

SOCIAL EVENTS of the WEEK

T. Hauk, 655 East Sixty-sixth street north for several weeks, will leave Tuesday evening for her home in De-troit, Mich. Mrs. Deane has made many friends during her stay in Port-land, and has been the motif of num-erous entertainments.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. C. W. Steele, 211 East Fifty-second street North, en-tertained the Sewing Teachers of Westminster Guild of the First Presby-terian church. They were Mrs. Maize, Mrs. Brazelton, Miss Macey, Miss Nel-son, Mrs. McKay and Mrs. Blumington.

Friday evening the St. Rosa's Cath-olic church gave a card party at their hall on the Alameda. Five hundred was played and prizes awarded the lady and gentleman who scored the highest, also consolation prizes.

The committee in charge were Mrs. C. H. Still, Mrs. C. C. Lightfoot, Mrs. H. Medernach, Mrs. Fred W. Goodrich, Mrs. C. E. Bascom, Mrs. T. J. Ryan, Mrs. P. J. Kollmer, Mrs. Kelley, Mrs. John Wournik, Mrs. J. P. Wagner, Mrs. F. J. Lichtenberger, Miss Mary Conaty, Miss Grace Kyne and Mrs. Helfert.

PIEDMONT

The courts of the Piedmont Tennis club have been put in readiness for the summer games. This club, which is composed of the younger smart set of the community, has been holding meet-ings on the first Monday of each month during the winter. The next meeting will be held on Monday, June 2 at the home of Chester Stipe. The officers of the club this year are: President, Everett Jewett; vice president, James Gavin; treasurer, Francis Dekum; secre-tary, Theodora Stopenbach.

Mrs. John Burgard left the last of the week for Rickreall, Or., where she will visit her mother, Mrs. W. E. Clark. Mrs. Burgard expects to return about the first of the month.

Mrs. H. R. Albee addressed a large number of the ladies of Piedmont at a meeting held in the Piedmont Pres-byterian church on Wednesday after-noon. The meeting was called by the members of the Women's Auxiliary and was very well attended.

Mrs. William E. Fisher, Mr. Harry E. Fisher, and Mr. George Fisher, who have been the house guests of Mrs. T. N. Stopenbach for the past two weeks, left on Thursday for their home in Toledo, Ohio. The Fishers visited exten-sively through the southern states, and will stop at Victoria and also Vancouver, B. C., on their return trip.

A wedding of interest to Piedmont people was that of Miss Sylvia Monkers and Mr. P. A. Binford, which was solemnized on the afternoon of April 24 at the White Temple, Mr. W. B. Hinson officiating. The bride was very at-tractively gowned in a traveling suit of "king's" blue cloth with a row of the same tone. There were no attend-ants. After the ceremony, lunch was served at the Hotel Portland, where the table was prettily decked with spring blossoms. Covers were laid for 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Binford will be at home to their friends at their fifth ave-nue home on Williams avenue after August 15.

The sisters of the Holy Redeemer school are planning a pupils' recital for the first week in June, to be given at the school hall on Vancouver avenue. Among those who will take part are Miss Francis Schonweller, Miss Francis Van Pasten, Miss Esther Circle, and Master Darrell Circle.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Smith of Astoria have taken up their permanent resi-dence in Piedmont.

On Wednesday evening of this week the Ladies' Sanctuary society will give a card party and social in the Holy Redeemer hall on Vancouver avenue. These parties are held once a month and are eagerly anticipated by the members of the church.

GARRISON NEWS

Bridge, Five Hundred and Auction parties filled almost every afternoon during the last week, and with an in-formal hop on Friday night. The "ladies' night at the officers' club" on Tuesdays, and occasional theatre parties, the evenings, too, are planned for. A number of infantry officers came down on Saturday night from the ta-ble range, and will return tonight.

The paper chase will start at the usual hour this morning. Last Sunday the hares were Captain Charles How-land and Lieutenant Gill. They were never caught by the hounds, but Mr. Leadbetter, of Portland, and Lieutenant Beatty, of the garrison, came in a close second.

On Monday afternoon Mrs. Robert A. Wilson was at home informally to a number of friends. A humming contest caused much merriment. The prize, a Jainty handkerchief, went to Mrs. Pierce. Refreshments were served at 5. Mrs. Wilson's guests were Mrs. F. J. Pierce, Mrs. E. H. Phinney, Mrs. J. L. Lutz and Mrs. John H. Page, Sr.

Mrs. Lutz and her daughter, Mrs. Charles Harlow, gave a delightful auc-tion-bridge party on Tuesday. There were three tables, with the silver salt dishes and tiny spoons as prizes for each table. At tea time Mrs. Fred Fos-ter poured. The guests were: Mrs. Walter Boswell, Mrs. John H. Page, Jr., Mrs. George Clarke Rockwell, Mrs. James Canby, Mrs. Harold Taintor and Miss Elizabeth Grady.

Mrs. Louisa Bern was hostess on Wednesday afternoon at a very pret-ty party for a number of friends. Tempt-ing refreshments were served late in the afternoon.

One of the largest affairs of the week was the Bridge and Five Hundred party on Thursday afternoon, when Mrs. Her-bert C. Gibner and Mrs. Tarleton were joint hostesses. The double parlors were profusely decorated in pinks and Scotch broom, and ferns. The dining room was in pink and white snowballs.

and soft pink shaded candles were used on the table, where Mrs. George S. Young poured. Mrs. Ralph W. Hoyt served salad, and Mrs. Jere B. Clayton cut the loaves. In the same room Mrs. Walter K. Lloyd presided over the punch table. Others assisting were Mrs. Elmer Clarke, Mrs. Rutherford Hartz, Mrs. McKellar, Mrs. A. R. War-field and Miss Mae Foster. The follow-ing ladies were present: Mesdames, James Canby, Elmer Clarke, Adrian S. Fleming, Wilks, Cromwell Stacey, Ralph W. Hoyt, A. B. Warfield, McKellar, Lu-clus H. Beuret, John Hagerman, Allen Parker, Rutherford Hartz, Robert Phin-ney, William Scott, Walter K. Lloyd, Abraham Buffington, Cleward McLaugh-lin, Bernard Lentz, George C. Rockwell, Robert A. Wilson, Oliver P. Robinson, Fred W. Bugbee, John H. Page, Sr., John P. Richardson, Walter O. Boswell, George S. Young, Harold Young, Wilson Chase, Charles Harlow, Lautz Harold Taintor, Fred W. Foster, Mrs. Mae Fos-ter, Marjory Page, Mrs. James Honey-man, of Portland, Elizabeth Grady and Brambilla.

The four prizes went to Mrs. Taintor, Mrs. Elmer Clarke, Mrs. Allen Parker and Mrs. Abraham Buffington.

Mrs. Cleward McLaughlin was a charming hostess on Friday afternoon. Three tables of bridge were followed by a large tea, at which most of the garrison ladies were present. The McLaughlin quarters were artistically dec-ored in pinks, dogwood and Scotch broom, with many ferns and bunches of Oregon grape. A number of garrison ladies assisted the hostess, and delicious refreshments were served at 5 o'clock.

Mrs. Daniel Houghton on Tuesday evening from Oakland, Cal. Captain and Mrs. Hand's two children will finish their school term in Oakland before coming home.

Mrs. Walter T. Bates, who has been the house guest of Mrs. Wilson Chase for the past week, left on Tuesday.

Captain John H. Page Jr. will leave here about the 27th for Camp Perry, Ohio, where he has accepted a detail to try out for infantry rifle team. Lieu-tenant C. C. Rockwell was also desig-nated, but did not accept.
