

SHERIFF REPORTS TAX DELINQUENTS

Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Co. Heaviest on Personal Tax List.

Sheriff Word this morning reported the list of 15 largest delinquent personal taxes unpaid for the years 1915, 1914 and 1913. The Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Co. was delinquent on the tax of its franchise for all three years, and was the heaviest taxpayer delinquent. The Western Union Telegraph company was delinquent for the same reasons during the three years. The Postal Telegraph company for the same reasons left taxes unpaid for 1915 and 1916, and the Portland Telephone & Cable Co. in the same state for 1915. Other delinquents are: 1915—Reed-French Piano company; Portland Coffee & Spice company, out of business; Golden Eagle Dry Goods company; William Hunkel, dairy; Arnie Mills company; 1914—The Portland Telephone company; Catherine Tracy, goat; Clackamas Lumber company, out of business; the Pence company; F. J. Cook, out of business; Frank Rickett, one half paid; August Erickson. 1913—F. Dresser & Co., bankrupt; Columbia Coville Steamboat company, claim paid on steamer Neator and Weonen in Coville county; Andrew Kan & Co.; Marine Iron Works company; Smith, Grant & Co.; Pacific Steel & Wire company; S. Davidson, "busted"; the Pence company; L. B. Burroll and the Clackamas Lumber company, on money and accounts; Title Guarantee & Trust company, and E. A. Covell, out of business. 1909—Title Guarantee & Trust company; E. J. Covell, out of business; Waterhouse & Lester; McAllen & McDonnell, one-half paid; Pacific Steel & Wire company; S. Davidson, "busted"; the Pence company; L. B. Burroll and the Clackamas Lumber company, on money and accounts; Title Guarantee & Trust company, and E. A. Covell, out of business. The 13 delinquents in 1915 amounted to $7,058.78; in 1914 to $11,313.22, and in 1913 to $8,756.42. No information has been made yet by the commissioner as to what use the list will be put.

YELLOW PINE TIMBER SALE BRINGS RECORD PRICE TO UNCLE SAM

Hilgard Lumber Co. Gets 72-680,000 Feet at $3.05 Per Thousand.

In a sale announced today by the sales department of the United States forest service the price of $3.05 per thousand lumber feet is to be paid the government for yellow pine timber. That is the highest price that has ever been received by the government for this kind of timber. The purchasing company is the Hilgard Lumber company of Meacham, Umatilla county. The contract, which was recently closed, gives the company the right to cut 72,680,000 feet of lumber. The timber is located in township 11 south, 33 east, on the Burnt river watershed of the Whitman national forest. The best former price that has been paid the government for yellow pine was $2.85 per thousand, offered in a deal closed a couple of months ago. The Hilgard company has cut out all of its old holdings, and as it has a substantial plant at Meacham, it was felt necessary to get standing timber near the mill. Consequently a little higher bid was made than would otherwise have been the case. There is 62,000,000 feet of yellow pine to be cut. The balance of the timber sold consists of western larch, Douglas fir, white fir and lodge pole pine. The timber is located in township 11 south, 33 east, on the Burnt river watershed of the Whitman national forest. The contract provides for an increase in the timber price, according to the market three years hence and six years hence. The cutting period extends until February 15, 1919.

CURSE THE TOLD HIGHLY UNLAWFUL

Federal Inspection of Imported Stocks Not Required by Statute, Assertion.

Protection of the legal rights of nurserymen of the country during the year was reported this morning by the legislative committee of the American Association of Nurserymen. William Pitkin, reporting for the committee on legislation east of the Mississippi river, told of efforts his committee had exerted towards successfully fighting some of the more drastic provisions of the federal horticultural bill relating to importation and quarantine. One beneficial result accomplished, he said, was to have repealed that section of the law which demanded that each and every article imported by a nurseryman should have a special permit showing it to be free from bug or other infection. As the law has been amended it will be possible to make an importation of stock under a blanket permit. Mr. Pitkin reported that the popular impression among nurserymen that the new federal law provides for federal inspection of imported stocks is erroneous, and that a close study of the law shows no such provision is made. The law provides that stocks to be imported must be inspected abroad, and that they are free from federal inspection but liable to state inspection in the United States. It was reported that the legislative committee had found the federal horticultural board, having charge of the operation of the law, very fair, and that its members had listened with reason to the explanations and requests of the nurserymen. The nurseryman's chief opposition to the law as it now stands is that it gives the board full power to establish quarantines against stock. Victory for the nurserymen in a fight against state inspection laws was reported by Peter Youngers, chairman of the legislative committee west of the Mississippi river. Mr. Youngers reported on a Colorado case in which the courts held that a state inspector of nursery stocks has no authority to destroy stocks without being personally liable. "The effect of this decision," said Mr. Youngers, "will be to stop the arbitrary destruction of stocks by state inspectors. It should result in a law that will require inspectors to pass proper examinations before being given authority to work. We feel that young, inexperienced inspectors have no right whatever to step in and destroy or condemn nursery stocks because they may think they are insect infested." Mr. Youngers reported that other cases of interest to nurserymen are now being fought out by the legislative committee in Montana and Wyoming. The convention voted thanks to the chairman and members of the legislative committee.

BIG CANADIAN ROAD TO ESTABLISH OFFICE HERE IMMEDIATELY

Grand Trunk Pacific Enters City to Make a Bid for Business of This District.

The Grand Trunk Pacific railway system is ready to establish an office in Portland and the location will probably be announced this afternoon. J. H. Burgess, general agent with headquarters at Seattle, arrived in Portland this morning, and with Dorsey B. Smith, local agent, inspected the various locations from which the selection will be made. The Grand Trunk Pacific is the only all Canadian transcontinental line and has 4755 miles of track, 3958 miles of which are of the parent line. The general offices are at Montreal, Canada, and Alfred W. Smithers, of London, England, is chairman of the executive board. Mr. Burgess said this morning that the road has enjoyed a considerable amount of business from this district for some time and as it has shown a rapid increase of business he wishes to establish an office here which he hopes will develop in importance as rapidly as have the offices elsewhere. While Mr. Burgess does not make any rash promises, it is understood that the Grand Trunk office will be as elegant as any other railroad office now in the city.

Yale's Stroke, Who Collapsed, and L. Stephenson, Yale's No. 3, are both in bad shape.

At 2:30 o'clock the wind died down and the rain which had been pelting into the Thames during the morning racing events, died away. It was reported that $150,000 was wagered on the race, and just before the start the odds shortened to 10 to 8, and from 10 to 6 1/2 on Harvard. Outlasting Yale so far that the race was hardly a decent paddle for them. Harvard's four oared crew today scored another triumph over the blue, winning the "variety" fours by four lengths. The crews started at 9:40. Harvard immediately went into the lead, and rowing easily and powerfully, pulled away until at the mile the crimson was full two lengths ahead. At the three quarters the crimson was six lengths ahead. They had slowed down and paddled easily to the finish. The official time for the "variety" fours was: Harvard 11:52, Yale 12:11. The four oared event was rowed in a pouring rain, despite which the banks of the river were packed with spectators. Secretary Daniels and party of his friends viewed the event from the yacht Delphin. Today's race was regarded as a contest between the British and American styles of rowing. Harvard sticking to the American style, while Yale imported British coaches, shells, "tubbing" and oars. It is reported that Averill Harriman spent $50,000 to pay the expenses of the British coaches who have been living on young Harriman's palatial yacht during training. Yale graduates, after the four, admitted they are disgusted with the showing of the blue, asserting that the British shell and rigging are obsolete. "I wonder what old man Courtney of Cornell would say if he saw the Yale layout. I wonder what would happen if Yale entered the race at Poughkeepsie tomorrow." The freshmen eights were sent away at 10:32. They showed a much better contest than the fours, Harvard finally winning by a length and a half. The freshmen eights took the water together in a perfect downpour of rain which was driven by a strong wind. Harvard used a long, sweeping stroke. Yale was quicker and jerky. At the mile Yale was a length behind and at the two miles had lost four lengths. The Crimson crew then let down in its stroke and Yale pulled up rapidly to the finish. The official time of the freshmen eights was: Harvard, 10:41; Yale, 10:45.

STEAMSHIP OWNERS LOOKING THIS WAY

The Portland Chamber of Commerce this morning received another inquiry from an Atlantic seaboard steamship company as to possibilities of making this city a port of call on a route by way of the Panama canal, from coast to coast. A comprehensive statement touching on all conditions is requested. The numerous inquiries of recent date indicate strongly that shipping interests in the Atlantic coast are following closely the progress of the canal project and stand ready to place vessels in commission the moment prospects justify it. To answer all these inquiries the chamber, through its new trade commissioner department, is gathering the most accurate data and statistics that can be obtained. In addition to a statement of past business, river and harbor conditions, and port and general wharf charges, a careful compendium is furnished of prospective trade, such as a rail line would desire to study in deciding upon a permanent policy.

TACOMA COUPLE ACCUSED OF BEATING 5-YEAR-OLD

(United Press Local Wire.) Tacoma, Wash., June 29.—John Orr and wife are held in the city jail in default of $500 bail each for alleged cruel and inhuman treatment of Marjorie Govan, aged five, who was placed in their care by her father, David Govan, who has been missing for some time. The girl's body showed welts and discoloration, and Judge Gordon upon the application of Juvenile Officer Mrs. Margaret Dehan, issued a warrant for the arrest of the couple.

TIDAL WAVE, CYCLONE DEVASTATE FLORIDA

Tallahassee, Fla., June 28.—At least two negroes are known to be dead today and 10 others possibly were killed in a cyclone which visited this section. Fishermen report also that a tidal wave swept Marsh island, on the Florida keys, where several persons were drowned. Most of the fatalities occurred in sections inhabited by blacks. As meager details of the storm were learned the list of fatalities increased. Direct communication with the district has not yet been established. Some estimates of the dead reach more than 100. The storm came from the southwest, without warning. Fishermen who attempted to reach the scene to render aid encountered immense seas.

FAILING TO THROW GIRL FROM BRIDGE, MAN JUMPS, DIES

to the municipal dock. Here the machine was stopped and Mygatt seized Mrs. Allen and attempted to throw her over the bridge. Two men nearby went to her assistance and beat the frantic man off. Failed in his attempt to destroy Mrs. Allen, Mygatt leaped over the rail and landed on the ground 60 feet below. At the hospital before he died, Mygatt declared that he was angry at the woman because she left her baby in Portland. He also said that Mrs. Allen was his wife and that he was the father of the baby. All this Mrs. Allen denies. She declares her husband is in New York. On the dead man's person was found a letter to his mother, at Independence, Mo. It reads in part: "For what I am about to do I want to ask forgiveness. I expect that I am going to hell and I know you will go to heaven. I have been driven almost insane over Ruth and I don't know what to do." Mrs. Allen declares that there is a

MRS. CATT ELECTED TO HEAD SUFFRAGISTS

(United Press Local Wire.)
Budapest, June 29.—San Francisco and Berlin are rivals today for the next international suffrage congress. Mrs. Sewell today urged San Francisco's claim in a speech, which was loudly applauded. The congress today formally confirmed the election of Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt of New York as president. Tonight all the members of the gathering will be taken on a moonlight ride on the Danube. Mrs. Catt was also re-elected president of the International Woman Suffrage alliance. She was chosen by acclamation. The mystery behind the tragedy that she is not willing to make known.

LONG PRISON TERM FOR RUNNING DOWN MAN

(United Press Local Wire.)
Trenton, N. J., June 29.—Daniel A. Dugan, 47, of Trenton, who was a personal friend of President Woodrow Wilson, must serve a sentence of from five to 10 years at hard labor, according to a decision of the state supreme court which was rendered today. Dugan's conviction of manslaughter for killing Lee McDermott, a boy who tried to cross the street in front of Dugan's automobile. The accident occurred Christmas day, 1911.

BOOK AGENTS HIT BY NEW RULING OF JUDGE JONES

Book agents and others who make it a point to have houses sign contracts for books or other articles, which there is a scheme involved are going to have trouble in Portland if the rule set down by Judge Jones of the district court is followed. It has been the practice for agents to go from house to house and in the absence of their husbands, women would be persuaded to sign contracts for articles. The husband often times after learning of the signing of such a contract would refuse payment. Then he would be sued by the agent, as would also his wife, who signed the contract. Hereafter in all cases of this sort Judge Jones will find for the plaintiff only against the one signing the contract. While the law allows suit against a man and his wife under what is known as a family expense account, in Judge Jones' court judgment will be given against only one person.

EAGLES HAVE 1000 IN RAYMOND PARADE

(Special To The Journal.)
Raymond, Wash., July 20.—Today was the big day of the state aerial of Eagles. The parade at 10 o'clock being the chief attraction, although the bake at noon and the smoker tonight are equally so. Fully 1000 men took part in the parade this morning and more than one half of this number were fully uniformed. For the best appearance South Bend, in white with blue and red braid, won first prize, $75; Bremerton, No. 192, second, $50; Everett, third, $25, with honorable mention for Tacoma. There were three bands in the parade, which extended for more than eight blocks. The night's contest in the evening of degree teams was won by Bremerton Aerie, No. 192, which took the $125 cash prize offered by the state aerie. Seattle aerie won second prize, $75, and Everett third, $50. Centralia did not compete in the degree work, nor did Raymond have a parade. A big smoker will be held tonight.

450 GERMAN SINGERS COME TO SAENGERBUND

Walla Walla, Wash., June 29.—Representing 20 societies of the North Pacific coast, 450 singers have registered at the Saengerfest headquarters and it is estimated that in addition to the registered singers there are 300 other visitors here from outside points. The first big meeting will be at the Keeneville center this evening, when a concert will be given by the singers. They will be accompanied by a 40 piece orchestra, composed of local musicians. Los Angeles and Boise are making a strong bid for the next Saengerfest. Mayor Arthur Hodges of Boise and Governor John M. Halmes have sent telegrams urging that the next meeting be held in Boise, and promising support. The business meeting of the Saengerfest will be held Sunday morning and at that time the next place of meeting will be settled upon. The cities represented and the singers registered from each at noon were as follows: Seattle 62, Spokane 62, Portland 123, Los Angeles 15, Kailspelt 23, Lewiston 17, Salem 25, Baker 14, Vancouver, Wash., 20, Boise 27, Auburn 12, Everett 15, Chehalis 24, Tacoma 37.

HARVARD WINS 3 RACES FROM YALE IN EASIEST STYLE

at each leave, and fast as their pace was, the observers on the bank and the tugs which lined the course, saw they were rowing well within themselves and had plenty of reserve. As they came down the course, Yale bent with true bulldog pluck to the work. Her eight tugged and strained, handicapped by a short, choppy stroke, impeded by their English coaches, they failed to gain and simply tore out their strength against the deadly effectiveness of the Boston men. Losing ground with every inch their shell traveled, the Yale men stuck grimly to their stroke, working like demons, if they could not win to cut down the distance of their defeat. But their limit had been reached, and even in the last few hundred yards, despite the most desperate efforts, the crimson pulled steadily away and crossed the line fresh and strong. W. W. Crocker of Burlingame, Cal.

STATE GIVES COUNTY $10,173 FOR ITS FAIR

The first apportionment made by the state under laws passed by the legislature last year this morning by County Treasurer Lewis. The apportionment amounts to $10,173.46 and is to be used by the Agricultural society which has charge of the annual county fair in Multnomah county. Each county receives an apportionment from the state fund. This county fair money is raised by a one twentieth mill tax levy. While the law states that no county shall receive more than $10,000, it was found after the money had been apportioned that there was still a remainder and this was equally divided among the 33 counties. As Multnomah county already has a fair association it will not be necessary for the county to appoint a county fair board as the law provides. Object to Mrs. LaFrance. District Attorney Evans sent a letter to Sheriff Word this morning stating that Superintendent White of the Frazer home objected to keeping Mrs. J. C. LaFrance there on the ground that her presence was not conducive to good discipline. He requested that the sheriff take steps to care for Mrs. LaFrance and her children otherwise, Mrs. LaFrance is the wife of the man who disappeared and whose insurance was collected by her and after she had identified a body found on the Clackamas river as his. Deputy District Attorney Murphy is preparing to take the original charges against LaFrance before the grand jury this afternoon or tomorrow.

RELEASED FROM JAIL; BONDSMEN EXONERATED

E. E. Wedemeyer was released from jail and the bondsmen of Harry A. Start were exonerated today when Circuit Judge Kavanaugh upheld demurrers in each case. The two were awaiting trial in vice cases. They were convicted and appealed to the supreme court which reversed the convictions and ordered new trials. Judge Kavanaugh's action follows that of Judge Gatens yesterday when he decided that the amendment of the legislature to the law governing these cases precluded further prosecution because no saving clause was inserted to provide for the prosecution of pending cases. Other members of the vice clique will be released when proper legal steps have been taken by their attorneys.
