

HALF OF FEDERAL TROOPS KILLED IN SANTA ROSA FIGHT

American Says Constitutionalists' Aim So Good That Nearly All Injured Were Shot in the Head.

(United Press Leased Wire.) San Diego, Cal., June 13.—Bringing probably the first authentic information of the true situation confronting President Huerta, the hopelessness of the present administration, and an eye-witness' account of the bloody battle of Santa Rosa, state of Sonora, Royal C. Stephens, has arrived here today. He formerly was with the Southern Pacific in Guaymas.

Accounts of the Santa Rosa fight on May 9, which have reached the United States, have been rigidly censored by the federalists, who minimized their losses. According to Stephens, the Huerta troops lost between 800 and 1200, of their army of 2000 men, and were sent back upon Empalme 20 miles away, in utter and humiliating rout. The federalists were trapped in a pocket formed by the hills and picked off by the Sonora state troops under Colonel Obregon and the Yaqui Indians under the renowned Chief Bule.

The state rebel army has been estimated at 5000 men, plentifully supplied with a carload of ammunition smuggled across the line from the United States. So accurate was the aim of the American and the rebel troops that nearly all of the 350 wounded who were taken and who struggled into Guaymas were shot in the head.

Released Prisoners Listed.

Most of the federal soldiers, Stephens declared, were released prisoners from Mexico City, who had been forced into the army and were ready to desert to the constitutionalists. An instance in fact of one company, all but eight of the members of which deserted, the captain shooting himself.

The federalists had been given to understand that they were to fight the Yaquis only and were incensed when they found differently. They were a most pitiful sight after the fight, while their unseemly losses are known to have been trifling. In spite of federal "official announcements," General Gill, the federal commander, was wounded after his rout.

Now, says Stephens, Guaymas and El Palme are the only points in Sonora still held by the federalists and they are bound to fall shortly. Only the traditional Mexican policy of delay has permitted those two places, which are neighboring towns, to remain with the government forces.

Will Stay for Mexico.

"When these fall," said Stephens, "everybody expects the state troops, now thoroughly aroused, to set out for Mexico City, gathering additions along the line of march and go clear into Mexico City, which cannot hold out. The Huerta army is in bad shape, many of the prisoner-soldiers being commanded by cadets 16 and 17 years old. After the fall of Guaymas, which is deemed certain, the Sonora rebels are expected to march on Mexico City in two columns. The capitol is expected to hold out only a short time."

The people of Sonora, Stephens said, were forced into rebellion by Huerta. They simply wished to be let alone. They had no quarrel with the central government and objected when the operations of the federalists against the remaining Maderistas in Chihuahua came to their doors.

Fighting for Principles.

"They really are fighting for a principle," said Stephens today. "They receive no pay for their military service and expect none. They are of the better class of Mexicans and deplore the state of war which undoubtedly will continue for some time to come."

At the time of the battle of Santa Rosa, the French aviator, had not arrived to aid the rebels in their attack on Guaymas, but he was expected. The federal gunboat Quercero, which he was supposed to attack, was grounded during the Santa Rosa fight and took no effective part.

Each side appears to be resting at present and another fight is expected at any time. The battle at Santa Rosa is declared to have probably been the most bloody of any of the recent revolutions with the possible exception of the fight in the City of Mexico, which culminated in the fall and murder of Madero and the accession of General Huerta to the doubtful honor of the presidency."

ATTENDANTS QUICK TO GIVE POUNDINGS SAYS OLD PATIENT

Lee Johnson, Beaten, Soon Died, Testifies Former Inmate; Cripple Said to Have Been Mauled.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Spokane, Wash., June 13.—A sensation was sprung here today in the investigation by the state board of control into conditions at the Medical Lake insane asylum, which were declared to be deplorable in affidavits filed several days ago, when Superintendent J. M. Semple declared that records of correspondence to other asylum officials had been stolen from his office.

Richard Bowler, a discharged attendant, when questioned by the board at first denied, then admitted that he took the records and placed them on the desk of Attorney Pelletier, who secured the affidavits of alleged abuse.

Pelletier said that he had found the records in his desk, but did not know who brought them.

After an hour's argument the wrangle was cut short by Chairman Jones. "No difference how the records reached Pelletier," said Jones. "They are as good one place as another, as far as the investigation is concerned."

Attorney Pelletier will attempt to prove that "blacklisting" of discharged employes existed in the institution through the correspondence in his possession.

Walter Hunt, a former inmate of the Medical Lake asylum, recited a story of numerous beatings he had received personally and of cruelty to a crippled man named Ramser, who he testified, was knocked down by Attendants Yates and Cobb and terribly beaten.

Hunt also told of a beating administered to Lee Johnson, an inmate, who died shortly afterward.

W. J. BRYAN WILL TOTE LUNCH BASKET TO WORK

(United Press Leased Wire.) Washington, June 13.—Secretary Bryan made another bid for fame as a Democrat when he announced today that beginning next week he will carry with him each morning to the state department a real, sure enough lunch basket.

"My wife has already bought the basket," said Bryan today. "I figure I can save an hour's time by eating my lunch in my office. And I can do a little dieting as well."

Secretary Bryan made no announcement as to what he will get for "eats." It is also a mystery as to whether a bottle for grape juice will be packed into the basket he is to tote.

ADVISED TO IGNORE GOVERNOR'S PARDON

Alex Rossi is still in the city jail, although Governor West issued a pardon for him yesterday. It appears that Rossi was convicted under the city ordinance of being a vagrant, and was sentenced by Judge Tawell to serve 90 days on the rockpile. Rossi was working under the direction of Sheriff Word in obtaining evidence against disorderly houses.

Pollie Bergant Lyens caused Rossi's arrest. Evidence at the trial before Judge Tawell was given by two women of the underworld, who told that Rossi had threatened them with arrest if they did not give him money. Rossi denied making such a threat. The evidence against him was exceedingly slight, but Sheriff Word is conceded in police circles to be the predominating element that caused Rossi's sentence of 90 days. Similar cases are given much smaller sentences. City Attorney Grant today advised Chief Slover to ignore the pardon and hold Rossi.

Third Case From Idora Raid.

The third damage suit arising out of a raid on the Idora hotel on June 23, 1912, is before Circuit Judge Cleston. Thomas R. Wise is plaintiff in this case and is asking for $15,000 damages against Chief of Police Slover and 13 members of the force. The first of the four cases which rose from the raid, brought by Orin Stires, was ended in a voluntary non-suit. Judge Gatens non-suited 11 of the defendants in the second case brought by Harry Stires and dismissed a verdict for the other two defendants. The fourth suit by Alma Pierson is still pending.

S. B. WENT GETS IMPORTANT PLACE

Newspaper Man Will Be Corporation Examiner Under Commissioner Watson.

S. B. Vincent today forwarded to San Francisco his resignation as Portland manager of the Associated Press, to take effect June 24. Mr. Vincent will accept an appointment under Corporation Commissioner Ralph Watson as chief corporation examiner of the commission. He will begin his new duties as soon as his resignation from the Associated Press becomes effective.

Mr. Vincent is one of the best known of Portland's newspaper men. He served two terms as president of the Press club, and has been secretary of the Manufacturers' association for several years. He is very familiar with business organization and his appointment to a deputy corporation commissioner is considered most appropriate.

TOMORROW IS DAY TO HONOR OUR FLAG

Numerous Ceremonies of Presentation and Raising Planned Here.

Tomorrow is flag day, the one day in the year set aside for citizens of the United States to honor the stars and stripes. It will be observed throughout the country.

In Portland a number of ceremonies will be held tomorrow morning for the presentation and raising of flags in playgrounds, parks and public buildings.

At 10 o'clock tomorrow morning the Multnomah and Willamette chapters of the Daughters of the American Revolution will celebrate the day by a joint meeting and flag presentations.

The Willamette chapter will present the Mount Taber school with a big American flag. The ceremonies will be held at the school building and the children will join in the exercises.

During the afternoon the Multnomah chapter will meet at the home of Mr. James Gray in Milwaukie and with members of the Willamette chapter as guests will present two flags to Portland playgrounds.

At the St. Johns school and the Linton school exercises were held today in honor of the flag.

LOGGE'S FRANK SAVED SUGAR LOBBY $16,000 INVESTIGATORS TOLD

The committee is also determined to ascertain who gave Palmer authority to charge the printing of anti-free sugar arguments to the public printing office. Government printing office clerks have been subpoenaed and will be subjected to a rigid examination.

Strong intimation that President Wilson had "lobbied" in connection with the tariff bill was made by Senator Gallinger of New Hampshire. His statement caused a profound sensation.

"When a man says that he would 'hang someone as high as Haman' if that person didn't do certain things and that an inquiry which proposed was reductions and did so would be investigated," Gallinger said, "I think it is about the worst kind of influence I can imagine."

Asked by Senator Nelson what he thought of a public official who gets up a scare about an insidious lobby, Gallinger said:

"I think he intends to influence public opinion and the opinion of public men."

"Would you regard it as a species of lobby?" persisted Nelson.

"I would not like to say that," was the answer, "but I think it is a species of lobby."

HANDS UP, AND DOWN THE COAST, PORT TOWNSEND

New Union Formed by Royal Oaks and Royal Rosarians at Luncheon Today; Former Acts as Host.

A new Pacific coast union was formed at the luncheon tendered by the Royal Oaks of Oakland to the Rosarians of Portland in the Hotel Oregon this afternoon. It was a union of like minded to increase the reasons why visitors should come to the coast, to pass them along from city to city until the wonders and beauties of the entire district had been seen, friendships formed and dollars gathered.

The toast that sealed the union was "Hands Up, and Down, the Pacific Coast." Oakland as host received the tribute of a toast in the form of a yell, O-A-K-L-A-N-D, Progress and Prosperity O-A-K-L-A-N-D, Oakland, Oakland, Oakland!

An toastmaster Fred E. Reed, monarch of the Royal Oaks said:

"You people up here are too good. You treat your visitors too well. You can take a lesson from that beautiful city Los Angeles, where they welcome all the visitors, and let them play host to themselves. You ought to plan to get the money they don't. That's the way we feel in Oakland. No matter what others do we are going to work for the entire Pacific coast and all the cities on it. We have learned lessons in hospitality from Portland."

"The Pacific coast is bigger than any state on the coast. The interests of all are immensely greater than the interests of one. I propose the toast, 'The Pacific Coast for the Pacific Coast, all the time, everywhere,'" said C. C. Chapman, who was given an ovation by the Oaklanders when he rose to speak.

"To the common concerns of us all," proposed W. J. Hofmann, prime minister of the Rosarians.

C. C. Craig, Frederick Hyskell, C. C. Collet of Pasadena and others were speakers at the luncheon. The luncheon was spread on long tables with the Rosarians at the first, Oaklanders at the second and Eugene Radiators, Pasadena and Seattleites at the third. The decorations were Caroline Testout roses.

The Commercial club and the Rosarians will be hosts to the visitors at a reception in the Commercial club this evening. Ladies are invited and are expected to be present.

Two carloads of the Pasadena Knights of the Rose will return to their California home with steamship lines to Seattle and British Columbia tomorrow. The Royal Oaks will extend their tour to include Tacoma, Spokane, Victoria, Vancouver and Spokane, leaving at midnight tomorrow night.

PARADER HURT WHEN MOUNT FALLS DOWN

Dr. B. O. Coates, a well known physician of Pasadena, Cal., and a member of the Knights of the Tournament of Pasadena, was severely injured yesterday afternoon just before the horse and vehicle parade broke up.

Dr. Coates was one of the Knights in the mounted division and was riding a spirited horse. At the intersection of Fourteenth and Yamhill street his horse slipped on the pavement and went down the doctor under it. The physician was stunned, his wrist was broken, and it is believed he sustained a slight fracture of the leg. An X-ray water piped to each electric light; two stations on property; moderate restrictions; 30-minute ride from Jefferson station; 10-minute ride from the city. RICH VETERAN GIVES GETTYSBURG SHORTAGE

(United Press Leased Wire.) Seattle, Wash., June 13.—H. C. Henry, capitalist of this city, and veteran of the Civil war, who fought at Gettysburg, announced today that he would donate the $5000 necessary to complete the fund to send all of the Gettysburg veterans in Washington state who have applied for transportation to the reunion at the battlefield.

The state has appropriated $15,000, but 46 more veterans than this would provide for submitted proof that they had fought in the great battle. A special train will take the 164 veterans east.

BURNSIDE BRIDGE TO BE CLOSED FOR REPAIRS

The Burnside bridge, which is badly in need of repairs, will be closed to traffic at some date in the near future. No definite date has been set yet. The materials for the reconstruction of the east side approach are on hand, and that part of the bridge will be entirely rebuilt with a steel viaduct over the railroad tracks on East First and East Second streets.

PORT TOWNSEND

Portland Chamber of Commerce Is Investigating Possibilities for Northern Pacific Extension.

The transportation committee of the Portland Chamber of Commerce is devoting considerable attention to ascertaining what the prospects are for traffic for a railroad line from Port Townsend to Olympia, running north and south across a goodly portion of the Olympic peninsula. Should conditions appear to justify the action, the chamber will join in a strong petition to the Northern Pacific railway to build the proposed line.

The matter was brought up some time ago upon initiative of the Port Townsend Commercial club, but the local chamber has not yet taken actual action, since it has not been in possession of the necessary data upon which to base its final decision.

The Port Townsend Commercial club has during the past several weeks furnished Portland merchants with literature showing the trade of the Olympic peninsula and possibilities for development and information has also been supplied the chamber. The Northern Pacific now has a line from Port Townsend north, about one-third the distance between Port Townsend and Olympia, and it is this stretch of road that the Port Townsend people are anxious to have extended that they may have a direct outlet by rail. Under existing conditions communication with the outside world has to be carried on by steamers on Puget sound.

The Port Townsend people contend that with the proposed railroad link completed, Portland would find an excellent route for reaching the Alaskan markets, as Port Townsend would be reached with steamship lines to Alaska in competition with those from Seattle. It is pointed out that when Port Townsend and Portland are connected by rail, Seattle will no longer be a corner on the Alaskan business, which amounts to millions of dollars each year, but Portland would, through Port Townsend, receive a very material percentage thereof.

FILE INJUNCTION SUIT AGAINST SHERIFF WORD

An injunction to restrain Sheriff Word from interfering with the operation of the Linton Bowling club is asked in a suit filed yesterday by Attorney Stott and Collier. The club occupies the property formerly owned as the Hut, a roadhouse on the Linton road, and it is claimed that only members are allowed to visit the place. Sheriff Word ordered the place closed Monday night and had complaints filed against W. C. Collier.

Aged Brothers in Good Health

MR. JOHN HENLEY, Sr., 85 years old, and Mr. WM. HENLEY, 55 years old. Mr. John Henley, Sr., in a recent letter said: "I have been using Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey for the past 8 years and I have been enjoying good health. Others read the testimonials for this Pure Malt Whiskey, which is a good medicine."

Mr. Wm. Henley writes: "I take pleasure in recommending Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey to all old people. I have been using it for 31 years. I am 55 years old and I find it a great blessing and I intend to use it as long as I live."

The experience of both these men is similar to that of thousands of men and women who have been brought back to a state of health and vigor by using Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as directed. Many learn its great medicinal value first from their own family doctor. Others read the testimonials for this Pure Malt Whiskey that they wish to aid fellow sufferers.

"Be sure you get Duffy's—It's reliable."
Sold in SEALED BOTTLES ONLY by most drug-gists, grocers and dealers at $1.00 a large bottle. Our advice is a valuable medicinal and food product.
