

LIVELY MEETING HELD AT LENTS Improvement Club to Work for Lower Fare, Playground Will Be Secured.

Lents, Ore., July 12.—A very successful and highly interesting meeting of the local Commercial and Social Improvement club was held last night at Seward's hall. There were more than 150 people present and all of them took interest in everything which was said.

At a meeting of the club several weeks ago agitation for a better local branch library was started but thus far nothing tangible has resulted.

Several other matters including better police protection, more lights, better fire protection, street naming and numbering and street and sidewalk improvements, were discussed but no definite action was taken.

The story hour at the Arieta branch library will be held Thursday afternoon. Heretofore the small room has been too small to accommodate all who wished to attend.

WOMAN, 70 YEARS OLD, HELD ON BIGAMY CHARGE

Philadelphia, July 12.—Arraigned in the Camden criminal court on a charge of bigamy, Lucy Hamphill declared that she thought she had a right to marry again because she had been separated from her husband for seven years.

"She never told me about the seven years' matter. She told me she was a widow, and that her husband had been killed by a train." Decision was reversed.
