

MARKET STARTS WEAK BUT DOES BETTER AFTER AWHILE FOR GOOD FRUIT; COMPLAINTS OF HARD CENTERS IN THE GOLD DOLLAR VARIETY.

For the purpose of finding exactly where the trouble lies in many boxes of apples being broken or the fruit damaged in transit to foreign countries, the department of physical conditions of the Northwestern Fruit Exchange of this city has for several months been conducting a very exhaustive investigation on the subject of export packages for apples. The percentage of broken and damaged boxes has been entirely too large, and bruised fruit in all packages has been too much in evidence.

WESTERN FRUIT EXCHANGE BEGINS INVESTIGATION OF CAUSE OF SO MANY BOXES ARRIVING ABROAD IN A BAD CONDITION.

That there should be an improvement in the method of handling into and out of steamships. This matter has been agreed by them many times and marked improvement has already been made by some carriers. Many other shippers are now joining in the demand for a more thorough investigation of this subject, and we have been invited to cooperate with the department in their work.

KILLERS ARE STILL OVERSUPPLIED AND THEREFORE ARE NOT ANXIOUS TO TAKE HOLD; SHEEP ARE IN A LIKE POSITION HERE.

There was another big run of hogs in the hog trade yards overnight, reaching 1517 head, compared with 228 a week ago, 318 a year ago and 129 head this same day two years ago.

HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS WORTH OF PRODUCE ALREADY WASTED BY FLOOD; SOME LEADING FIELDS FOUR TO FIVE FEET DOWN.

Hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of vegetables have been ruined in nearby districts by high water in the Columbia and Willamette rivers. The losses in the best districts and will reach tremendous figures. In the Troutdale section, the losses are appalling and mean the ruin of some of the best producers there.

HIGH WATER INTERFERES WITH EXPORTS AND PRACTICALLY NO BUSINESS IN SPOT IS REPORTED; CONTRACT MARKET IS FIRMER.

By John Inglis. Enid, Okla., June 5. — About half of the wheat here is so light it will blow out from the machine if they thresh it. Most farmers say they will feed with-out threshing, and as western Kansas is later, the condition which speaks for themselves. The weather is clear and hot. Oats gone, corn good.

TENTATIVE LIST PRESENTED TO SENATORS; PAGE WILL GO TO ITALY, PENFIELD, AUSTRIA.

Washington, June 6.—President Wilson's promised budget of diplomats was handed to senators yesterday. It is the most important one he has yet made public and the announcements will not be officially made until the president has heard from the various governments to which he wishes to name representatives.

BOY DIES OF INJURIES RECEIVED WHEN POLE ROLLS OVER HIS BODY.

Roseburg, Or., June 6.—Oscar Smith, aged 19, died here today as the result of injuries sustained while playing on a pole of telephone poles here last Saturday. The pole became dislodged, one of them passing over the boy's body, literally driving his face into the hard ground.

GETTING CHEESE TOO HIGH

Efforts of certain interests to force an advance in the price of cheese here at a time when the market is about to be marketed, in meeting with resistance and this has caused a repetition of the unprofitable manipulation of last year's market. Puget sound interests have ordered Wisconsin cheese, which can be landed there at about the same price that some are asking for the Oregon product.
