

A GOOD CITIZEN BETTER THAN A GOOD SCHOLAR, BELIEF OF CHURCHILL

New Public School Course Fitted to This Maxim by New Superintendent.

No Change in Portland. Portland and 18 other school districts of Oregon in the first class are not compelled to adopt the courses as outlined by State Superintendent Churchill, although all districts, Portland excepted, must use text books selected by the State Textbook commission. Under the new law enacted by the last legislature, the Portland district is given full authority to select its own textbooks. The changes ordered by the state superintendent will not affect Portland, nor other districts of the first class, unless they choose to adopt the new order. "No changes will be made in Portland," says City Superintendent Alderman.

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.) Salem, Or., Aug. 19.—Boys and girls in the grammar schools of Oregon will not have to weary their brains any more endeavoring to find the greatest common divisor and some other things of similar importance, with which they do not know what to do after they do find them, because State School Superintendent J. A. Churchill has wiped them out of the course of study. The reforms in the new course for the first eight grades of the public schools are just as conspicuous in the new high school course.

"Teach the boys and girls not the course of study, or textbooks. Make good citizens of our boys and girls. This is your work." That is the instruction given the teachers by Superintendent Churchill in the introduction of the course of study, which is ready for distribution today. "Training for good citizenship and efficiency is the keynote of the new course of study in the grades," said Mr. Churchill.

Morals and Manners Course. In 1914 Mr. Churchill is going to add a complete course in morals and manners, as he says, this is an important feature which has long been overlooked in the school courses. In the course now being issued he is paying the way for this new feature.

"While the course embodies many of the good features of the course of 1911," said Mr. Churchill, "there are quite a number of changes, many of which were made necessary by the adoption of new textbooks by the textbook commission in June of this year."

Better Civil Government Course. "A distinct course in civil government has also been prepared. Heretofore this has been a course in connection with the history course. While this has been given a certain emphasis, it is felt the study of civics has been neglected, on account of not having satisfactory teaching in this subject."

"The study of hygiene is also given an important place in the course of study, the idea being that a child cannot become an efficient citizen unless he has a sound body. A healthy mind and body are of more importance than the ability to enumerate the bones in one's body."

"The course in drawing, which was so carefully prepared by Mrs. L. R. Alderman in the 1911 course of study, is incorporated in the new course."

"Each subject has been carefully outlined with the view to its being helpful to the teacher in the presentation of the subject as a whole."

BUYING PIANOS AS AN INVESTMENT

It's Like Opening a Bank Account

This buying on monthly installments—depositing $6 or $10 monthly—the most truly conservative investment if you buy during time of the Graves Music Co. Removal Sale prices. New $375 Pianos for $235—new $650 Player Pianos for $415. These pianos therefore cannot over depreciate in value, but remain fixed and secure at par under any and all conditions. The more nearly an investment approaches perfect stability in value, the more completely it is free from any trace of speculative element. You can readily see that when buying new $375 Pianos for $235, $650 Player Pianos at $415. You can sell them after years of wear as used pianos at $235 or $415, when others will then need pay $375 and $650 for such new ones, and therefore, you see, the value will remain at par and you can buy your Piano or Player Piano during time of the Graves Music Co.'s Removal Sale, making the purchase investment with multiple safeguards—stability in value.

Fresh with its carloads of new Pianos and Player Pianos this sale is running far ahead of any selling records previously set, and the event so greatly overshadows all other piano selling occasions that the Oregon, Washington and Idaho purchasers' interest centers in this gigantic Removal Sale of Pianos and Musical Instruments. New and Used Pianos alike—all reduced for quick selling here. The new store, 149-151 Fourth st., not yet ready, as originally planned, we need now add the carloads of new pianos arriving at Graves Music Co., 111 Fourth St., vancouver. Brand New $375 1913 Model Pianos, in mahogany or oak, $235; Brand New $400 1913 Model Pianos, in mahogany or oak, $245; Brand New $425 1913 Model Pianos, in mahogany or oak, $265; Brand New $450 1913 Model Pianos, in mahogany or oak, $295; Brand New $500 1913 Model Pianos, in mahogany or oak, $360; Brand New $650 Latest Player Pianos, in mahogany or oak, $415; Brand New $750 Latest Player Pianos, in mahogany or oak, $465; You can afford to pay $1 and $2 weekly; you can, therefore, afford to buy now.

HILLSBORO WILL HAVE PAIR OF NEW SCHOOLS

Rev. Mark Lappens, under whose supervision St. Matthew's Catholic school is going up.

(Special to The Journal.) Hillsboro, Or., Aug. 19.—With the new high school ready to be opened for the coming term on September 17, and St. Matthew's pretentious parochial school near the Catholic church, this city has made vast strides in educational accommodations during the year. G. N. McKay is the new city superintendent and C. W. Burt will be the principal.

The St. Matthew's Catholic school will be finished by the first of October. The contractors are Dingle, Denker & Cook, and the contract price about $7000. There are two stories and a large basement. The latter will be used for gymnastic purposes, the ground floor will be the school room proper, and the upper floor will be a hall for fraternal meetings and entertainments. The school will be opened for business in February, but some prior to that it will be dedicated by Archbishop Charles in the presence of leading city and state officials. Governor West will probably be present. He is a friend of Father Mark Lappens and some months ago delivered an address at the opening of a bazaar to clear the debt on the church.

Father Lappens was ordained 12 years ago in New York by Cardinal Farley, being a graduate of the Catholic university. He was assigned to the cathedral parish in Portland at first, but instead came here three years ago. He is a public spirited citizen and one of the most popular and active members of the Commercial club here.

BURGLAR GETS AWAY WITH ALARM CLOCK WHILE OWNER SLEEPS

"If there is one thing that annoys me more than another, it is for a man to take my time," declared Michael Planner of 604 Twenty-fifth Place north, in reporting a burglary to police headquarters during the night. "Well, what is the matter?" asked the captain. "A burglar broke into my house and stole my alarm clock."

"Well, go back to sleep," said the captain, "you'll have nothing to alarm you in the morning."

Advancement

—Have you ever heard about the incredulous old farmer who stood looking at the first railroad train to enter his part of the country? It was many years ago when railroad trains were new.

—"That thing will never go," he announced scornfully, as the prehistoric engine stood wheezing and coughing on its brand new tracks. —Presently the miracle was performing—with much clanging of the bell and several deafening toots of the whistle the engine began to move. It gathered rate. But the old farmer was not to be so easily impressed.

—"That thing will never stop," he said with undiminished conviction. But of course it stopped.

—"Whether or not the old settler allowed himself to believe in the new fangled conveyance after that the story does not say."

—This store tries to make improvements every day, some of them very small, for we believe that there is not a detail too trivial to merit attention. Each day we take a step forward toward THE BIG IMPROVEMENT—PERFECTION IN STORE KEEPING.
