

STARBOARD AND LARBOARD FLINGERS LOOK ALIKE TO BIFFING BEAVERS

LARRUPING LOBER IS HERO OF 2-1 VICTORY OVER HAP'S PAYROLL

Ty Combines With Kores and Speas in 8th and 10th to Beat Gondoliers.

Little Ty Lober is worth his weight in solid gold to Portland. It was Ty whose wonderful one handed catch against the left field bleachers prevented the Gondoliers from skipping away with the game on one run in the first inning. It was Ty whose single to left field in the eighth tied up the score, and it was Ty whose single across second brought Kores home with the winning run in the tenth inning. Right handed and left handed gunning looked just the same to him yesterday, for it was off Roy Hitt that he made his second bingle. And don't overlook Billy Speas and Art Kores, when it comes to handing out the praise. It was Speas' sacrifice in the eighth that put Kores in position to tie the run after a walk, and it was his crash through Hitt in the ninth that put Kores on second again, following a hit to center.

Hitt West allowed 11 hits but the Portland crack tightened when a hit would have meant one or more runs. He was at his best when men were on bases. In the eighth Klepfer singled and Carlisle doubled to start it, but the next three could not deliver. In the ninth, with one out, Litzsch singled and McDonnell doubled, but Hogan and Pinchhitter O'Rourke couldn't produce the wanted bingle.

Poor old rheumatic Hap Hogan went behind the bat yesterday, and made the Beaver base runners look like a lot of school boys. He gave a flash of his old Tacoma Tiger form. It was not because Hap had any extraordinary speed in his arm, for he didn't. He just outguessed five of the would be base stealers and had the ball waiting in Brashear's hands for them.

With one out in the first, Kane scratched a hit through Lindsay. On a hit and run play Bayless drove through short and Johnny went to third, when he was scored on Brashear's "Cincy" hit to Speas. Bayless drove the ball into left field and Lober pulled off the spectacular catch of the year. He backed up against the fence, leaped into the air, and caught the ball with his gloved hand. Then he doubled Bayless out at second, Dick having no chance to get back. Melan replaced Bayless in the next inning and finished the game.

Klepfer, the new comer, pitched invariably until the eighth, allowing but three hits. He started it by walking Kores. Speas laid down a sacrifice. It was quite apparent yesterday that Speas is the only proficient man on the club at sacrificing. Lober saw a line drive to right field that lifted over Melan's head and Kores scored, but Lober was out stretching. Berry singled to center and West past first, but Hogan killed Berry's steal home, Hap to Brashear to Hap.

Carlisle opened the tenth by walking. Kane tried to sacrifice, but Berry, who caught a splendid game, pounced on the ball and surprised Walter by throwing him out at second. Melan filed to Deane and Berry nabbed Kane stealing.

After Lindsay fled to Carlisle in the second half, Kores singled to center. Speas hopped one through Hitt, who relieved Klepfer, when O'Rourke went to bat in the ninth. Lober ended it by smashing the ball across second.

FIRST PICTURE IN PORTLAND SHOWING ANDERSON KNOCKOUT.

Remarkable scene in the twelfth round of the Bud Anderson-Leach Cross fight in Los Angeles July 4, in which the New Yorker knocked out the Vancouver, Wash., boy. Anderson went down under a left uppercut, followed by a volley of lefts and rights to the stomach and a ponderous right cross to the jaw. In the photograph Cross is shown chivalrously helping to lift Bud up, while Manager Dick Donald has rushed into the ring and is reaching for his body to lift Bud to his feet. Note the puffed condition of Leach's left eye. The secret of the poor showing of Anderson came out under the surgeon's knife in a Los Angeles hospital yesterday. He was suffering from appendicitis, which formed, according to the surgeons, some five days before the fight and sapped his strength without his knowing it. It was thought upon first examination that Bud had an inflamed kidney, due to Cross' kidney punches, but that was not the case. Anderson has led a clean life and the operation will hardly affect him as it did Ad Wolgast, who, it is said, has not always led the simple life.

BUD'S APPENDIX CUT OUT AND CAUSE FOR POOR SHOWING SEEN

Concretion Formed Five Days Before Fight; Months Before He Can Fight?

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Los Angeles, July 9.—Lightweight Bud Anderson is rallying today from the effects of an operation for appendicitis performed at a hospital at Santa Monica. According to his surgeons and nurses, his complete recovery is assured, but it will be months before the husky little fighter can return to the ring—if ever.

Anderson was taken to the hospital late yesterday. Doctors had diagnosed his case as inflamed kidneys. A more careful examination revealed that he was suffering from appendicitis.

Anderson's friends, who in his illness the cause of his bad showing against Leach Cross at Vernon on July 4. It is believed certain that he was a sick boy when he entered the ring, for his doctors, following the operation, offered the opinion that the concretion removed from his appendix had formed as early as five days before the fight.

Owing to the fact that the operation was performed before the appendix broke, the doctors say there is a chance that Anderson's ring abilities will be unimpaired. They say, however, that the probabilities are that the boxer never will be possessed again of his full strength and ability to withstand punishment.

Anderson probably will rest a month in southern California before returning to his home in Vancouver, Wash.

Lynch Takes Spokane Team.
Vancouver, B. C., July 9.—Mike Lynch took charge of the Spokane team of the Northwestern league today and will be seen in the center field position against the Vancouver Beavers this afternoon. Lynch refused to state what he intends to do in regard to strengthening the team, but announced that as soon as Powell was able he would replace Coulson in left field.

LOS ANGELES BUNCHES HITS IN SEVENTH FRAME

Los Angeles, Cal., July 9.—The Angels won the first game of the series from the Oaks by the score of 5 to 3. Bunched hits in the fourth inning enabled the Angels to secure a lead too big for the Oaks to overcome. Second Baseman Leard, Manager Mitze and Pitcher Parkin and Ables were chased from the grounds for disputing decisions.

San Francisco, Cal., July 9.—The Senators gave the Seals a setback yesterday by handing Howard's players a 6 to 2 defeat. Dutch Klawitter pitched an excellent game for the Senators. PAT EASTLEY BLANKS TIGERS AND COLTS PUT UP 9TH STRAIGHT WIN

Flash Fitzgerald Makes Home Plate Twice by Skill on the Paths in Tigertown.

Tacoma, Wash., July 9.—When Pat Eastley put over a 2 to 0 victory on Tacoma yesterday it marked the ninth successive time that the Colts have whipped the Tigers in the two last series. Eastley held Tacoma to five scattered hits and was given perfect support in the field. Fitzgerald made both of the scores for the Portlanders. McGinnity switched around his batting order in an effort to shake a victory out of it.

Fitzgerald beat out a bunt to Belford in the fourth inning and took second on Guign's sacrifice. Mahoney came across with a double and brought Fitz home.

After Bancroft had singled in the eighth, Fitzgerald forced him out on an attempted sacrifice. Fitz stole second and took third on Guign's hit. This pair pulled off a double steal and Fitzgerald scored the second run.

Francisco, Harlem Tommy Murphy seems to have the inside track, being already tentatively signed up by Promoter Coffroth.

Several attractive offers from New York for 10 round bouts have been received by Ritchie, but the champion has turned them all down, declaring that he will not go east until cool weather comes. Ritchie as yet has not received any $20,000 offer for a bout with Jack Britton, as reported in dispatches from New Orleans.

Ritchie probably will leave for Los Angeles in a day or two to look over the situation there.
