S. S. Saxonia Carries Cargo Valued at $154,367; Maple Leaf Boat Due to Sail This Afternoon.

Carrying a cargo from here, having a total value of $154,367, the Hamburg-American liner Saxonia, Captain Neumann, second of that line to load here, | According to the report there were 261 sailed last night for Europe, via Puget violations of navigation and steamboat sound and the Orient. Her cargo consisted of flour, wheat, lumber, machin-ery, green hides and general freight.

Another liner bound for Europe with rargo from here, the Maple Leaf line Arna, is scheduled to leave steamer Arna, is scheduled to fown for the sea this afternoon. She will take out 2000 tons of barley, and 150 barrels of tallow for orders, and 1,575,000 feet of lumber for London. She will clear about 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The flour cargo taken out on the Saxonia amounts to 21,224 barrels, valued at $84,699 for Japan ports, Hong-kong and Manila. She has 46,667 bush-els of wheat, valued at $46,231, for Yokohama, logging machinery valued at $3325 for Hongkong; 1500 bushels of green hides, value $14,630, for Kobe; 50,076 feet of Oregon pine, valued at 12880 for Copenhagen and general 128880 freight valued at $2432 for other ports. The British steamer Harpalyce, un-fer charter to the Royal Mail Steam Packet company, sailed from San Franrisco for this port at 5 o'clock this morning and will be due to arrive here Friday morning to load a full cargo for the orient. She is a sister ship of the steamer Harpagus, which sailed from here recently on the same line, and she is scheduled to take out 10,500 tons, the cargo being now all ready for her. She will take all of her cargo here, but will go to Puget sound for bunkers. The steamer Falls of Orchy, now loading here, will sail at about the same time, taking 5000 tons from this port, the remainder of her cargo having been load-ed at Vancouver, Victoria and Seattle before she came here.

TEST BAR HARROW TODAY

Device to Be Tried on the Sands Opposite Astoria.

(Special to The Journal.) Astoria, Or., July 9.—The disc har-row constructed by the Port of Astoria commission for the on the Column commission for use on the Columbia river bar is being given a trial on the sands opposite the city today. Practically all of yesterday was consumed in loading the harrow on the Callender Navigation company's barge Buster, and getting it out to the sands. It required much hard work to get the harrow on the barge, but at high tide It was placed in the position desired. low water today the machine will be towed across the sands in order to see how satisfactorily it works and to get it adjusted. If the device works satisfactorily it will be taken to the channel above Tongue Point for a wir further test, after which it will be put Por to work on the bar at the mouth of the river.

COMPLAINTS FILED

for trans-shipment to New York. this 16 tons of tallow is scheduled for Constantinople. The remainder of the for cargo is made up of wool, rubber, junk, dry hides, and cattle hair from here. She will take on a shipment of salmon at Astoria,

MAKES ANNUAL REPORT

Chief Inspector Gives Statistics On Work of Customs Launch,

In his annual report to Collector of Customs Burke, Chief Inspector H. F. McGrath says of the operations of the United States customs launch H. W. Scott for the fiscal year ending June 30. 1913, that the number of engine miles, covered by the patrol were 5500; the to number of miles actually covered were 4600; the number of gallons of gasoline consumed, 1750, and the number of gallons of cylinder oil used, 76. During the year there were four persons rescued from drowning, ten boats that were disabled were towed into port and there were 12 lights on river beacons reported out.

inspection laws reported from the local office. Of these three were filed by the collector of customs and the revenue cutter Rush. There were $1378.40 in fines collected during the year, $395 from fines assessed during the year 1911-12, $20 on account of the cases reported by the collector and the revenue cutter Rush and $963.40 account of cases reported during the year 1912-13 by the inspectors with the launch H. W. Scott. The expense of operating the patrol launch during the year, says the report, including engineer's salary, boathouse rent, telephone, light, gasoline and supplies, amounted to $1697.80.

ALONG THE WATERFRONT

The steamer Shasta will sail tonight for San Pedro with 900,000 feet of lum-ber. She finished at Westport.

In ballast, the steamer Nehalem, Captain Tletjen, is scheduled to sail tonight for Gray's Harbor to load a cargo of lumber for California ports.

Carrying passengers and general freight, the steamer George W. Elder will sail tonight for San Francisco, Sau Pedro and San Diego. Captains Edwards and Fuller, United States inspectors of steam vessels, are in Astoria today making a reinspection of some craft in that harbor. The steamer F. P. Loop, Captain Mattsson, will shift to St. Helens tonight to complete her cargo of lumber for San Francisco. She cleared from here with 450,000 feet. The trial of Captain Roselle Coburn, master of the tug Resolute, on charges preferred by the collector of customs, will begin tomorrow morning before Captains Edwards and Fuller, United States inspectors of steam vessels. The charges are the result of the Resolute being on the course of the marine parade at the opening of the Rose Festi-VB

Sunset Beach, between Astoria Sesside, has no dance hall-it beach resort where your children be afforded every wholesome amuse bisolutely free. ia a will Sunset Besch has a most besutiful strand along the ocean, unmarred by projecting rocks and treacherous in-lets. Back from the besch, on the gentle slope down to the fresh water lake is as pretty a piece of turf as you eyer laid eyes upon. Here is a baseball diamond for the men and boys, a tennis court for the young ladies and their escouts and a croquet grounds for the children.

One of the features of this remort to the abundance of clams and crabs on he beach in front of Sunset.

The lake, over a mile in length, is alive with fish. A bathhouse and bathing pool in the lake make swim-ing absolutely safe for children. An attendant is always on hand. Boats on the lake are free—in fact, everything, even the wood for fuel in the Tent Colony at Sunset Beach, is free, deliv-ered to your tent.

Each tent is 12x16 feet and is spread on a board platform with wood sides. The Tent Colony at Sunset is supplied with running water for domestic uses. Everything is furnished except bed and table linen, towels and pillows.

The Tent Colony is located in the most beautiful part of the resort, close to the lake and only a few minutes' walk to the surf.

There is no dance hall with its row-dy carousnis, and all-day Sunday dese-cration at Sunset Beach. You can take your children to Sunset with absolute safety. It has not one unwholesome Round trip fare to Sunset, good for the season, only $4. Two fast trains each way daily. It is less than a 4-hour trip.

The tent capacity is limited, so make your reservations now. Only $3 a week. Store on the grounds where provisions are sold at Portiand prices. For full particulars see
