

COMPLETE COUNT GIVES ALBEE LEAD OF 6241 VOTES

Strength of McKenna in Second and Third Choice Columns Makes His Total Almost Equal Rushlight.

NEARLY ONE HALF OF VOTERS "SINGLE SHOOT"

Total Number Who Went to Polls Was 44,973; Considered Light.

Complete Returns From All Precincts.

	First.	Second.	Third.	Total.
Kellaher	2,413	2,529	4,136	10,078
Rushlight	15,916	2,853	1,707	20,476
Albee	21,350	2,940	1,627	26,917
McKenna	3,538	12,423	6,387	22,348
Smith	1,758	1,348	3,318	6,924

Complete returns from all precincts give H. R. Albee a lead of 6241 votes over A. G. Rushlight, his nearest competitor in the mayoralty contest. Mr. Albee will be the next mayor of Portland.

One of the surprises of the complete count is the narrow margin between the vote for Rushlight and McKenna. Rushlight's total is 20,476; McKenna's, 20,348—a difference of but 230 votes.

The prediction that McKenna would receive second and third choice votes from both the Albee and the Rushlight supporters was verified. In number of second choice votes McKenna led the ticket with 12,423 to Albee's 2940 and Rushlight's 2853, or considerably more than the total of second choice votes received by all other candidates for mayor.

The total of first choice votes cast for all mayoralty candidates was 44,973, while the total of second choice votes cast for all candidates was 23,193, showing that about half the voters indulged in the practice of "single shooting" or voting for but one candidate.

Compared to his first choice vote Kellaher won a considerable proportion of the second and third choice votes. He had more second choice votes than first, and more third choice votes than second.

The followers of Smith, on the other hand, gave him more first choice votes than second, while the sum of his third choice votes is more than his first and second choice votes together.

The total vote cast, this including first, second and third choice votes, was 84,741. It will be noticed that the total of second and third choice votes was almost equal to the total of first choice votes.

Between answering telephone calls, shaking hands with callers by the score and accepting their congratulations, H. R. Albee found time this morning to talk interestingly of some of his aims and purposes as the next mayor of Portland.

Mr. Albee was at his desk in his office in the Concord building. Except for the almost constant succession of visitors and telephone messages, with now and then a telegram or two, there was nothing to indicate that he had just come victorious through a strenuous political campaign. Quiet, unassuming.

There are five of these departments, public affairs, finance, public utilities, public improvements, and public safety. The mayor takes one of these departments himself, and assigns each of the four commissioners to a department.

The mayor is also elected for four years. After the election two years from now, however, all officials will hold for four years.

If first choice votes only had decided Monday's city election, and there had been no second or third choice voting, Ralph C. Clyde would have been elected instead of W. L. Brewster as the fourth commissioner. The case of these two

SUFFRAGETTE GRASPS KING'S COLT AT DERBY AND IS FATALLY HURT

Miss Davidson Runs on Course and Catches Her and Jockey. Crushes Her and Jockey.

Epsom, England, June 4.—An attempt by suffragettes today destroyed all chance of King George's colt Anmer winning the Derby. Miss Elizabeth Davidson was probably fatally hurt when she ran upon the course at Tottenham corner and grasped Anmer's bridle. The colt reared high, and then, with his jockey, Herbert Jones, fell flat on the woman's body. She was terribly crushed. Jones, the jockey, was hurled to a hospital. His condition is serious. The colt was not badly injured.

Miss Davidson, who is 35 years old, was terribly mutilated by the horse's hooves. Several minutes after the occurrence she gave no sign of life, and a report spread that she was dead. After doctors reached her side, however, she showed signs of recovering and was taken to a hospital.

Miss Davidson is a prominent militant suffragette. She joined the "votes for women" propaganda in 1905, and has been arrested many times. Recently at Aberdeen she horse-whipped a preacher whom she mistook for Chancellor Lloyd-George.

Jockey Jones is suffering from concussion of the brain.

MATAMORAS CAPTURED BY MADERIST ARMY

Brownsville, Texas, June 4.—Following a 24 hour battle, the federal garrison at Matamoras, Mexico, at 5 o'clock this morning surrendered to General Lelio Blanco, the Maderista commander. Blanco immediately opened the port of entry and invited American physicians to cross the border and attend the wounded.

Burgons returning from the front report heavy losses on both sides, but no definite estimates were obtainable. Many bodies were found in the electric light plant, the federal stronghold, defended by ground mines and live wires. The Constitutionists occupied the customs house. Residents of Matamoras are flocking back to the city.
