

Latest Fashions by Lillian Young

The convention of the National Ladies Tailors and Dressmakers' association held in New York passed approval on the design shown in today's sketch, which will give an idea of what the fall has in store for us in the line of tailored suits.

ON CHURCH GOING

By Edna K. Woolley. There are 47 reasons why girls aren't going to church as much as they did. I announced the young person with the black eyes.

The Human Side

By Walt Mason. "You look unusually disreputable this morning," remarked the professor. "I feel the same way," replied the low-browed "somebody" or other.

Health and Beauty Helps

By Abigail Moore. Whatever cause there may be for censoring fashion, when just about anything and everything seems to "go," the mode of hairdressing must be accounted above reproach.

WOMAN SPECIALIZES AND RECEIVES REWARD

Graduate of O. A. C. Takes Remunerative Position as D. S. Teacher. (Special to The Journal.) Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Or., July 23.—It's the strangest thing why so many people who have to make their own way do not specialize.

Ethel Green, has hit upon a pretty summer coif decoration.

It is a very scanty crop of locks indeed that cannot be made to transform itself into an effective coif now, but there is one point of danger—the inclination to counteract the simplicity of the arrangement of the hair by over-ornamentation.

Artificial flowers are of course the more popular, but if the hair is uneven and disinclined to remain in order, certain schemes of decoration are useful, and for this reason nothing is prettier than flowers. The bandeau of natural roses as worn by the Grecian in the illustration is most effective for both purposes.

Dainty Parisian Hats

Dainty, coquettish, Watteau hats are to be seen in Paris, simply trimmed with a bow of satin ribbon, and a pair of old time flowers, while other hats of the Nineteen category are tied with velvet ribbons and trimmed with huge bows of tulle or bunches of Nattier flowers.

Little Stories for Bedtime

An Unpleasant Surprise

By Thornton W. Burgess. (Copyright, 1913, by J. G. Lloyd.) Legs are very useful when you want to get away from a place in a hurry.

shows just how unfair Peter was, because you see, Peter himself was really the stranger. It was his first visit to the Old Pasture, while it was very plain that the other had lived there for some time.

The Ragtime Muse

Dad's Tall Talk. Say, I'm worried 'bout my dad, 'cause he's been talking ragtime all day long. He was simply never bad—Always "walked the chalk."

IN STAGELAND

Any person who can establish a record of three years as an actor, is eligible to membership in the Actors' Equity association. The Equity association is the largest social organization, but has for its object the equitable arrangement of all business matters pertaining to those who follow the art of acting, and especially pertaining to those who are members of the association.
