the summer abroad, after which they will settle in New York, where Mr. Ladd will finish his course in the New York College of Physicians and Surgeons, at Columbia university.

Miss Buehner, who is the fiances of son received a charming guest prize.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. Froehlich again entertained with bridge and an informal tea following. There were seven tions were of pink tulips and haw-

Thursday afternoon Miss Alice Gene-rieve Doughtery was the motif of a delightful luncheon given by Mrs. Oliver

Jeffery, There were covers for 12 guests grouped about the table which was artistically arranged with yellow daisies. gherty, whose engagen has been in Portland for a number of

Louis, Mo. Miss Dougherty is a charming girl with a wide circle of friends, and is also a clever violinist. She is the daughter of Mrs. Edward Dougherty and a sister of Mrs. Villard Kiel. The wedding date is not yet set but will be a quite and simple ceremony, with only the

Mr. Robert S. Bean entertained Wednesday at luncheon in compliment to

Mrs. Nellie Condon McCornick of Eugene, who is visiting here. Eight guests circled the board and they discussed during the course of the afternoon the remarkable fact that all present were native Oregonians. The guests were Mrs. McCornick, Mrs. Thomas Strong, Mrs. Harry Miller, Mrs. James

Failing, Mrs. Charles E. Wolverton,

Mrs. Harriet McArthur, Mrs. Edward

P. Geary, Mrs. Ormand Bean and the

In compliment to Mrs. William Bertram Watson (Pauline Fithian), of Harrogate. England, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orrin H. Fithian, for the past month. Mrs. Fithian gave a charming tea Tuesday after-noon, the appointments of which were effectively carried out in lavender, the "Dix" colors, a sorority of which Mrs. Watson is a popular member. About 125 guests called during the afternoon. Mrs.

Fithian received in a charming gown of embroidered net in the copper tones, made over silk, which shaded from the

Mrs. Watson wore a becoming gown of king's blue charmeuse, with over-drape of cloth-of-gold, brocaded in blue bloom, except in the dining room, which was beautifully arranged with lavender orchids and sweet peas, with quantities of maiden-hair ferns. Miss Frances Giff, Miss Ethel Clark, Mrs. Frank Mc-

Cauley and Mrs. Oliver Walker presided at the table. At the punch-bowl Mrs.

Herman Claussenius and Mrs. Clifford

Assisting in receiving were Mrs. Thomas Brittain Foster, Mrs. Paul Froehlich and Mrs. Frank Heitkemper.

Friday Mrs. Watson left for New York, from where she will sail for home May

Thursday and Friday afternoons Mrs.

George Eastman entertained at her home in Irvington for her sister, Miss Elsie Brooks, and Mrs. C. B. Hurtt, of at cards each day with about ten addi-tional guests for tea following. The rooms were beautifully arranged with quantitles of Scotch broom and clusters highest honors were held by Mrs. J. C.

Costello and Mrs. Hutchinson and Friday by Miss Dagmar Korell and Mrs.

A feature of the afternoon at tea time was the singing of Mrs. Ursula

Ellison Young, accompanied by Mr. Von

About 250 guests called Tuesday eyening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Prudhomme on Twenty-fourth and Irving streets. The occasion was the tenth anniversary of their wedding. A charming array of flowers made a beautiful setting for the many hand-somely gowned guests who thronged the rooms of the attractive home of the Prudhommes. The drawing room was filled with pink flowers, roses, carnanished music throughout the evening were screened with quantities of Scotes orchestra in the music room tions and the fragrant gilly flower. An

There were eight tables

The rooms were decked in Scotch electric blue to the copper tones.

of the same shade.

Marshall served.

Boise, Idaho,

of yellow rose buds,

Robert A. Hudson.

eder orchids and sweet peas.

have been sent out.

relatives present,

Miss Hilda Whitmore of Hampshire, England, who is the much feted guest of Mrs. David T. Honeyman, was the honor guest at two charming affairs Thursday and Friday, given by Mrs. Thomas Scott Brooke and Miss Ella Hirsch. Mrs. Brooks had an informal party Thursday evening and Miss Hirsch gave a charming luncheon with bridge following Friday afternoon. esday Miss Cornelia and Miss Cully Cook took a party motoring to the post at Vancouver in her honor to see polo game. Mrs. Victor Johnson will compliment the visitor next week

Flowers and the many expressions of good wishes are finding their way to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Beebe (Caroline congratulating them on the arrival last Sunday at 1 o'clock of a baby daughter. The little girl is to be named after Mrs. Beebe's twin sister, Mrs. Arthur Murry Sherwood (Evelyn Wil-

Mr. and Mrs. G. Kirkman (Lisa Wood) Smith are receiving the congratulations of their many friends on the arrival, Tuesday, of a baby daughter.

Dr. and Mrs. John N. Coghlan (nee Guerin), who have been east and abroad since their wedding in January, expect to sail for home the first week in June.

The Catholic Women's League gave a reception in honor of Archibishop Christie Tuesday evening. The rooms were elaborately decorated with Scotchbroom, Dogwood and huckleberry, with the orchestra half hidden behind a screen of palms. The table was decorated in the papal colors, yellow and purple and centered with a basket of yellow doronicums, with streamers of purple satin, vellow candlesticks and candles. In the receiving line were: Archbishop Christie, Mr. and Mrs. John Manning and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Presiding in the dining room were; Mrs. J. R. Wiley, Miss Mary McKay, Mrs. A. J. Hoban, Mrs. J. E. Cronan, Mrs. M. Zan, Mrs. J. P. O'Brien, Mrs. Thomas Erskine and Mrs. Edward Boyce, assisted by the Misses Dugan. Maguire, Marie Fitzpatrick, Clark, Meehan, Alice Hughes, Eliza Cunningham, Eleanor Roe, Catherine Roe, Ethel Mackiney and Mrs. M. Jobson,

The ladies who had charge of the arrangements were Mrs. W. E. Coman, Mrs. John Manning, Mrs. J. H. Kern, Mrs. John Maginnis, Mrs. J. F. Clarkson, Mrs. J. D. Sullivan, Mrs. B. Gildner, Mrs. A. C. Smith, Mrs. F. W. Isherwood, Mrs. J. C. Costello, Miss Helen Clark, Mrs. D. J. Maher, Miss Caroline Cleason Miss M. R. Burke, Miss Clarissa Wiley, and the Misses Healy.

Mrs. Fitz-Howard Jarvis of Oakland. Cal. who has been the guest of her sister-in-law. Mrs. Arthur Fish and Mrs. Arthur L. Finley for the past four months left for her home in the south Friday evening. She entertained at luncheon and an informal bridge following Friday afternoon at the Portland hotel. The guests were: Miss Anna Finley, Mrs. Arthur L. Finley, Mrs. William Finley, Mrs. P. W. Blanchard, Mrs. Luther Steele, Mrs. Thomas Farrell and Mrs. Arthur Fish.

Miss Fay Nichols was hostess at an informal tea Wednesday when she entertained for Miss Lucile Smith, brideelect. About 30 girls of the younger set called during the afternoon, Cards have been sent out for large bridge party June 4 to be given by Mrs. Lewis C. Mead at her home in Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Paul E. Froeblich entertained with a luncheon

Invitations - Announcements

Engraved Visiting Cards Hurd's and Crane's Fine Stationery

At Home and Reception Cards Monogram Stationery

W. G. Smith & Co. white. Clusters of white snow balls were about the room and the table from which a buffet juncheon was served

Society Card Engravers Third Floor, Washington Building Fourth and Washington

Misses Pauline Farrell and Frances Bernadette Prudhomme and young Master Wilben Prudhomme, the two little girls holding the card trays. Mrs. Mary Norden, Miss Frances Norden, and Miss Lorena Prudhomme as-tables at cards and about 20 additional guests who called later. The decorasisted the hostess in receiving. Mr. and Mrs. Prudhomme stood in the drawing room. Mrs. Prudhomme was thorne in the living room, pink sweet charmingly gowned in peach crepe me-peas, hawthorne and snap dragons in the dining room, and in the library lavteor with over drape of lemon chiffon with embroidered pattern of pearl beads. Miss Norden was attractively gowned Mrs. H. L. Chapin and Mrs. C. C. in pale blue chiffon over satin in the same shade, with trimming of white lace and touches of coral and black Newcastle will receive at a large re-ception May $1, at Mrs. Chapin's home in Irvington. About 250 invitations velvet. She wore a corsage of pink

Miss Prudhomme was prettily gowned in white embroidered marquisette.

Mrs. Norden was attired in gray crepe de chine with cream lace trimming. Miss Mable Beck and Miss Elizabeth Wills presided at the punch bowl.

chiffen trimming in gold embroidery. June to Thomas Jay Ward. Mr. Ward Miss Wills wore a striking gown of black brocade with bodice of pink chiffon draped in silver lace, In the dining room Miss Lucille Delahunt, Miss Irene Flynn, Miss Mayme Helen Flynn, Miss Josephine Cronan,

Mrs. A. D. Monteith and Mrs. J. T Edwards, served. Miss Delahunt wore a pretty frock of white chiffon with pink rose buds. An interesting fact is that Miss Delahunt was the tiny ring bearer for Mr. and blue crepe meteor with gold lace elabo-Mrs. Monteith was gowned in Mrs. Prudhomme at their wedding ten years ago.

Mrs. Edwards was gowned in peacock mally announced this week. Miss Viola Barenstecher, who will entertain in compliment to Miss Lauritzen Tuesday afternoon, crepe de chine with beaded chiffon

From left to right-Miss Alma Lauritzen, whose engagement was fordrape.

Miss Irene Flynn was charmingly attired in a watermelon shade of brocaded charmeuse with trimming white lace ruffles and lace about corsage.

Miss Flynn was gowned in yellow satin with gold lace trimming. Miss Cronan was attractively gowned in sage green chiffon and she wore a corsage of Richmond buds. A number of delightful solos were much enjoyed during the evening which were rendered by Miss Irene Flynn and George Hotchkiss Street. Mrs. Bruce J. McDonald arrived the months' visit here with her sister. Mrs. A. S. Dresser, and her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. John Baird. Mrs. McDonald will be remembered as Miss Grace Baird before her marriage. She has hosts of friends in the city, especially among the young people, as she was for some time a teacher at the old high school on Fourteenth and Morrison streets. Since her wedding she has made her home in the east, in Flint, Mich. Thursday afternoon she was at home informally to her friends at the home of her sister, Mrs. Dresser, at 321 East Thirty-fourth street.

Mrs. Rudolph Prael presided at a luncheon Friday afternoon. Twelve guests circled the board, which was attractively centered with spring

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Mathiot announce the engagement of their second daughter, Marguerite Mathiot, to Chester A. Wheeler, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Clar-

Mrs. Clarence J. Wheeler was hostess at an elaborate pink and white "bridge" Thursday afternoon at her home in Irv-ington. The house was bright with spring blossoms and prettily gowned women, 53 of whom engaged in the popular game. Late in the after-noon when refreshments were served, er's knots announced to each guest the engagement of Mrs. Wheeler's son Chester to Miss Marguerite Mathlot. hostess was assisted by Miss Irene Brandes, Miss Beth Ludlaw, Miss Margaret Dixon and Miss Genevieve Orton. Card honors fell to Mrs. A. R. Draper and Mrs. Frank Menefee.

An interesting engagement is an-nounced of Miss Maud Dammasch to Raymond Read Smith of Seattle. Miss Dammasch is the daughter of Mrs. Louis Dammasch. She is a charming and accomplished girl, with many friends. She is possessed of a beautiful soprano voice, and has passed three years in Berlin and Dresden studying. She is the sister of Mrs. A. E. Schopff and Dr. field, Mrs. Herbert Brank, Mrs. H. Ferdinand H. Dammasch. Burntrager, Mrs. Charles L. Boss, J.

Mrs. Edwin H. Bell and her daughter, Mrs. Elwood Hendershott, have sent out cards for a military whist party for Mrs. Elwood Hendershott, have sent out cards for a military whist party for June 8. There will be six tables arranged.

Mrs. Chester Deering, Mrs. Charles Freemont Bunker, and Mrs. Frederic Evert Harlow entertained Friday afternoon with an elaborate reception at the home of Mrs. Deering in Irvington in Compliment to Mrs. Roy Oscar Yates and Mrs. Allan Langdon Leonard. The hours were from 1 to 5 and about 250 guests called. Assisting the bostesses in receiving were Mrs. E. S. Jackson, Mrs. Mrs. Frederick Eggert, Mrs. E. J. Furbeck, Mrs. Frank Freeman, Mrs. R. J. Furbeck, Mrs. P. E. Froelich, Mrs. Fouch, Mrs. Ellen Frank Freeman, Mrs. A. J. Glesy, Mrs. A. R. Grant, Mrs. W. H. Grindstaff, Mrs. Grant Gordon, Mrs. Z. H. Greenough, Mrs. Roscoe P. Giltner, Mrs. C. Lewis Mead, Mrs. Sterling W. Hughes, Mrs. Charles E. Runyon, and Mrs. Lawrence H. Knapp pouring and Mrs. Lawrence H. Knapp pouring and Mrs. Harster Harlow Miss. Parts of Groomes, Mrs. R. P. Graham, Mrs. Wal-Mrs. Lawrence H. Knapp pouring and Miss Harriet Harlow, Miss Beulah Hayes, Miss Marjorle Cameron, and Miss Neva Bonnewell, who assisted in serv-

The house was beautifully decorated in a color scheme of pink. Sweet peas, carnations and snapdragons were effectively arranged with greens of maiden hair fern and huckieberry. The dining table was centered with the carnations and in the other rooms clusters of sweet peas and handsome May baskets of carnations were hung from the ceiling.

Many beautiful costumes were worn.

During the afternoon delightful musical numbers were given by the Multiful manufacture. The proposed with the carnations of the ceiling.

Many beautiful costumes were worn.

During the afternoon delightful musical numbers were given by the Multiful manufacture. The proposed with the carnations of the ceiling.

Mrs. W. Humason, Mrs. Wintrop Hammond, Mrs. S. W. Hughes, Mrs. George M. Hyland, Mrs. Charles Hegele, Mrs. Howe, Mrs. M. L. Holbrook.

Mrs. W. P. Hawley, Mrs. M. L. Holbrook.

Mrs. S. W. Hughes, Mrs. George M. Hyland, Mrs. M. Herring, Mrs. L. A. Harlow, D. J. Haynes, Mrs. Paul D. Haas, Mrs. E. Hofer, Mrs. William Ingold, Mrs. C. W. Irwin, Mrs. Frank Robert Johnson, Mrs. Wintrop Hammond, Mrs. W. P. Hawley, Mrs. M. L. Holbrook.

Mrs. S. W. Hughes, Mrs. George M. Hyland, Mrs. Charles Hegele, Mrs. Howe, Mrs. M. L. Holbrook.

Mrs. S. W. Hughes, Mrs. Paul D. Haas, Mrs. M. L. Holbrook.

Mrs. S. W. Hughes, Mrs. Paul D. Haas, Mrs. M. Herring, Mrs. L. A. Harlow, D. J. Haynes, Mrs. Paul D. Haas, Mrs. Charles Hegele, Mrs. Howe, Mrs. M. Herring, Mrs. Charles Hegele, Mrs. Howe, Mrs. Herring, Mrs. Charles Hegele, Mrs. Howe, Mrs. Herring, Mrs. Charles Hegele, Mrs. Howe, Mrs. Herring, Mrs. Herring, Mrs. Herring, Mrs. Herring, Mrs. He tively arranged with greens of maiden

Mrs. Leonard was charmingly gowned

in white charmeuse with lace corsage and over drape of rose point and pearl ley, Mrs. Robert Aldrich, Mrs. E. H. An-thony, Mrs. John Annand, Mrs. Clyde B. Aitchison, Mrs. J. P. Bronaugh, Mrs. E. L. Bayley, Mrs. H. A. Brandon, Mrs. J. C. Bryant, Mrs. George W. Boschke, Mrs. W. W. Banks, Mrs. Carleton Bills, Jas. R. Blair, Mrs. John Beall, Mrs. M. F. Brady, Mrs. John H. Bur-gard, Mrs. H. R. Burke, Mrs. S. B. Barker, Mrs. M. C. Banfield, Mrs. Charles Banfield, Mrs. A. E. Butter-

Ferdiband H. Dammasch.

Mr. Smith is the son of Mrs. Georse Ellis Smith, and brother of Clarence C. Smith, a former Portlander, but who how resides in Tacoma. The family home was in Chicago before their recent residence in Scattle. Mr. Smith is a graduate of Champaign University in Illinois. He is a member of the Delta Tau Delta fraternity. Tau Delta fraternity.

The wedding will take place June 25 at the Dammasch home on Mount Tabor, and will be very quiet, only the relatives attending. They will make their home in Seattle.

Alfred H. Clark, Mrs. Louise G. Clarke, Mrs. William Oscar Chase, Mrs. J. C. Costello, Mrs. William Oscar Chase, Mrs. Cruikshank, Mrs. H. E. Coleman, Mrs. Calhoun, Miss Calhoun, Mrs. B. E. Curry, Mrs. F. O. Cooke, Mrs. J. C. Cameron, Mrs. A. C. Chaloupka, Mrs. L. Campbell, Mrs. A. C. Chaloupka, Mrs. Calhoun, William Cake, Mrs. A. C. Chaloupka, Mrs. D. Charlton, Mrs. R. D. Cannon, Mrs. R. J. Chipman, Mrs. N. U. Carpenter, Mrs. F. T. Chapman, Mrs. B. E. Curry, Mrs.

H. Greenough, Mrs. Roscoe P. Giltner, Mrs. E. L. Giltner, Mrs. H. Butterfield, Mrs. A. St. Clair Gay, Mrs. Groomes, Mrs. R. P. Graham, Mrs. Walter Guild, Mrs. A. B. Gritzmacher, Mrs. W. A. Gordon, Mrs. William Groh, Mrs. W. A. Hathaway Mrs. Dick A. Hathaway, Mrs. Frederic W. Henningser, Mrs. H. K. Haak, Mrs. W. Halvor, Mrs. H. O. Hickox, Mrs. Joseph A. Hill, Mrs. E. A. Heppner, Mrs. Elliot Habersham, Mrs. During the afternoon delightful musical numbers were given by the Multnomah hotel artists, Miss Bonnar, Mr. Stark and Mr. Johnson.

The hostesses and honor guests were charmingly attired. Mrs. Deering wore an electric blue Chinese slik crepe with a Dresden pattern in the same shade and trimmed in Venetian lace.

Mrs. Yates was gowned in white brocaded charmeuse with crystal beaded overdrape.

Mrs. Bunker wore a black and white chiffon gown with old lace elaborations.

Mrs. Leonard was charmingly gowned

Mrs. Leonard, Mrs. C. A. Lyman, Mrs. C. A. Lyman, Charles L. Loveland, Mrs. O. A. Lyman, Charles L. Loveland, Mrs. O. A. Lyman, Mrs. B. M. Lombard, Mrs. Lee L. Loomis, Spokane, Wash.; Mrs. William Lucas, Mrs. John F. Logan, Mrs. Charles Lewis Mead, Mrs. Alexander Macpherson Mrs. beads.

Mrs. Harlow wore a becoming gown of Nell pink charmeuse trimmed with cream lace.

The list of invited guests was as follows: Mrs. S. B. Archer, Mrs. M. A. M. Ashley, Mrs. D. R. Atkinson, Mrs. C. Allen. Mrs. H B Adams, Mrs Roscoe Ashler, Mrs. Harlow Mattern, Mrs. Charles A. McKinfey Mitchell, Mrs. Charles A. McKinfey Mitchell, Mrs. Charles A. Mrs. ler, Mrs. Mattern, Mrs. Charles A. Mc-Kenzie, Miss Helen McCusker Mrs. T. McKenzie, Mrs. R. F. Monges, Mrs. B. F. Meredith, Miss Etta Morris, Mrs. W. J. Morrison, Mrs. E. C. Mears, Mrs. B. J. Miles, Mrs. D. E. Miles, Mrs. E. E.

WORRELL'S SALE

Another surprise Suit and Coat price for Monday and Tuesday only - 200 new Spring Suits to choose from, values to $25-

Merges, Mrs. Harlow Moore, Mrs. W.

Mercerdan, Mrs. Dan J. Moore, Mrs. Theodore Nicolai, Miss Lucy Nicolai,

Mrs. R. C. Nickum, Mrs. H. M. Ogden,

(Continued on Following Page.)

Coat sale unsurpassed in the history of coat sellingnavy mixtures, checks, black and whites-values to $30, 2 days only-

Sale Fine Suits-All of our fine Tailored Suits, New York's best producers of fine garments for women, $45, $50, $60 to $75-Monday and Tuesday

$29.85

The Largest Specialty Cloak and Suit House on the Coast. See our windows Sunday surely. Watch our windows and prices.

Corner Sixth and Alder Streets, Opposite the Oregonian

All Lines That Will Be Discontinued In the New Store at Sharp Reductions

To quickly dispose of the many lines to be absolutely discontinued in our new store, and to accomplish our desire to open the new establishment with a complete new stock, startling price reductions have been made on all lines without reserve, except on contract goods.

Removal Sale Prices On Diamonds, Watches, Jewelry, Bronzes, Cut Glass, Sterling Silver, Art and Leather Goods

Now is the time to anticipate the demands of the season—gifts for the June bride, in fact, anything in our line, for whatever purpose for you will never again be confronted with such a phenomenal saving opportunity. Every article in our stock represents the utmost in quality and design—every price means a saving from a third to a half.—This sale is backed by forty-five years of successful merchandising right here in Portland. Could you ask for better assurance of its merit?

Established 1868

A.& C. Feldenheimer.

283-285 Washington St., Bet. 4th and 5th Sts.