KRAUSE HOLDS DILLS TO FIVE HITS AND IS WINNER OF 2D GAME

Errors by Metzger and Moore Help Beavers Convert 11 Hits Into Four Runs.

Harry Krause pitched five hit baseball yesterday afternoon and the men behind him cracked Chech's roundhouse curves for 11 drives, which, combined with a couple of costly errors, gave the locals four runs to one gathered by the Angelenos. Harry was in complete mastery of the situation and turned seven of the Seraphs back to the bench on strikes. When they threatened to score he tightened up like a clam.

Portland began work on Chech in the second inning, when Lindsay got a life by stopping a low curve with his right hoof. Doane bunted in front of the plate and got a Cincinnati hit when Chech failed to stop Lindsay at second. Kores sent a screcher through Johnson and Lindsay scored. Doane was out trying to reach third on the throw in. Maggert to Arbogast to Metzger. Lober singled to left and Berry's out moved the pair up a base. Krause shot a long grounder to Metzger and that worthy, after failing to touch Lober out on the line, threw wide of Moore and Kores and Lober scored, Krause pulling up at second. Chadbourne singled to right and stole, but Derrick went out, Page to Moore, and the scoring ceased for a spell.

Saved From Whitewash.

The Angels saved themselves a shutout in the sixth when Wotell doubled to center and took third on a wild pitch. Moore flashed one to Kores and was out at first, the Dutchman holding Wotell on third. However, Maggart's grounder was not hit so hard and Wotell crossed the plate, while Maggy was turned back at first.

With one out in the seventh inning Rodgers drew four balls. Chech caught him flatfooted off first and it looked like an out. Page ran in to take Moore's throw, while Johnson got ready to back up. Charley threw over Page's head and Johnson was hardly in position to take the unexpected ball. It went into left field and Rodgers reached second. Doane singled to right and Howard made a pretty play on the plate but the ball did not hop fast enough into Arbogast's outstretched paws to put it on Rodgers before he crossed.

Krause in Tight Hole.

Howard opened up the ninth with a two base hit down the third base line. Then Johnson rolled one to Rodgers and Captain Bill made a poor peg to Derrick. Here we had a glimpse of our old friend, Artie Krueger, pinching for Metzger. Artie simply can't hit any more on these grounds. He fanned, much to the joy of the crowd. Johnson got a soft steal of second and here Krause tightened and caused Arbogast to foul to Lindsay, while Ellis, clubbing for Chech, raised a fly to Doane.

Doane got three of the 11 hits and Howard got two of the Angels' five. Score:

STANLEY BUMPED IN FINAL GAME AS COLT BY VICTORIA CROWD

Carson Joins Colts and Takes Part in Third Game Locals Have Dropped.

(Special to The Journal.)

Victoria, B. C., Aug. 21.—Just to give Lefty Louis Stanley a warm farewell in his last game in the Northwestern league as a member of the Portland Colts, the Bees kissed his crooks early in the game for enough runs to place the matinee on ice. On the other hand, Narveson pitched a great game, fanning 11 of the Colts. The score was 8 to 2.

Manager Nick Williams, desperate at the thought of losing three straight to Victoria, bugled for the reserve force and as a result 14 men took part in the contest. Among them was Al Carson, late of the Portland Beavers, who fixed up certain financial matters with Judge McCredie to his satisfaction and then consented to report. He got here in time yesterday to get out into a uniform and warm up his arm. Al was drafted by Portland from Tacoma along in 1908, and this is his first reappearance in the Northwestern league.

Portland still remains in second place in the Northwestern league, in view of the fact that Seattle is losing to Vancouver. The score:

Million Dollar Stars Play.

Los Angeles, Aug. 21.—Marty O'Toole was a high priced ball player, but diamond stars worth $100,000,000 will perform tomorrow in a scrub game at the Los Angeles Country club. A $10,000,000 umpire will officiate, and there's no limit to the coin the stands will hold.

CHANCE SPENDS MONEY LIKE SAILOR

Fritz Maisel, the former star infielder of the Baltimore Orioles, for whom Frank Chance gave $12,000 and two players, Midkiff and Daniels. Maisel is playing third base for the Yankees. Maisel is a speed marvel and fields well and promises to become a hitter.

GOLF--WORLD-WIDE CHAMPIONSHIPS INTEREST

Both of the men's United States national championships for 1913 will take on an international interest through the promised attendance of eminent British and French experts. In the open championship at the Brookline Country club, near Boston, we are assured of the attendance of Harry Vardon, five times British open champion, and probably the most perfect golfer of the generation, and Edward Ray, famous for magnificent driving, and winner of the British amateur championship last year. J. H. Taylor, the present British open champion, expected to visit us, but it now looks as if he could not get away.

From France will come Massey, many times French open champion, who surprised the English and Scotch golfers by winning the British open championship a few years ago. With Massey will come Tellier, present French open champion, a golfer of surpassing brilliancy.

With these four foreign experts in the competition our imported and home-bred pros. will have a hard time to keep the title on this side of the pond. While there is no doubt that the standard of professional golf in the United States has improved since Vardon and Taylor visited us and finished one and two, it remains to be seen whether it is yet high enough to withstand the skill of these great masters of the game.

In the amateur championship at Garden City it is probable that we will have Henry Hilton, Abe Mitchell, and one or two first-class British experts. Hilton, having won the British amateur championship this year, making his fourth win of the title, is apparently desirous of adding another American trophy to his record. He is reported to be playing better golf than at any time in his long and successful career.

The other assured British entry, Abe Mitchell, created quite a sensation abroad a year or two ago by his sensational low scoring in a number of medal events. He comes from what is known as the artisan class abroad, being a gardener by trade. He was looked upon as a dangerous dark horse for the recent British amateur championship. At various times it has been reported that he was about to join the professional ranks.

It is expected that one or two other of the real top-notch amateurs will pack up a kit of clubs and join Hilton and Mitchell in their invasion, and thus pave the way for more cordial relations between the amateurs of the two nations.

With Travis on his home course, where he is almost invincible in 36-hole matches, Travers apparently playing inspired golf in a pinch, and "Chick" Evans, Fred Herreshoff, and other brilliant performers, the chances are against the British amateurs taking home the coveted prize.

It is hoped that the international flavor given the British and American championship will increase, for it is only by this means that American golf will attain the highest standing.

PORTLAND HEAVIES ARE 'PREPPING' FOR BATTLE AT PENDLETON'S SHOW

Tracey Schooling Root to Meet King's Hope, Madden, if Go Is Finally Arranged.

That Jack Root, the ex-football player and wrestler, will be a promising heavyweight boxer, is the opinion of Tommy Tracey, the veteran instructor, who has begun schooling Root for a match at Pendleton, Or., with Larry Madden, during the Round-Up.

"Root is a big, strong fellow," declared Tracey, "and shows evidence of having a good head. He is light on his feet, and seems possessed of a lot of endurance. Of course, he has a lot to learn about hitting, warding off blows, and sidestepping, but with a little more work he looks as if he will pick up some of the finer points quite readily.

"Madden is a big, strong fellow and able to go the route. He has had more experience than Root, but I believe the latter is just as strong and will, with a little more instruction, put it over the policeman."

Jack King, Larry's friend, guide and philosopher, says the copper is boxing better right now than at any time in his life and believes he will stop Root, provided they are matched, or any other of the northwest heavyweights. Jack has been training Larry faithfully for the Round-Up bout and says he is a wonder physically. If that is the case and they are finally matched for the Pendleton date, the fans may expect a slugging bout from gong to gong.

Young and Willard Tomorrow.

Los Angeles, Aug. 21.—Bull Young, said to be the biggest man who ever came out of Wyoming, will fill his first important ring engagement tomorrow night when he meets Jess Willard at Vernon arena in a 20-round battle. If Young wins, he probably will meet Gunboat Smith in San Francisco under Coffroth's direction.

Young completed his training several days ago, and is in perfect condition. Willard went through a hard workout yesterday. He predicts a knockout victory. A majority of fans here sympathize with his prediction.

Sacramento Clubs After Clabby.

Sacramento, Cal., Aug. 21.—Jimmy Clabby, middleweight, is a much wanted man in Sacramento. Two clubs are after him for 20-round contests during September. Clabby, it is understood, has assured a local fight promoter that he is willing to meet Sailor Grande in Sacramento September 8, if he is not substituted for Sailor Petroskey or some other fighter in San Francisco on that date.

Young O'Brien in Frisco.

San Francisco, Aug. 21.—Accompanied by his brother, Philadelphia Jack O'Brien, young Jack O'Brien, a lightweight, who recently boxed Freddie Welsh 15 rounds at Vancouver, B. C., losing a hair-line decision, is in San Francisco today looking for matches. O'Brien will talk matters over this afternoon with Promoter J. W. Coffroth.

Petroskey and McAllister Again.

San Francisco, Aug. 21.—Sailor Petroskey and Bob McAllister signed articles this afternoon for a return match here on the afternoon of Admission day, September 9. The conditions of the match are identical in every detail with those of the last match. The men agreed to weigh 160 pounds at 10 o'clock on the morning of the fight, and the financial consideration for each is the same as for the first fight.

Burns Trains in Oakland.

Oakland, Cal., Aug. 21.—Frankie Burns, the Oakland lightweight, who is to meet Red Watson in a 10-round bout here next Tuesday night, has deserted his San Rafael training camp and will do the remainder of his training at the Oakland A. C. Burns found the weather too hot in San Rafael and feared he would lose too much weight.

Most of the play of yesterday's program was in the mixed doubles.

The results:

Other matches among the all-comers event were as follows: Norris Williams beat S. H. Voshel, Nat Niles beat Gardner Beals, Washburn beat H. J. Johnson, M. R. Niles Jr., beat Alfred Dabney.

In the interscholastic matches G. C. Caner beat F. Hopkins, J. H. Weber beat S. A. Cushman.
